Hon. Samuel Fessenden.
Peck Act Co.
N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Yours of the 28th reached me several days ago, but I delayed an answer until I had made a thorough canvas of the colored vote in the State, thus I have done with little pains a speech and I can safely say that we will not lose any colored vote in the State except a few that may vote the Temperance ticket or the Union or serve, and probably a hundred at most in Cincinnati. Beyond this you can count the colored vote of this State for the ticket of our friends.
They are rapidly pressing B.L. Club, and whenever they have an assembly of members and forming Colored Club, with great alacrity and pride. I will suggest to Mr. Ogilvie that I reach Columbus that someone be sent to Cincinnati to look after the colored vote there. It is here that such person be a resident of the State who can remain there about a couple weeks just before the election. This course of opinion will be of the number that at this writing apparently against Mr. Ogilvie for suggesting a resident of the State is William Peter H. Clark a very intelligent colored gentleman now in the employ of the Democracy can better be met upon the local matters of the State — city — one who will give them

At a social and political gathering, the line in the sand of Black Sox.

Apparent goal for the Democracy generally speaking the bolt is getting in splendid fighting from the sink and files are compelling the leaders to shake up their disband. I had spoken every day for ten days in the meetings where I have determined enthusiastic last night at John Birt we had by actual count four thousand at forty-four thousand in line leaders, speakers and persons on foot all in the crowd. I feel that the Republicans doing their best to advance the ticket.

The quality of a few weeks ago has given away to active energetic work.

Respectfully, O.D. New.

Advocate sending a colored worker?

The Democratic party is getting into splendid fighting trim; heating up their disfranchisement.

The apathy of the Republican a few weeks ago has given way to active energetic work.
