Ag't. University of Chicago

Dr. Sir,

Your draft of 20$ came duly to hand. I am not prepared to pay any thing on my notes to the University at present. I regret very much that I am compelled to delay in payment. Very Respectfully,

J. Elliott.
for I have not been prospered in this world as good adversity has been my lot I have been obliged to sell my home here I have taken the land under the Homestead law now a I have but very limited means to take my family there and make our new home a little comfortable, then I have a large family all girls except one little boy to feed cloth and educate if I can now to take of the little I have to pay those notes it seems to take the food from children mouths the clothes from their backs or the education from them necessary to make them respectable in the world now under these circumstances the ces is it right that I should do it is it right that you should exact it I appeal to you as a Christian and a Christian parent if you have children you love them I love to see them comfortable decently educated mine are as dear to me as yours are to you I should I ever be pressed so that I can pay reasonably it shall be a happy thing for me to do to wish the University well God that is a great blessing I the greatest to our denomination now I have stated to you the facts in my case without any exaggeration please place yourself in my condition & then say what is right what I must do yours truly C. Rev. M. O. Clarke
Financial Sec. University

Dear Bro;

I send report of Collection for the University of Illinois. I received notes on J. P. Hum-gate of Louisville, A. E. Dye & J. P. Dye of Flora—all of Clay County. I made two trips over there to collect—at second trip I collected of J. P. Humigate, his notes given July 15th, 1858, amounting in the aggregate to $100. with six per cent interest Collection $139.00
Commission 12 13.30

I sent you $25.00 in December 1864, by my wife. One hundred & twenty five $125.00 Dollars, for which I have your receipt.
This closes J. P. Humigate's account.
I have been to pain to get something from Mr. Dye but could not. When I last saw him. My impression is that the account is not worth over 10¢ on the dollar.

Mr. Dye had moved to Maittoon. When I last heard from him, he was an object of charity. The whole account is not worth 10¢

Yours truly A. L. Mahan

P.S. I thought I had made this report long since; till

I received your note.

I did the best I could, but had a good deal of trouble.

With best wishes to you at the University. I remain

Sincerely

Sent to C. Button at Barry. Note against Mr. Flannagan $90

Jan. 28th 71
I am unable at this time. The past season has been so severe that it is with difficulty that I know how to keep my feet from slipping. All I can promise is to do something in the fall of the present year. I cannot before. Much pleasure on the part of the board will only mean more without helping in necessity. As do I believe that they can be justly rented to - misfortune should not be treated as to crime.

Asking the further indulgence indicated of the board - and your good offices in whatever respects,

I remain
Very truly yours,

Re: Ches. It. Rev. 43.

Treasurer, etc.

Chicago,

My dear sir,

In reply to your application for payment of note held against me by Trustees of Chicago University I can only say that I have not enough. In this time to make them in whole or in part. In making this statement, it is due to the board and to myself that I make known the facts that have brought prevented and will longer delay payment. When I vacated the note, my circumstances and prospects in life were different from what they were now. I was then one of the owners and publishers of the Chicago Times. It was suggested to me by the Rev. Dr. Bancroft...
I stated the circumstances to Dr. Barrowth and the late Mr. Jones, the latter gentleman held possession of the note at the time, he told me that he could not press me under the circumstances, Dr. Barrington suggested that a statement and application might with propriety be laid before the board of Trustees, as the case was one in which he had no personal concern. I am not in circumstances to meet the note, I have no income save what is derived from the farm and dairy, at all times small and precarious enough, but last year inflicting a loss instead of yielding a profit. I can not insulate, having discharged in full any business liability contract-ted by me in life. All I have known in the farm which furnishes myself and family at the same time a home and maintenance.

I am unable to make out the name referred to, whether it is Peel or Put. I have shown it to several brethren who are "like minded", and who are of the opinion that no many either name has lived here; and further, they have no recollection of any Agent ever being here on business for the University; and suppose there may be some mistake in the location. Dear Bro. Dye,

Mr. Grigs, the treasurer of the University called my attention this evening to the fact that you had not had a receipt for the money sent to me last October. I think I gave the receipt to the man Mr. Roy or Mr. Jackson whichever it was that handed me the money & he was to forward it to you. I therefore mark the one I now send as "duplicate." I assure you the omission was most welcome & I ought to have written you acknowledging your kindness. Remember the pleasant visit which I enjoyed at your house & your kind hospitality. I often find myself wishing to repeat it. My kind regards to Mrs. Roy & your family. I shall be glad to see you all here.

Yours truly,

Remits his note in conformity hand for collection.

I received a letter a few days since in regard to a note that the university holds against me in answer I would say it is impossible for me to pay it at present. I gave the note contrary to my own feelings knowing I was not able to do it but had the assurance that I would not have any trouble about it if it was not paid. I have not seen the time that I could pay it since I gave it.

I lost nearly all my property in Ill in and have nothing now only what I can earn by my own labor and this is rather hard for a man as old as I am. I have been trying to get a living on a small farm and... have barely made my ends meet, but I have left it over and I do not know what I shall do at present. If I ever get able I shall be glad to pay it, but to do it at present would be very hard and I take from my family the necessary of life hoping you will take the will for the deed. I am yours Respectfully at that time I was doing quite a business in groceries back in Rockoda

v. But as you will see by this letter I am more in Neb. I made a poor homestead. Had my crops taken by the Grocers. This year and it is all I can do to take care of my family and if on not much to pay off. But if you will send me the rent I am able to send it in when that will be. I cannot tell you exactly when circumstances may press do as you think best. I but if you could cancel my note - and return it here. I will take it as a great favor but if that cannot be done I shall here to have no consequences.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir,

Your letter was received a few days ago. I can only say when I signed that note I was able to pay it. But in consequence of loss of property I left Illinois poor. I commenced in Kansas did different business and hoped to be able to pay the last year but the Grasshopper season ruined us by ruining others.

We have nearly $10,000 invested in that Grasshopper district. Good for nothing to day I mean not to get away and that was about all I am now located in Burlington, Iowa and if I ever get able to pay the note will.

Yours truly, Levi Hubbard.

Sirs,

I am one of the 30 farmers in the vicinity. You wish me to write when I can send you money. I cannot see any prospect of collecting anything the present year. I have to depend on outstanding obligations for a living and find hard to collect enough to make a living.

I shall pay the $200 as soon as I can. The Mason City property was sold for $3000.

Yours truly, F. E. Hastings.

Your letter of the 8th received and will say in reply there is no record of any note being given to you directed to J. W. Curtis. As reported in his Will of giving the University a certain amount but this business is in such a shape that there cannot much be realized for two years you will please give the date of the note and rate of interest if you hold one against J. Mr. Gage.ette

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 15th. at hand, an answer to the question, how much I paid for scholarship. I would say that the bargain with the agent Rev. C. Button, was that if I would pay $500, with interest, as specified, I paid me, the Church here should have a scholarship, to be named after me, Rev. Button & Rev. Griffiths, now of Abilvankie would take care of the rest, or $500. Mother thinks Iowell Giglet, Wastie, gave each $100, who gave the other $100, I do not know. I think it was Mr. Griffiths.
I am not positive, for think it all paid at agreed, excepting a part of Griffiths, and perhaps Iowell, she moved away soon after, and I am uninformed about it. But I paid my last month. I wrote to Burrough about it, two or three and she sent a postal card stating an confiscate, of the amount $620.4 and my punctuality, and the agreement. I was entitled to the scholarship, and sent it me.

Respectfully Yours

In reply to your letter of yesterday

I am now J. Foster, Esq.

Chicago, Ills. Dear Sir,

In response to your favor of above date I enclose herewith copies of the receipts & letters from Dr. Dyer which are in my hands. While alive Mr. Dyer had great difficulty in obtaining receipts from B. and you will notice there is now one receipt lacking. But acknowledgment of the $100 for which no separate receipt was given is made under date of June 14, 1874 and Oct. 15th, 1875. Mr. Dyer was assumed several times by B. that the endorsements were made on his note.

I trust you will not think that I have any ni clineation to blame you in connection with this. I can easily understand the perplexities and difficulties of your position especially as I learned something of the character of the man you dealt with.

Very Truly yours,

E. J. Lindsay

Mr. Gazette,

Dear Sir:

At request of Dr. A. A. Beecher, I write to you in reference to his scholarship, on which $200 are due due. He feels he cannot possibly pay the balance and yet feels the $800 he has paid should return him something. His health is entirely gone, no hope of recovery. His means are limited, and he is anxious to provide for his family when he is gone. This letter presents his paying remaining $200.
And makes him desire to help some people from the $800.

What can be done
in his case?
Would it not be possible to secure him a scholarship with some conditions or restrictions?

At all events, might he not be assured that his own children would have the benefits of

May I ask you to inform me what is the best proposition that can be made him?

Sir,

I had some correspondence with you some time ago, some two years ago or more, about the claim of the University of Chicago against me. I could not then see my way clear to pay it, or make any definite pledge as to the future. I cannot pay it now, but am desirous of having it settled in some way. I would like to know how it can be done, or what arrangement can be made.

Respectfully,
