Supreme Court of the United States,
Washington, D.C.

May 23rd, 1915

My dear President Jackson,

I have received your letter of the 21st and I am very sorry indeed to be compelled to say that I shall not be able to attend the meeting of the Board of Trustees on June 8th.

The Court will not rise until June 21st and every available moment until that date... will be needed in disposing of kind invitation of Mr. Jones and yourself, and we wish that we could accept it.

With cordial regards,

Faithfully yours,

My dear Justice Hughes:—

Your favor of the 23d of May reached me in New York. I regret that your duties will make it impossible for you to visit us next week. At some other time we I am sure shall be able to make an arrangement which may be convenient. The year has been a prosperous one for the University. Our beautiful new buildings are reaching completion, and the quadrangle are gradually assuming their final

My dear American reader:

Your letter of the 28th of May received me in New York. I regret that your answer will make it impossible for you to visit us next week. I have been called away to make an engagement which may prevent me from seeing you. I hope you will see Dr. Healy to see the arrangements which may be made.

The year has been a prelude of one for the University of Pennsylvania. We have presented new patients who were ..
form. Next year at the June Convocation we shall celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the University. I devoutly trust that the Supreme Court will find itself provided with a light docket at that time, so that we may have the privilege of having yourself and Mrs. Hughes with us.

With cordial regards,

Yours,
