W. T. H. Richards have much pleasure in accepting the kind invitation of Vice President of Mr. James Hayden Tufts on behalf of the University to a luncheon in honor of His Excellency the British Ambassador Thady Dalhalla Howard in Loo Noyes Hall at 12.30 on Friday, March 19th.
I'm at the American Embassy. I'm trying to see the President.

Please send me a recommendation of whom I should see.

I'm a member of the American Association. I'm a journalist. Please send me a letter of introduction to the President.
Vice President and Mrs. James Haydon Johnston, in behalf of the University, request the pleasure of the presence of [name deleted] at a luncheon in honor of His Excellency the British Ambassador, Sir Cosmo Howard, and Lady Isabella Howard, in Ida Noyes Hall at twelve-thirty, o'clock, Friday, March nineteenth.

Please send reply to the President's Office.

Dear Mr. Swift:

I have your note of March 8 with the names suggested for the luncheon. I will have invitations sent to them. Mr. Arnett is unfortunately to be out of the city. We have decided to have the luncheon in Ida Noyes. I think it would be in the interests of "safety first" if our guests could look in at Harper Library and the new Theology Building before the lunch. The Consul said that Lady Howard must be downtown again at 2:15. I foresee that it would be difficult to adjourn the luncheon in time to look at the buildings. Hence if they are to see them at all it might be safer for them to drive through the grounds on their way from the Stock Yards, stopping at the two buildings mentioned above for perhaps fifteen minutes in all.

I asked the Office of the Social Service Administration to send you a copy of the statement which was made for Dr. Ruml by Dean Abbott.

Sincerely yours,

James H. Tufts

Mr. James H. Tufts,
The University of Chicago,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Tufts:

Answering your telephone query as to suggestions
reference luncheon for Sir Esme and Lady Howard:

From the Board I recommend inviting the following officers and their wives:

Howard G. Grey
Thos. E. Donnelley
Robert L. Scott
A. W. Sherer
Harold H. Swift

In addition, would also invite Mr. and Mrs. B. E.
Sunny. Think also from the University that the two Vice Presidents and their wives should be invited and also Mr. and Mrs. Woodward.
You will know, of course, whom in addition to add from the University group.

Yours cordially,
