Dear D. Harper

"I do remember my fault this day."

Sometimes since my brother told me that Mr. Green would be glad, if in making up your various departmental committees (I do not know the precise name you give them) you would include in some of them his nephews. William - Green, president of the Protege Lumber Co., and his cousin, Andrew - Green, a son of Mr.
O. B. Green, whom you know.

You will find them bright, energetic young men, and capable of good service, I have no doubt. Andrew Green is a studious man, a graduate of Harvard and takes a keen interest in economic and monetary questions. He is rather too conservative in his position, to quite suit my views, but perhaps you will think all the safer.

I shall be in Chicago toward the end of June and shall be glad to attend any first board meeting if you let me know the date and I can arrange it.

With kind regards to yourself and Mrs. Harper, as always,

Faithfully Yours
Nightingale Williams

To President
William R. Harper, A. S.
Chicago.
