My dear Mr. President:

Mrs. McLaurry, the sister of Mr. George C. Walker, and daughter of Mr. Charles Walker, telephones offering to give the University the oil portrait of her father, Mr. Charles Walker, painted by Coxwell. Mr. Charles Walker was, of course, the man who accepted Stephen A. Douglas' offer of a site for the old University of Chicago. As Mrs. McLaurry is moving out this week, I ventured to accept the gift tentatively. I hope this will have your approval.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Judson:-

Mrs. Harrison L. Van Schaick, 5449 Cornell Avenue, has had a portrait made of Mr. George C. Walker, for presentation to the University of Chicago, to be hung in Hutchinson Hall.
You must bear in mind that the artist,
Mr. Timmons, had nothing whatever to work from, except an old steel engraving. Under the circumstances I think he has done remarkably well. When the picture comes to you, will you kindly write a nice letter to Mrs. Van Schaick, thanking her for her generous gift.

Yours very truly,
