On account of the shortness of time in which these books are required to be out, contributions will be appreciably received by May 1st.

Dear Dr. Judson:

Apropos of our conversation of last week, I beg to assure you, on behalf of the Wayfarers and myself, of the pleasure with which the members are looking forward to seeing you at home again and of hearing a few words from you concerning your travels.

If you desire the use of a stereopticon or other electric paraphernalia to show any pictures you have on hand, please advise me and I will have it in readiness. The meeting is on next Tuesday evening, November 3rd at the usual place, the Mid-Day Club, 17th Floor, First National Bank Bldg., at 7 P.M.

Again thanking you and with kind regards, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Dr. Harry Pratt Judson, c/o University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, October 29, 1914

My dear Mr. Rawson:—

Your kind note of the 27th inst. is at hand. I shall not need a stereopticon, as I haven’t a collection of pictures which I could arrange in time to be of any service. It will be necessary therefore to confine myself to verbal painting.

Looking forward with much interest to meeting the Wayfarers once more, I am,

Cordially yours,

I am greatly interested in the subject of the book you have mentioned. I would like to learn more about it. If I am unable to find a copy of the book, will you please refer me to any other source? I am eager to learn more about this topic.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Dr. Judson,

We are casting about for someone to entertain the Wayfarer's Club at their May meeting which takes place on next Tuesday evening, May 2nd, and it has occurred to me that possibly you might be able to induce one of your professors to come as a guest of the Club and talk to us on some topic in which he is interested and which you know would be interesting to us. If you can aid us in this matter, you will put the Club, as well as Judge Dickinson and myself, under many obligations to you. If you will kindly telephone me the result, I will send out notices accordingly as soon as possible.

Thanking you in advance and with kind regards, I am

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE WAYFARER'S CLUB:

It has been suggested that on account of many of the members not returning to the city from their summer vacations until after the first Tuesday in October that the Constitution be changed to provide for the holding of the meetings on the last Tuesday of each month from October to May inclusive, and in addition, a Twelfth Night dinner, on January 6.

The President would appreciate an expression of your opinion on the enclosed postal card as to the feasibility of this idea, and whether or not the change would interfere with any set date you may have.

H. A. Wheeler,
Secretary.

Chicago, May 31, 1917.
TO THE MEMBERS OF THE MATTHEWS CLYDE.

It has been suggested that no account of work on the committee not be made to the least of several sessions until after the first Tuesday in October.

I will take occasion to oppose any further effort to prosecute the meeting on the first Tuesday of each month.

October is the last occasion, and in addition, a Teasell Mill is never to renew.

The President hereby apprises all as follows:

At the adjournment of the executive meeting which is to be held on the date above, the Secretary shall issue a notice to all the members with what set case line may please,

My dear President Judson:

As one of the Wayfarers, you may be interested in the tribute to Dr. Favill, which I prepared at the request of the City Club of Chicago for its memorial meeting.

I am venturing, therefore, to send you The Survey for March 11, which printed it in token of the interest which Dr. Favill had in the magazine and that which so many of its readers had in him.

The loss of his fellowship which we so keenly feel in the Wayfarers, is shared by a country-wide circle of people who have the intelligent and practical interest in public affairs which he had to such a marked degree.

Very truly yours,

Sir:

At the request of the President of the Wayfarer's Club, Dr E. C. Dudley, and of its Committee on Twelfth Night Celebration, consisting of President Harry Pratt Judson, of the University of Chicago, Hon. Jacob M. Dickinson, ex-Secretary of War, Mr. Frederick H. Rawson, President of the Union Trust Company, and Mr. John T. McCutcheon, it is my pleasant duty to ask if it would be possible for you to be the quest of the Club at its Twelfth Night dinner which will take place on Saturday evening, the Fifth of January, 1918.

It is the desire of the Club to do special honor on that occasion to the chief representatives of the United States Army and Navy on duty in and near Chicago, and we are venturing to address you thus early, and in advance of the issue of the formal invitations, in the earnest hope that you may be able to accept and be present with us that evening.

A letter similar to this is being addressed to the commanding officers at Fort Sheridan, Camp Grant, and the U. S. Naval Training Station at Great Lakes. Formal invitations also will be sent to the heads of departments in your Command and to such officers of the Allied Armies as may be in Chicago at the time of our dinner. No formal addresses will be expected of our guests.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

It will be sent to the hands of commanders to whom it is addressed and to whose offices it is directed. We feel assured that the result will be satisfactory.

Very respectfully,

Dear Captain Moffett:

The President of the Wayfarers

Club, Dr. E. C. Dudley, requests me to write to you, confirming his communication on the subject of the meeting of that organization on the 5th of January. I am hoping that you can see your way to granting his request. He especially desires some members of the Band, I understand, and also some enlisted men to join with Army men in the unfurling of the Colors. While of course this is not a public function, the Club is devoting itself to the Army and Navy for that night, and is greatly interested in having them join in with us.
