20. E. S. Shaw
21. E. P. Condie
22. Geo. T. Baldwin
23. H. H. Ewens
24. Fred C. Wait.
25. Geo. M. Bond
26. Rodney K. Pratt
27. T. H. Collman
28. H. H. Eventh
29. A. L. Anderson
30. E. S. Lewis
31. E. A. Boyce
32. E. S. Lewis
33. E. A. Boyce
1. Mary McQuilk Andrews.

2. "

3. "

4. "

5. "

6. "

7. "

8. "

9. "

10. "

11. "

12. "

13. "

14. "

15. "

16. "

17. "

18. "

19. "

20. "

21. "

Elected, September 1, 1883.

2. "

3. "

4. September 26, 1884.

5. "

6. "

7. "

8. "

9. "

10. "

11. "

12. "

13. "

14. "

15. "

16. "

17. "

18. "

19. "

20. "

21. "

22. "

23. "

24. "

25. "

26. "

27. "

28. "

29. "

30. "

31. "

32. "

33. "

34. "

35. "

36. "

37. "

38. "

39. "

40. "

41. "

42. "

43. "

44. "

45. "

46. "

47. "

48. "

49. "

50. "

51. "

52. "

53. "

54. "

55. "

56. "

57. "

58. "

59. "

60. "

61. "

62. "

63. "

64. "

65. "

66. "

67. "

68. "

69. "

70. "

71. "

72. "

73. "

74. "

75. "

76. "

77. "

78. "

79. "

80. "

81. "

82. "

83. "

84. "

85. "

86. "

87. "

88. "

89. "

90. "

91. "

92. "

93. "

94. "

95. "

96. "

97. "

98. "

99. "

100. "

101. "

102. "

103. "

104. "

105. "

106. "

107. "

108. "

109. "

110. "

111. "

112. "

113. "

114. "

115. "

116. "

117. "

118. "

119. "

120. "

121. "

122. "

123. "

124. "

125. "

126. "

127. "

128. "

129. "

130. "

131. "

132. "

133. "

134. "

135. "

136. "

137. "

138. "

139. "

140. "

141. "

142. "

143. "

144. "

145. "

146. "

147. "

148. "

149. "

150. "

151. "

152. "

153. "

Mary McQuilk Andrews.

Danie Poyden of Oct.

Carrie Hough.

Julia Ruth Tingham.

Addie Vellie Kellett.

Kattie E. Sandoes.

Kattie M. Sandow.

Mona A. Sars.

Eagmar Henderson.

Elizabeth C. Braas.

Mary M. Madison.

June W. Beech.

Josephine E. Sandowre.

Fred N. Vandcr.

Gherade Lichtorie.

B.A. D. Boggs.

Fred W. Poudriat.
University Park, Sept. 12, 1883

The society was called to order by D. H. Head, president, pro tem.

Program:

Music - Instrumental:

Reading:

Essay: "Alexandrina"

The Enterprise:

Music:

Debate:

Resolved: That the establishment of a National Prohibition party at the present time is unwise.

Affirmed by:

Denied by:

The judges Messrs. Boyd, Harrington, and Everett decided two to one in favor of the negative.

After a Business Meeting was held, at which the following officers for the fall term were elected by acclamation:

A. V. Boole, President.

Miss Banner Knight, Vice-President.

B. J. Antisdel, Secretary.

W. B. Malley, Treasurer.

J. H. Everett.

On motion of D. H. Hammonds, the chair was instructed to appoint a committee to confer with a like committee from Tri-Alpha to obtain a piano for the use of the society. Society then adjourned.

A. V. Boole, Pres.

B. J. Antisdel, Sec.
University Park, Sept. 19, 1877

Society called to order by the president. Minutes of preceding meeting read and approved.

Program:

Music - Instrumental
M. J. Swierklo

President's Address
W. G. Cooley

Reading
M. J. Swierklo

Music
W. G. Cooley

Essay
M. J. Swierklo

The Enterprise
B. B. Antisdell.

Debate:

Resolved that the presidential term should not be extended to six years.

Affirmed by S. R. Higgins

Denied by J. B. Shannon

The judges were M. J. Swierklo, W. G. Cooley and R. A. McNeil. The resolution was decided to be in favor of the negative.

M. J. Swierklo, Walsh, Cooley and J. B. Shannon took part in the miscellaneous debate.

Mr. J. Antisdell

After the business of the following business was transacted: It was voted that the election of officers at the last meeting without the required notice be ratified. The names of W. G. Cooley and J. B. Shannon by S. R. Higgins, J. B. Shannon, and J. B. Shannon. The names of Miss Swierklo, W. G. Cooley, M. J. Swierklo, and of Miss Anna Johnson by Miss Antisdell.

The president appointed an executive committee W. G. Cooley, James Swierklo and B. B. Antisdell.

The committee for music, Miss Julia Cole, Miss Edna Kent, F. M. Good and E. B. Walsh. W. G. Cooley reported that the committee to obtain a piano had made no progress. Society then adjourned.

A. W. Cooley, Pres.

J. B. Smith, Secy.
University of New Mexico.

Society called to order by the president.
Minutes of last meeting read and adopted.
The names of Miss Fannie and Nettie Sanders,
R. St. Tovard, E. R. Hendrickson and H. S. Hendrick were proposed for membership.

On motion of T. W. Hammond, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Miss Enid Willett, Misses Lena Johnson, J. B. Brandman, J. Reid, E. M. Hopp, and
A. D. Hart as members of the society.

Program:

Music
Reading
Essay
Music
The Enterprise

Debate:
Resolved: That the time of residence required of immigrants before granting them the right of suffrage be extended.

Affirmative: T. M. Stovall

Negative: H. E. Hendrickson

The judge: Miss Gray, Miss Reid and Miss Andrews divided two to one in favor of the negative.

A. B. Everett and J. G. Walsh took part in the miscellaneous debate.

Critics' Report.

J. B. Everett.

After the usual recess a business meeting was held.

W. D. Amnaps of the committee to obtain a piano reported that one would be obtained as soon as the necessary funds were received.
The treasurer's report for last term was defended.

Society then adjourned.

J. E. Antiedel.

A. W. Booby.
University Park,

Society called to order by the president. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. The name of Miss H. M. Madison was proposed for membership.

On motion of W. J. Burnham the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Miss Katie and Sister Timbes, J. A. Howard, L. G. Scudder, and E. M. Rundell as members of the society.

Program:

Music - Instrumental Miss Bedwood
Reading
Miss Bailey
Drama - "Upstairs"
F. A. Brown
Vocal Solo
Miss M. Davis
Conference
T. M. Hammonds
Debate

Resolved - That Bismarck's policy was best for the German people.

Affirmed by

T. A. Hill

Seconded by

F. W. Jackson

While the judges were making up their decision, the society was furnished with remarks by Miss Wilder, an alumnus of the school and society.

The judges are Messrs. Scudder, Howard, and Bunting; decided two to one in favor of the negative.

Critics Report

J. B. Brown

After the usual recess a business meeting was held. The treasurer's report for last term was read and accepted.

The committee of obtain on pianos reported that they had performed their duty (and were discharged).

The president appointed T. J. Marlow, T. W. Hammond, and Miss Carrie Rogers as a committee to get up an alumni meeting.

Final Solos

Miss M. Davis

Society then adjourned.

A. M. Dooley, Pres.

E. J. Antisdel, Sec.
University Park.

Oct 6, 1887

Society called to order by the president.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.
The names of Miss Maria Sauer, Miss Bern and Miss Magnot Hamond were proposed for membership.

On motion of J. W. Hammond the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Miss H. I. W. Madslor as a member of the society.

Program.

Instrumental Music
Miss Seigle
Reading
Miss Sauer
Speech
Miss Marie Sharp
Declamation
Miss Seigle
The Cave
Miss Seigle
Debate
J. B. Andrews
J. B. Hamond

Resolved: That the faculty expenditure was wise.

Affirmed by

Voted by

The judges were: Andrews, Walsh and Hammond, and decided two to one in favor of the affirmative.

T. E. Donnelly took part in the miscellaneous debate.

By J. B. Everett.

After the usual use, a business meeting was held.

J. G. Walsh reported that nothing had been done by the committee to prepare an program for the alumni meeting.

The resignation of J. H. Slaughter was read and accepted.

Society then adjourned.

A. W. Crocker, Sec.

B. G. Antisdel, Secy.
Univ. Parks. Oct. 17, 1884,
Society called to order by the President.
Minutes of last meeting read and approved.
The names of J. W. Hayes and Miss Row were proposed for membership.
On motion of T. M. Hammond the secretary was instructed to draft the list of the society for Miss Green, Miss Hannon and Miss Lewis as members.
Program:

Music: Miss Holland
Recitation: Miss Lucile Willett
Essay: E. H. Randell
The Enterprise: E. J. Antiedel
Triple Declamation: Misses Hammond, Walsh, and Bumeg.

Debate:
Resolved: That a laborious working house should be reduced to eight.

Affirmed by:

B. R. Nichols
C. J. Shaw
The judges: Misses Antiedel, Sandwich and Anderson decided two to one in favor of the negative.

While the judges were making up their decision, Prof. Butler said a few words to the Society.

Critique Report.
J. L. Snedecor.
After a recess a Business Meeting was held.
The committee to arrange a program for an Alumni Meeting presented the following one, for Nov. 12, 1884.
Address: Dr. W. Wool.
Paper: Miss Reid
Essay: Prof. Colman
Debate: Misses Mary and Thomas
Essay: Miss Reinhart

The project was accepted;
On motion of T. M. Hammond, the president appointed Miss Gilbert and Miss Sandor as a committee to confer with a like committee from S. P. Carpenters to arrange for an University seminar.

The Society then adjourned.
At the called meeting Wednesday, Oct. 27
the committee reported that it was thought best to have the society Friday evening
Oct. 27. Report accepted.
Friday evening was appointed as the time for the Society.

Oct. 31, 1884.

Society called to order by the president.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

The names of T. W. Baldwin and J. W. Baldwin were proposed for membership.

On motion of W. A. Burrough, the secretary was instructed to call the roll of the society for Miss Fisk and J. W. Magee as members.

Program:

Music: Miss Susie Endicott
Reading: Miss Anna Johnson
The Grayhills: Miss Julia Johnson
Music: Miss Edith
Address: "Wm. Pitt," J. W. Johnson

Miscellaneous Topic:

Would it be national Democratic policy to praise the country at the present time?
Misses: Francie, Grace, Connelly, Drew, Wash.
Hammond and Junior took part.

Second Resolution: J. B. Scott.
A vote of the society was taken resolving on 18 votes for Alice D., 18 for Daniel D. and 18 for St. John.
University Parlors, Nov. 2, 1884

Society called to order by the president. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

The name of J. Wilt was proposed for membership. On motion of J. M. Hammond the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for G. A. and J. M. Baldwin as members.

Program:

Music: Miss Alice C. Miller
Address: "Delusions of Hope," J. B. Ewart
Reading: "A Child's Dream of a Star," Poise Barry Stiga
Music: Miss Miller
Address: "Idiographe of Hope," J. M. Hammond
Address: "Need of Hope," J. G. Walsh
Music: Miss Miller
Critique Report: J. B. Ewart

After the usual verse a Business Meeting was held.

J. M. Hammond reported that the committee of this society and Tau Kappa had conferred with the faculty and found it was not the business of the faculty nor of the board of finances to repair the piano, but he advised them to consult an expert and if he said that the piano could be used for a sufficient length of time, to do it and be saved that the other half was paid.

Mrs. Hammond also reported it had been decided to have "The Alumni Meeting," Nov. 21. Society then adjourned.

A. N. Bosley, Pres.

C. J. Antiedel, Secy.

Society called to order by the president. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

On motion of J. W. Hammond, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for J. W. Pat in favor of the amendment.

Program:

Instrumental Music: Miss Irwin.
Reading: Miss Irwin.
Declaration: J. B. Sanderson.
Essay: Miss Irwin.
Yodel Solo: Miss Irwin.
The Enterprise: W. B. Barows.

Debate:
Resolved: That the annexation of Canada to the United States would be beneficial.

Affirmed by: J. G. Donnelley.

Denied by: J. B. Sanderson.

The judges: Meares, Baldwin, Sand and Sanderson decided two to one in favor of the affirmative.

Messrs. Donnelley and Sanderson took part in the miscellaneous debate.

Mr. Everett.

J. W. Hammond reported that as the committee from the House knew more about judges than he did, the matter had been left to them.

The president appointed a committee to investigate the division of the judges, Messrs. Howell, B. C. Sanderson and J. G. Antisdel.

Society then adjourned.

J. W. Booth, Pres.
University Parlor. Nov. 28, 1884.

Society called to order by the vice-president. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

Program:

Music: Miss Laura Smith, J. S. Deuel.
Reading: R. C. Pratt.
Drama: S. B. Nichols.
Entertainment: Miss Ethel Andrews, Miss Laura Smith.

Debate
Resolved—That the republican party has outlived its usefulness.

Affirmed by: W. S. Burnham, E. W. Hammond.

Denied by: J. S. Everett, Miss Lilian Smith, B. H. Hill.

The judges: Misses Walsh, Bryant, and Stansfield decided two to one in favor of the affirmative.

J. S. Everett and Miss Hill both took part in the miscellaneous debate.

Critics' Report: J. S. Everett.

After the usual recees at Business Meeting was held.

J. S. Walsh reported that to repair the fountains would cost $50, the University would pay $1, and the two societies the other $4, but as they would receive some money back when the gentle piano was returned, the amount for each society to pay would be small.

J. S. Everett moved that the report of the committee be adopted and they be re-appointed to carry out the plans. Carried. Society then adjourned.

A. W. Boyce.

Pres.
University Hall, Dec. 8, 1884

Alumni Meeting

Society called to order by the president.

Programme, see opposite page.

Programme.

Music: MRS. E. R. TOLMAN AND MISS CARRIE BROWN.

Odeon: REV. A. E. WOOD, D. D., B.C.

Essay: Story Bell in Literature

Music: MISS FLORENCE HOLEBROOK, '85

Essay: MRS. E. R. TOLMAN.

The Enterprise: MISS GRACE REED, '96

Song: American Humorists

SABREY MITCHELL, '96

Debate.

Resolved: That the Republican Party received a marked defeat in the late campaign.

Affirmed by W. A. PURCELL.

Denied by E. R. TOLMAN, '86.

Music: Vocal Solo: MISS CARRIE BROWN.

* Deleted.
University Park.

Society called to order by the president.
Minutes of the two preceding meetings read and approved.

Program:

Vocal Solo
St. J. F. K. F. B. X.

Vocal Solo
Miss Elizabeth East.

Dinner.

Passed that the petitioners were justified in voting as they did.

Approved by Thos. A. W.

Denied by
H. H. Hill.

The judge, Messrs. Baldwin, Antisdel and Brunnell decided two to one in favor of the negative.

It was reported:
J. E. Everett.

After the usual recess, a business meeting was held.
The following officers were elected by acclamation for the ensuing term:

President
Miss Corrie Peckham.

Vice-President
St. J. F. W.

Secretary
J. B. Everett.

Treasurer
E. A. Baldwin.

Secretary
T. J. Antisdel.

The president informed the society that the old piano was found and held for pay.
A motion of J. E. Everett the society undertook to pay one-half of the amount due for purchasing the old piano, and the executive committee was given authority to raise the necessary amount and return the said piano in order to get the relief.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Harley MITCHELL for his kindness in furnishing the program for "The Alumni Meeting."

Also to the president of the society for his faithful work during the term.

Miss Willitt, Miss Peck, and Mrs. Baldwin were appointed as a committee to confer with Dr. Trapp in regard to a donations suitable.

The name of H. H. Ewell was proposed for membership.

Society then adjourned.

Mrs. A. W. Bailey.

P. S.
University Park, Jan. 9, 1885.

Society called to order by the president.
Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.
Program:
Music: Miss Ingersoll.
President's Remarks: Miss H. B. Angier.
Reading: Mrs. M. W. Madison.
The Enterprise: L. B. Angier.
Essay: A. N. Boyce.
Middle: Miss Ingersoll.

Debate
Resolved, that religious liberalism as it exists today is detrimental to religious interests.
The judges: Miss Otter, Mrs. V. Nichols, and Andrews decided two to one in favor of the negative.

President's Report: J. H. Everett.
The name of Prof. Bulloch was proposed as an honorary member, and that of Mrs. K. Angier as an active member.

On motion of Mrs. Boyce the complimenting by law was set aside and the secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the society for J. H. Everett as a member.

After the usual recess, a business meeting was held.
Mr. Walsh reported that the executive committee had, according to instructions, leased a lot of 26 cents, and had paid $6.75, and he himself had furnished the rest $8.75. The rental price was refused, and the lot purchased. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

It was moved and carried that the treasurer be instructed to pay Mr. Walsh the $8.75 which he had paid toward the piano.

The president appointed the following committee: Executive: C. A. Baldwin, E. J. Walsh and A. M. Boyce; Committee on Music: Misses Otter, Madison, and Boyce, and Mrs. Hammond.
The society determined to make a study of Hamill's text, society then adjourned.

Miss Carrie Sligh, Pres.

C. J. Angier.
University,Palmer. Jan. 14, 1883

Society called to order by the vice-president. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. On motion of E. H. Hammond the conflicting by-law was suspended and the secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Prof. McCutchen as an honorary member; and Miss White as an active member of the society.

Program:

Declarations

W. E. Warren

Debate

Resolved, that education should aim to develop all the faculties equally.

Affixed by

B. H. Beinsted, J. S. Thou.

Denied by

J. J. Beach, W. J. Pounds.

The judges, Messrs. Hill, Busty and Tuddenham divided two to one in favor of the negative.

Messrs. Hammond, Antiedel, Beinsted, and West and Miss Willett took part in the miscellaneous debate.

Critics' Report

A. W. Lilly.

T. H. the name of E. B. lost was prefixed for membership.

So voted, they adjourned.

E. J. Walsh.

Vice-president.
University Park.

Cape Meeting.

Society called to order by the president. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. On motion of J. B. Walshe the conflicting by-laws were suspended, and the society instructed to cast the ballot of the society for J. B. Walshe as a member.

Program:

Music.

Recitation: Miss Dorene Wiltz.

Essay: The Host & the Prince.

Music: E. A. Baldwin.

Essay: "Dickens's Child Characters."

Debate:

Resolved, that contract prison labor should be abolished.

Affirmative, J. B. Antidote

Mr. Walshe, who was to have supported the negative was absent. Mrs. Walshe kindly consented to support that side.

Unanimous Report of Judges: Messrs. Hill, Boden and Seawood divided two to one in favor of the affirmative.

After the usual recess a business meeting was held.

The treasurer reported for last term, which was read and was given another week in which to prepare a full report to be given at the next meeting.

Society then adjourned.

Miss Dorene Wiltz, J. B. Antidote.

Secy.
Jan. 60, 1884

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On motion of T. W. Hammond, the regular literary exercises of the evening were adjourned in parts of the lecture.

On motion of Mrs. Locke, the society proceeded to the election of a representative for Washington by informal ballot.

On motion of Mrs. Russell, Mrs. J. B. Lovett, the person who received the highest number of votes, was declared the representative of the society.

Society thus adjourned.

Miss Carrie Knight, Sec'y.

P.S.
university College.

Feb. 6, 1886.

ladies' meeting.
The society was called to order by the president.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
The name of S. H. Andrews was proposed for membership.

Programme.
See Opposite Page.

Society then adjourned.
Miss Annie Waight. Miss.

Miss J. Dorothy. Secy.

-- FLOWERS

Music—Instrumental Solo.
Alice E. Walker.

Recitation—Flowers.
Mary H. Brown.

Essay—Flowers.
Mary A. Andrews.

Vocal Duet—"See the Pale Moon"—Campana.
Miss E. H. Todd.
Miss M. Brown.

A Nosegay.

-- THE DEATH OF FLOWERS

Recitation—"The Death of the Flowers." Nettie M. Borden.

Vocal Solo—"Good Bye."—Toesti.
Miss Edith M. Brown.

Essay—"The Poet of Nature."
Elizabeth C. Cooke.

A Dream of Flowers.
Miss C. Gray.

Music—Instrumental Solo.
Alice E. Walker.
University Park, Feb. 13, 1885.

The society was called to order by the president.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Biddle, the conflicting by-laws were set aside and the secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the society for B.B.

Andrews as a member.

Program:

Music
Reading
S. 294
The Enterprise.
Music

Resolved—That the Niagara river canal would be beneficial to the United States.

Affirmed by

E. R. Barnard.
A. B. Acord.

The judge of the case, Andrews, Forward, and Caldwell, decided two to one in favor of the negative.

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The name of Miss J. E. Sanderchek was proposed for membership.

Program:

Declaration: J. E. Paulin

Essay: E. B. Anderson

The Enterprise: E. W. Bainsted

Vocal Solo: Miss Jane Madison

Reading: Miss Virginia Romani

--- Debate ---

Resolved: That the act of & enacted prohibiting the foreign contract labor system was just.

Affirmed by: T. B. Donnelley

Denied by: L. B. Antidote

The judges: Messrs. Bunnap, Scolders and I had decided two to one in favor of the negative.

British Reply: T. G. Walsh

Instrumental Music: Miss Mae Madison

Society then adjourned. Miss Carrie Black, Pres. L. J. Antidote, Secy.
University Park, March 6, 1883.

The society was called to order by the president.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On motion of Mrs. Looze the conflicting by-laws were set aside and the secretary instructed to cast the ballots of the society for Miss J. B. Sanderson as a member.

Program:
- Music
- Recitation
- Address
- The Enterprise
- Music

Debate

Resolved: That all students in a public academy should not be required to pursue any identical course of study in order to obtain the same degree.

Affirmed by

Denied by

The judges: Dessers, Andrews and Baldwin, and Miss Willett decided ties to one in favor of the negative.
University Park.
March 18, 1885.
Hamlet Meeting.
The society was called to order by the president.

Program:

Instrumental music.

Miss Eliza Smith
Address: "The Genius of Shakespeare.
J. B. Hammonds
Paper: "The Play"
J. B. Everett
Selection from the Play.
W. S. Bunings
Vocal Solo: Miss Eliza Smith to character of Ophelia Address: "Hamlet"
Mr. J. Waels
Music: Miss Eliza Smith
Society then adjourned.

Miss Carrie Naigh.
Pres.

S. J. Antidell
Sec.
University Park, March 20, 1885.

The society was called to order by the president.

The minutes of the two previous meetings were read and approved.

Program:

Music
Miss Susie Cook
Miss Lura Johnson
Miss Enterprise
Miss Enterprise
Miss Susie Cook

Essay
Miss Lura Johnson

The society then adjourned for the usual business.

At the Business Meeting, the report of the treasurer was read and accepted.

Mrs. Hammond moved and Mrs. Burrough seconded the motion that the society proceed to the nomination of president by informal ballot. Carried.

Mrs. Walsh received the highest number of votes and was the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Mrs. Walsh as president.

She was also instructed to cast the ballot of the society for the following officers:

Mrs. Burrough, Vice-president.
Miss Sanders, Secretary.
Mrs. Hammond. Treasurer.
Miss Thomas, Treasurer.

It was moved and carried that the names of all the members who had not paid their subscription dues, including those of the present term, be referred to the ballot to be paid on the ballot.

A vote of thanks was extended to the officers of the society for their faithful work during the term.

The society then adjourned.

Miss Laura Wright.
E.J. Antisdel.
University Carolin,
Friday Evening, Apr. 3, 1880

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected.

The literary programme was opened by music by the Aspinette Quartette, and then President's inaugural address, after which followed a declamation by Mrs. Fred Baldwin, an essay by Mrs. S. W. Alderson, a recitation by Miss Robinson, the Enterprise by Nathan Sande

Miss Susan B. followed with music. The usual debate of the evening was upon the question: Resolve that Oklahoma should be opened for settlement.

Affirmative by Mrs. H. F. Hett. Negative by Mrs. J. O. Burchett.

While the judges were making up their decision, Mrs. Coley and Collins took part in miscellaneous debate. The judges Misses Anderson, Shaw, and Pyne, decided two to one in favor of the affirmative.

The revised report was given by Mrs. Hammond. The programme for April 10 and 17 was read after which the president announced for the present term, the following committees.
The meeting was called to order, the president taking the chair.
The minutes of the previous meeting, being read and accepted, the society listened to the programme opened with music by Miss Alice Miller, which was followed by reading by Mrs. C. McQuade, and an essay by Miss I. C. Everett on "The Book of JH. The Enterprise was read by Mrs. E. Donnelly. Miss Carrie Knight read an essay on "Junior Women," and as the meeting was upon the question, Research that it was not the duty of the citizens of Chicago to do their utmost to change the present administration. Affirmed by Mrs. I. C. Waite.
Proposed by Mrs. J. A. Baldwin.
The president appointed as judge Misses Burnap, Goddard, and Seward. During the time allotted for miscellaneous debate, Mrs. Waite and Mrs. Everett made some remarks. The judges reported their decision in favor of the negative.
After the adjournment by Mr. Hammond, the president read the programme for April 17 and 18.
Mr. Anderson then called the attention of the society to the fact that at a previous meeting, a motion had been made that the name of all the members, who had not paid their back dues, including those of the present term, by the second Tuesday in April, be struck from the roll.
One motion of Mr. Hammond, the time, specified in the former motion, was extended two weeks. There being no further business, the society adjourned for the week.
Mrs. F. J. Walsh,
Kylie M. Sandow,
Sic.
University College
Friday Evening, April 17, 1882

The society was called to order with the president in the chair.

In the absence of the secretary, Miss A. H. Hill was appointed to preside.

After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, the following programme was carried out:

Music by Miss Browning and Larnier.

A cappella by Mrs. Burnap.

The "Gatcherin," written by Miss Lizzie Ains, read by Miss Lucile Willett.

An Address "Fairy Tales of Science" by Miss I. M. Hammond.

Music by Miss Browning and Larnier.

The debate of the evening was upon the question: "A tradesman should be a tax to his country." Affirmed by Mrs. R. B. Amstel and Miss E. C. Brentad.

The president appointed as judges, Misses Everett, Hill and Andrews, who decided in favor of the affirmative.

Mrs. J. D. Osceol and Miss L. C. Oakes took part in miscellaneous debate.
University College
Friday Evening, April 10th

The meeting was called to order by the president. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted, the literary programme was listened to. It was opened with an instrumental solo by Miss N. M. M. followed by readings by Mrs. J. M. Edmiston, after which Mr. A. L. Bayley read an essay. The debate was upon the question: Is there a sense in H. C. that Queen's University policy is just as regards England. The affirmative was supported by Mr. B. J. O'Neill. The speaker on the opposite side being absent, the president requested Mr. J. M. Edmiston to support the negative. A judge was appointed. After the cull, a vote was taken.

In the business meeting, a report from the committee on the public meeting was called for. The chairman, Mr. Arthurs, being absent, Mr.Nichols reported that he knew nothing being done. Mr. Bolesly moved that the above named committee be instructed to co-operate with a like committee from the Kappa Society in regard to holding a union public meeting. The motion, after being discussed at some length, was carried. Mr. Edmiston then moved that the motion made at a previous meeting in regard to the payment of dues be amended. After considerable discussion, Mr. Bolesly moved an amendment to the motion that the time be extended. The amendment did not receive a second and the original motion was lost.

The two substitute made at previous meeting in regard to the payment of dues was declared, by the president, out of order and void for violating the constitution. The motion was then made that failure on the part of any member to pay his dues be regarded as a refusal. The president declared the motion invalid and the society adjourned.

Mr. F. J. Walsh
Mr. H. W. Sandon, Sec.
The meeting was called to order by the president, after which the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and accepted. The president requested Mr. Wood to act as critic in the absence of that officer. Since Wood opened the literary programme with an instrumental solo, Miss Sandifiches read an essay on "Evangelion." This was followed by a declamation by Mr. Bell and a speech on "Schiller" by Mr. Jacob. Cyree Wood followed with music. The debate was upon the question: Resolved that Gladstone's foreign policy is unsuited to England. Affirmed by Mr. Anderson.

Rounded by Mr. J. L. Everett. The judges were: Turner, Clark, and Bell. After discussion, the decision was in favor of the affirmative.

After the critic report, the society adjourned for the usual recess. On assembling for the business session, Mr. Everett mentioned that arrangements be made for a public meeting to be held June 4 at the First Baptist Church. The motion was carried. It was also moved and carried that the treasurer be instructed to make an estimate of the amount of money needed for the public meeting, report which base the proper steps to be heard.

There being no further business, the society adjourned.

Mr. J. W. Walker
Nannie M. Sanders, Sec.
University Park

Friday, May 7, 1885

The Society was called to order by the President. The Secretary absent,
E. H. Buistad was appointed Secretary.
The library program of the evening was as follows:

Music: W. H. Miller
Reading: H. A. Johnson
Grafs' Russian Despatch by A. V. Anderson
Declarations: F. H. Bumsap
Grafs' Thule of North Will Fothen
Melode: W. H. Miller

There being no debate, this closed the program of the evening.
As there was no further business, the society adjourned.

E.H. Buistad
President
University Caroli.
Wednesday Evening, May 15, 1883.

The society was called to order by the president. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, the following literary programme was carried out:

Music, a vocal solo by Mrs. Zuckes.
Reading, The Old Fashioned Mother by N. D. Aldisdel.

An Essay, Woman in Literature by Miss Hansen.
The Enterprise by Cassie Naigh.

Local sets by Mrs. Zuckes.

The debate was upon the question:Resolved that nature plays a greater part in making than does art.

Affirmed by Mrs. Seidman.
Negative by Mrs. Asbury.

The judges, Misses Anderson, Everett, and Hild, rendered their decision two to one in favor of the affirmative.

Mr. Everett and Mr. Haik took part in the miscellaneous debate. On invitation, Prof. Chase addressed the society.

After the critic reported the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. F. D. Walsh, Sec.

Hilloo Santoro, Jr.
University College
Friday Evening, May 28, 1883

The meeting was called to order with the Vice-Pres. in the chair. After the reading and acceptance of the minutes of the previous meeting, the literary programme was opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Stevens, followed by reading by Mrs. Hanbidge, and an essay on education by Miss Hardie. The debate was read by Mrs. Hammond. Miss Stevens followed with music.

The debate, which was miscellaneous, was upon the question: Resolved that the abolition in Russian government should be condemned by popular opinion. Mr. James opened the discussion on the side of the affirmative, and Mr. Walsh on the negative. They were followed by Mrs. Wash, Mrs. Holland, and Mr. Sorley. The rules then gave his report, and the society adjourned.

Mrs. O'Reilly: Manager
Vice-President.
University College
Friday Evening, May 29, 1885

The society was called to order by the president, after which the secretary's report was read and accepted. The literary programme was opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Yerg, and reading, The Legend of Beautiful by Miss Sandheiser. Miss Tichy then read an essay on Robert Browning. The essay was read by Mrs. G. B. Antuchel. Miss Yerg followed with another instrumental solo. The debate was upon the question, Resolved that Ireland should not assume her independence. Affirmed by Mrs. Scudder. Neged by Mrs. Hill.

The judges were: Anderson, Boile, and Newell. They decided two to one in favor of the affirmatives. After the written report, the Boile ruled that the public meeting of Athenaeum be indefinitely postponed. The motion was carried, and the society adjourned. Mrs. J. Melville,

Miss M. Sandeiner

Sec.
University College
Friday Evening June 3, 1883

The meeting was called to order by the president. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted, the name of Mr. Seaman was proposed for membership. On motion by Mr. Hammond, the by-laws were suspended and Mr. Seaman was declared a member of the society.

The literary programme was as follows:
- Music, vocal solo by Mrs. Frank Wright.
- Reading, 'When the Sun Comes Home' by Felicia Bonden.
- 'The Human Enterprise,' by Mark Vandell.
- Music, vocal solo by Mrs. Wright.

After the criticism, the society adjourned for the week.

At the meeting for the business session, the treasurer's report was read and, on motion, accepted. On motion by Mr. Mill, the officers were elected by acclamation, the result of which election being as follows: President, Mr. T.L. Walsh; Vice-President, Mrs. Burnago; Sec., Julia Kenan; Treasurer, Mrs. Wadd; Secretary, Carrie Leigh.

Mr. Hammond moved the society adjourn for ice cream, to be paid for from the treasury. The motion was lost.

Mr. Burnago moved the money be left with the treasurer, and the president appoint a committee of two, who together with himself and the treasurer, should decide what would be done with the money should the society cease. The motion was carried and the president appointed as such committee Mrs. Hellick and Leigh.

The society then adjourned.

Mrs. DeWitt Walsh.
Rev. Sandon.
University Park

Tuesday, 27th Nov.

This meeting was called to order by the President.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The Literary Committee was as follows:

Music Panel:

President's address...

Essay: Written by Mr. A. L. Andrews, read by Mr. B. H.

Other speakers:

Miss Carrie Pugh

Music Club:

Mr. Frank Wright

Debate: Resolved that the Indian should have exclusive control over his reservation.

Affirmative: Mr. W. R. Burrell

The judge: Mr. E. M. Holland, another student, and he had decided two to one in favor of the negative.

Music: Mr. B. H. and Ernest took part in small group debate. Mr. Frank Wright's resignation from the position of critic was read by the secretary. It was moved and seconded that this resignation be laid on the table for one week. The programme for Sep

25th and Oct. was read by the president after which the following committee were appointed for the present term: Executive committee: Rev. Mrs.

Mrs. Delman and Mrs. Antich.

Music committee: Mr. Burrell, Mr. B. H. and Ernest

The president then declared the society adjourned for the next meeting...

J. F. W. Walsh, Pres.

Julie Delman Sec.
The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Also a motion of the rule of the president appointed Mrs. Collins as critic for the evening. The literary program read as follows:

Piano solo
Miss Warren

Reading
Mr. W. L. Bemont

Essay
Mr. C. B. McCall

Atheneum Entertainment
Mr. B. E. Wiggens

Piano trio
Davidson

After the critic report, the program proceeded to the second and third new read. The society then adjourned for recess of five minutes. During the business session an election of the members was made. Mrs. Wright's resignation from the office of critic was accepted and Mrs. Collins appointed to fill the vacancy. The society adjourned for the week.

J. W. Walden
Pres.
University Park, Oct. 2nd 1889.

The society was called to order by President in the absence of the president and vice president.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The literary exercises were as follows:
	essay, The Three Years
	Julia Peterson
	Athens University

Vocal Solo

Mr. Wilks

Debate Resolved that the Turkish Empire should be stream-ent.

African by J. B. Collins

After the critics report the judge proceed
This, Casey and Hillard gave their decision for the three in favor of the negative.

Mr. Wilks

Joint, then adjourned for one week.

J. B. Walsh

John Peterson
missing page
University, Paolo, Oct 9th, 1887.

The meeting was called to order by the President.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. In the absence of the President, Mr. Burnap was appointed in his place for the evening. The President proposed the name of Mr. R. A. Hyde, for membership.

The literary societies were as follow:

- Piano Soli
  - Miss Topping
  - Miss Uphill
  - Miss Miller

- Reading
  - Miss North
  - Miss Sargent

- Essay
  - Miss Anderson
  - Miss Bryant

- Enterprise
  - Miss Walker

- Caxine Soli

After the societies report the programme for the next two meetings was read. Scrup then adjourned.

C. J. Walsh

Sec.
The meeting was called to order by the president.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
It was moved and carried that the conflicting slips be suspended and the secretary be instructed to cast the ballots of the society for Mr. A. B.肼pe and Mr. W. H. Rem. Miss Harp suggested the names of B. D. Shepherd and Mrs. Waite as members.
Mr. Waite proposed the names of B. D. Shepherd and Mrs. Waite as members.
In absence of the critic, Miss Royce was appointed critic for the evening.
The literary exercises were as follows:

-

Music:
Miss Alice Blackman

Reading:
A scene from "Villette"

Essay:
"Thoughts on Dickens"

Music:
Miss Alice Blackman

Debate:
Resolved that Thoreau should be elected for State legislation.

Affirmative: B. D. Bennet

Mr. Waite spoke on miscellaneous debate. After the Affirmative, the judge, Thomas B. Peabody and Arthur gave their opinions as to who was in favor of the negative. The programme for the first four meetings was read after which the society adjourned for five minutes, then the president again.

The president said that a committee be appointed to confer with the college and arrange a meeting for the repair of the friends. (The President)
University Park, Oct. 21st, 1910

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting read and approved. The name of R. J. Cape was proposed for membership by Mr. H. W. The motion of the society the conflicting plans were abandoned and the secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Miss Ethelde Hackett and Miss G. G. Perris as members of said society. The library residue was opened by a

French, English and History

Picture Book

Essay

Read by Josephine S. Anderson

Debate - Resolved that clergymen should engage in political discussion

Affirmative: W. J. Shaw

Negative: J. H. Sturtevant

The judges Nancy, Prior, Proby and Burnor decided two to one in favor of the negative.

Also the breviary session was called that the motion from committee be continued for one week, and that the resignation of the vice president be accepted, and the appointment of his successor be delayed for one week.

Also society then adjourned.

P. J. Walsh, Pres.

Julia Fenneman, Sec.
University College, Oct 30, '55:

The society was called to order by the president. The secretary being absent, the president appointed E. J. Shaw secretary pro tem. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. An motion of the society, the conflicting by-laws were suspended and the secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Mr. R. S. Bye. The literary programme was as follows:

- Vocal Solo - Miss Winter
- Reading - Mrs. O'crott
- Paper - Miss Winter

Debate: Is superstition a greater evil than skepticism?

Affirmative: A. D. Cooley

Denial: E. J. Walsh

Mr. Hill, who was to support the negative of the debate, being absent, the president appointed E. J. Shaw chairman and debated the negative of the question. The chairman appointed as judges: Mrs. Howard, Miss Bond, and Miss Winter. A. R. Cooley took part in the miscellaneous debate.

The judge decided two to one in favor of the negative. The society then adjourned for five minutes.

In the business session the piano committee was instructed to get the piano tuned, provided the instrument was worthy of being tuned. A motion of the society, W. B. Burns was elected critic. The programme for the next four meetings were read, after which the society adjourned for the night.

E. J. Walsh, Res. E. J. Shaw, Sec. pro tem.
University Park, Feb 14th, 1892

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The literary exercises were as follows:

A sia. Revs.
Reading
Scripture
Address
Society's exercises
Present: G. H. Resolved that the right of suffrage ought not to be granted the Negro.
Affirm: J. H. Hyde
Negate: R. L. Brandt
Affirm the society that the Negro shall not vote in future of the society. The society then adjourned for one hour.

Fa. 14th, 1892

John P. Brown
University of Texas, Nov. 13th, 1881.

The society was called to order by the president.

The reading of the minutes was found not amount of the absence of the society. The literary was as follows:

Vocal Test

Puritan

Essay: The character of Markell

Laughter: Under 3rd reading

Treaty then adjourned for one week.

D. J. Galbraith

Rec.

Correction: The name of Mr. A. Tolman was proposed for membership.
University Park, Jan 18th, 1881.

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved.

It was moved and carried that the conflicting by-laws be suspended and the secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Wm. A. Otis as member.

The literary exercises now as follows:

Piano 1st...Love to Burd
Reading...J. A. Anderson
Essay...Joseph Kline
Entrap...Julia Peterson
Essay...E. B. Antiel.

The society then adjourned for a recess of five minutes.

On the business session Mr. Gilley, as chairman of the finance committee, reported that the finances have been improved and are in a satisfactory condition. The report was accepted and the committee dismissed.

It was moved and carried that the resignation of W. H. Burrows from the position of editor be accepted and the ballot for the present council. The society then adjourned.

F. J. Waleh
Pres.

Julia Peterson
Sec.
Society Paris, Dec 4th 1876

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. Mr. Bird was appointed as critic for the evening. The literary exercises were as follow: Declarator John Boyd, Entertainer W.T. Burns, Azotus Read that all eligibility shall require a moral character and educational or property qualification. Affirm P.J. Web and deny W.D. Bassett. The judge Moses Bassett. As above gave true decision two to one in favour of the negative. The society then adjourned P.J. Walsh Sec. JohnDelmar missing page
University Park, 20th Oct, 1898.

The society was called to order by the vice president.
The library treasury was as follows:
- Plains 20c
- Kansas 20c
- Nebraska 20c
- Dakota 20c
- Nebraska Enterprise 20c
- A. P. Nichols 20c
- C. H. Apple 20c
- Debate 20c

Resolved that the execution of Mary Queen of Scots was unjustifiable.
Affirming: P. J. Walsh, James E. B. Porter
Negating: E. W. Wright

The judge, William Anderson, C. E. C. Wachter, gave their decision to be in favor of the negative.
The society then adjourned for five minutes.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted.
The following officers elected: President, Rev. H. G. Anderson; Vice President, A. W. Timmes; Secretary, B. W. Smith; Treasurer, Rev. D. Walsh. The society then adjourned.

P. J. Walsh
Rev.

Julia A. Pohman
Sec.
University Park, Jan 15th, 1896.

The society was called to order by the president. In the absence of the secretary, Julia Olson was appointed secretary for the time. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. In the absence of the elite, N.L. Barnes was appointed editor for the evening. The club exercises were as follows:

Vocal Solo: Carrie Knight
President: Andrew
Reading: Emile Lohr
Prayer: Eugene Reece
Sisterhood: Juliet Olsen
Vocal Solo: Carrie Knight

Resolved that the character of Alice Granville is worthy of our admiration.

Rev. A. P. Cowley
Sen. A. H. Brininstool

The debate report was given by Rev. Barnes. The judge, Misses Hall, Dye, Dornard gave their decision of ten to one in favor of the Negative. The club then elected the president, appointed as the editor, committee, Misses Janet, Dornard, Dye, and an associate committee, Misses Olson, Misses Heaven and Miss V. Hoyle. The society then adjourned.

The society was called to order by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The literary part of the programme was as follows:

- Instrumental 3rd: Miss Ingwall
- Reading: Miss Eberle
- Essay: Mr. O. B. Eberle
- Amusements: Enterprise, written by Mr. Bannister, and Spiritual by Miss Ingwall.

Debate

Resolved: Would the united state government be justified in confiscating the property of the Mormon Church?

Affirmed by Mr. E. E. F. Eberle

Denied by Mr. J. J. Walsh

The judge, Messrs. Shear, Hyde and Orbits decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

The critic's speech was given by Mr. Walsh.

The society then adjourned.

- C. J. Anderson, Pres.
- Lucie Bond, Sec.
University Park, Jan. 22, 1862

The meeting was called to order by the president.

In the absence of the secretary, the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting were omitted. By request of the president, Mr. Corley acted as secretary pro tem.

The literary exercises were opened with an essay, "Benjamin Franklin," by Mr. G. A. Hyde.

Mr. Bell read an essay on "The Institution of the Uses of the Soil." Mr. Reynolds then followed, with music.

The "Enterprise" was given by Miss Laura Johnson.

The debate, resolved that the South is destined to surpass the North in commercial importance.

Affirmed by Mr. J. E. Howard.

Denied by Mr. J. B. Anderson.

The judges were Corley, Walsh, and J. E. Everett. The committee adopted unanimously in favor of the negative.

Mr. Waite took part in general debate.

The entire report was given by Mr. Walsh.

Mr. Reynolds followed with music.

The society then adjourned for the night.

University Park, Jan 27th 1885.

The meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The literary exercises were as follows:

Instrumental Solos: Soprano, Mr. W.; Tenor, Miss A.; Bass, Mr. M.; Baritone, Miss B.; Alto, Mr. C.

Reading: "Music."

Debate: Resolved that the French Revolution was unjustifiable.

Affirmative:

Mr. M.

Mr. N.

Mr. O.

Mr. P.

The Judge: Messrs. R., S., and B. decided unanimously in favor of the Affirmative.

The critic's report was given by Mr. W.

The society then adjourned for a week.

A. P. Anderson, Pres.

S. A. and Sec.
missing page
University, Duluth, Feb. 5th, 1872.

The meeting was called to order by the president. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted, the literary exercises were listened to. They were opened with a Vocal Solo by Mr. Hyde, followed by an essay by Miss Johnson entitled "Shelley's Biography," after which Miss Hamann read an essay "Shelley as a Poet." The society was then favored with an selection Vocal Solo by Mr. Wright.

Mr. Walsh followed with an essay, "Shelley as a Dramatic Poet." Mr. Lewis delivered an address on "Shelley as a Philosopher." The critic's report was omitted. The exercises of the evening were closed with a Vocal Duet by Messrs. Wright and Hyde.

In the business session Mr. Leake was elected representative of the society for the Washington trip. The society then adjourned for one week.

A. J. Anderson, Pres. Lucie Bond, Sec.
University Hall, Feb. 12th, 1884.

The meeting was called to order by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The name of Mr. Henry Ether was proposed for membership. It was moved and seconded that the conflicting by-laws be suspended and the secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Mr. Ether as a member. The literary exercises were as follows:

Music

University Quartette

Mr. Nichols

Paper

Missie Good

Mr. Ferris

Debate: Resolved that smoke is sometimes justifiable.

Affirmative: Mr. Cooley

Negative: Mr. Burns

The judges, Missie Ferris, Missie and Forward, decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

Mr. Walsh gave the critics report.

The society then adjourned.

A. S. Anderson, Pres.

Lizzie Bond, Sec.
missing page
The meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The literary exercises were as follows:

- Essay: Miss Clarke.
- Address: Miss Clarke.
- Alleluiaum Enterprise: Mr. Axtell.
- Music: Miss Clarke.

Resolutions: Resolved that the general campaign man would be beneficial to the country.

- By Mr. Hill.

Mr. Hill spoke on the miscellaneous debate.

The judge, Mr. Smith, Axtell and Smith decided in favor of the affirmative.

A critic's report was given by Mr. Walsh. The society then adjourned.

R. T. Baldey, Esq.
University Park, Feb. 26th, 1886.

The society was called to order by the President.

In the absence of the Secretary the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was substituted.

The literary exercises were as follows:

Music: Miss Ingersoll.
Reading: Miss Harrow.
Essay: Miss Sandwitch.
Athenæum Oration: Miss Willet.

Debate: Resolved that classes in our college should be made optional.
Aff. by Mr. Hyde.
Neg. by Mr. Howard.

The judge Misses Waite, Speed and Burnap decided unanimously in favor of the affirmation.

The critic's report was given by Mr. Walsh.

The society then adjourned.

C. P. Anderson, Pres.

Lucie Speed, Sec.
University Park, March 6th, 1881.

The meeting was called to order by the president.
In the absence of the secretary, the president appointed Mr. Lichtstein to act as president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

The literary exercises were as follows:
- Instrumental Solo: Miss Warden
- Reading: Miss Andrews
- Essay: Miss Johnson
- Atheneum Enterprise: Mr. Patterson
- Instrumental Solo: Miss Warden

Resolutions: Resolved that the stage merits a position of influence in society.
- Affirmed by Mr. Breslau.
- Abstained by Mr. Stier.

The judge, Messrs. Forward, Andrews, and Patterson, were decided unanimously in favor of the Negative.

The debate was given by Mr. Walsh.

The society then adjourned.

A. D. Anderson, Pres.

Dudley Lichtstein, Secretary
University Park, March 12th, 1876.

The meeting was called to order by the president.

In the absence of the secretary, the president appointed Miss Eichholz secretary pro tem. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

The literary exercises were as follows:

---

ATHENÆUM

LITERARY SOCIETY

---Friday, March 12th, 1876---

EIGHT P.M.

PROGRAM.

VOCAL SOLO.  Mrs. Dolotta Zimmerman

DECLAMATION.  C. A. Hyde

ESSAY.  Miss Carrie Kellogg

CELLO SOLO.  Mr. Friedrich Hess

DECLAMATION.  Miss Birdie Warder

ENTERPRISE.  F. J. Walsh

VOCAL DUET.  Mrs. Dr. Hess-Burr

The society then adjourned.

---

Dolotta Eichholz, Sec. pro tem.
March
University Hall, April 19th, 1886.

The meeting was called to order by the president. The agenda was as follows: Mechanics, M. McPeak; Mathematics, Miss Giddens; Music, Miss Johnson; Essays, Miss Bollman; Officers. The judge, Mr. B., Miss Johnson, and Miss Bollman, decided the election.

The report was given by Mr. Bollman.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted and the business meeting the following officers for the coming term were elected:

President, Mr. Austin;
Vice-President, Mr. Bollman;
Secretary, Miss Bollman;
Treasurer, Mr. White;
Clerk, Mr. Walsh.

The report of the treasurer was given and accepted. The society then adjourned for tea.
University Park, April 3rd, 1876.

The meeting was called to order by the president.

In the absence of the secretary, the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was omitted.

The society was opened with a college song by the members of the society. Next followed an essay by Mr. Colby.

The debate related to the question of the future movement of the society.

Affirmed by Mr. Harris.

Denied by Mr. Wells.

The judges decided in favor of the Society.

Amended by the members.

Researched in the business meeting, it was noted by Mr. Colby and recommended that we have an annual public meeting.

Mr. Harris made a motion to lay the question on the table for one week. It was seconded by Mr. Harris. The motion was carried. The society then adjourned for one week.

A. D. Anderson, Pres.

Society, 1876, Sec.
University Park, April 17, 1886.

The meeting was called to order by the President.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The name of Mr. A. D. Duggan was proposed for membership.

The literary exercises were as follows:

Declamation: John Dug
Reading: Miss Anderson Papers: Miss Johnson
Music: Mr. Walsh

deleted

In the business meeting it was moved and seconded that the question of having a public meeting should be taken off the table.

It was moved and seconded that we should have an annual meeting. It was also moved and seconded that a committee of three be appointed by the President to confer with a like committee of T.Kappa, as to whether we should have an annual public meeting or invite some lecturer to speak to us, and that the decision of the committee should rule the society. The President appointed as the committee Messrs. Walsh, Douglas and Hyde. Mr. Anderson seconded his resignation.

It was not accepted. The society then adjourned.

A. J. Anderson, President

Sue's friend, etc.
The meeting was called to order by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The name of Mr. Bradford was proposed for membership. It was moved and seconded that the meeting be suspended and that the secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the society for Mr. Crapo and Mr. Bradford as members.

The literary exercises were as follows:

Music
Reading
Quizzing
Paper
Music

Debate: Resolved that Republican form of government is better than a Monarchy.

Aff. by Mr. Hyde
Neg. by Mr. Catheron.

The president appointed all judges, Miss Hanson, Miss Lichsten, and Miss Millot, judges.

Ridger's report:
The society then adjourned.

C. G. Anderson, Sec., Lucie Reid, Geo.
University Park, April 28th, 1876.

The meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The literary exercises were as follows:

Music: Miss Willett
Reading: Mr. Wilson
Essay: Miss Small Paper: Mr. Smith

Music: Miss Small
Drama: Motion that the selection of Charles be unjustifiable.
Aff: by Mr. Howard
By: Mr. Rawson
The judge, Miss Willett, Miss Linderghafer, and Miss Smith decided two to one in favor of the motion.

Entire report: Mr. Smith
Society then adjourned.

Dr. Anderson Pres.
Lucy Sneed Sec.
University Parks, April 28th, 18__.

The meeting was called to order by the President.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.
The literary exercise was as follows:

Music:    |      |
Reading:  |      |
Essay:    |      |
Paper:    |      |
Report:   |      |
Reported that the right house system should be universal.
Approved by Mr. Byrge.
Signed by Mr. Fernie.
The judge, Mr. Brandford, second and third decided in favor of affirmation.

Mr. Walsh.
The society was adjourned.

A. G. Anderson
Sec.
The regular meeting of Alumni was adjourned. It was ordered to hold a memorial meeting on the evening of May 24th with Dr. Webb, in memory of Jennie S. Griffith, who died April 20th, 1886.

A. E. Anderson, Pres. Luci E. Taber, Sec.
In the absence of the president and vice-president, the meeting was called to order by Mr. Walsh. In place of the regular literary meeting, Prof. Cymmes and his daughter entertained the society with a number of recitations. Mr. Faller furnished the music of the evening. The society then adjourned.

M. D. Walshe, presiding

Lucie Reed, Sec.
University Park Nov 21 1874

The society was called to order by the President, in the absence of the President and Vice-President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

The library exercises were as follows:

Music  Miss Porter
Reading  Miss Schleutge
Essay  Miss Brandstedt Paper  Miss Johnson's Oral's Rep't  Mr. Walsh.

In the business meeting the report of the committee appointed to arrange for a public meeting was called for. Mr. Walsh stated that he was requested by the Rabbi Harel, who promised to deliver a lecture. It had not been determined where the lecture should be held, but it would be about June 1st. It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted and that the committee of arrangements be continued until arrangements were completed.
University Carolina, May 26th 1886.

The meeting was called to order by the Vice-President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

The literary exercises were as follows:

Music: Miss Brooks
Essay: Miss Landerick
Reading: Miss Miller
Music: Address: Mr. Wells
Critics Report: Miss Wells
Mr. H. E. Burnap, vice-president: Miss Landers.
The society was called to order by the vice-president. As the absence of the vice-president and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was omitted.

The president was present, and was requested to proceed. The literary exercises were as follows:

Miss E. Bartell
Nursing

Miss A. Shrewsberry

Miss A. C. Stewall
Music

The report of the treasurer was read, and found to be satisfactory.

The adjournment of the meeting was rescinded, the society then adjourned.

A. C. Anderson, Pres. A. C. Anderson, Sec.
The report I have prepared
Mr. Noble elected that he was requested to see
S. Hosmer Delain includes Commenced 10th June there.
Mr. his report be adopted it was accepted
Come he continued arrangements completed