TREASURERS' OFFICE
ALUMNI OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO,
Room 23, 132 La Salle Street,
Chicago, July 1st, 1878.

To:

Dear Sir:
The Alumni of the University of Chicago, now numbering two hundred members, has a thorough and permanent organization, consisting of all the graduates of the University.

As now arranged, a public and Popular Literary and Musical Entertainment of the highest order, is to be held annually on the evening previous to the day fixed for the graduating exercises. The annual business meeting of the Alumni is held immediately after the graduating exercises, followed in the Evening by the Annual Alumni Banquet. The Banquet Tickets this year were, and will probably hereafter be, one dollar each, thus providing that the Banquet expenses be borne wholly by those who have the good fortune to participate.

Considerable inconvenience has hitherto been experienced in defraying the necessary expenses of the organization, and especially those of the public entertainment, rendering it necessary for the officers, in addition to their other duties, to make up deficiencies or assess a few members. This not only throws most of the burden on a few, but causes others to stay away to avoid being dunned for more.

To avoid all this difficulty, a resolution was unanimously adopted at our last meeting, providing, in substance, that the annual dues of each member, whether resident or non-resident, be one dollar, payable annually in advance, and that such members as have not paid one dollar per year, for 1877, 1878, and 1879 be respectfully requested and urged by the Treasurer to do so forthwith; and that no sum other than the annual dues of one dollar be hereafter required of any member of the Alumni. This, without burdening any one, will establish such a permanent and ample fund as to always enable the officers to arrange for a first-class public entertainment each year; and each member, being interested to the extent of one dollar, with the assurance that it will not be increased to two or five, will make a special effort to attend.

In successfully carrying out this plan, we appeal to you to assist us by your means as above, and by your presence when possible. We need the money now to pay small advancements and safely arrange for the coming year.

At the suggestion of the President of the University, and by arrangements made with the Literary Societies, the public Literary Entertainment of the Alumni, will in all probability, hereafter take the place of that hitherto given by the Literary Societies, thereby rendering it necessary for us, not only to procure a larger and pleasant auditorium in the most appropriate part of the city, with choice music, orations, &c., &c., but to engage the most popular speaker within our power to obtain, thus securing a large and enthusiastic attendance.

We believe we may by this means best honor our Alma Mater and ourselves, and, year by year, bring back, for days to come, familiar faces, scenes and memories of days gone by.

Yours Fraternally,

EDGAR L. JAYNE, TREASURER.

The Good Old Songs

VIVE L'AMOUR.

Let every good fellow now fill up his glass,
Vive la compagnie,
And drink to the health of our glorious class,
Vive la compagnie.

Chorus—
Vive la, vive la, vive l'amour,
Vive la, vive la, vive l'amour,
Vive l'amour, vive l'amour,
Vive la compagnie.

Let every married man drink to his wife,
Vive la compagnie,
The joy of his bosom and plague of his life,
Vive la compagnie.

Come fill up your glasses, I'll give you a toast,
Vive la compagnie,
Here's a health to our friend, our kind, worthy
Vive la compagnie. [host,
Since all with good humor I've toasted so free
Vive la compagnie.
I hope it will please you to drink now with me
Vive la compagnie.

POLLY-WOLLY-DOODLE.

Oh, I went down south for to see my Sal;
Sing "Polly-Wolly-Doodle" all the day!
My Sally am a spunky gal,
Sing "Polly-Wolly-Doodle" all the day!

Chorus—
Farewell! Farewell! Farewell my fairy fay!
Oh, I'm off to Louisiana, for to see my Susy Anna,
Singing "Polly-Wolly-doodle" all the day.
Farewell! Farewell! Farewell, my fairy fay!
Oh I'm off to Louisiana, for to see my Susy Anna,
Singing "Polly-Wolly-Doodle" all the day.

Oh, I came to the river and I couldn't get across;
An I jumped upon a nigger an I thot he was a boss;

Oh! a grasshopper sitting on a railroad track,
A pickin' his teeth with a carpet tack.

Behind the barn down on my knees;
I thought I heard that chicken sneeze.

He sneezed so hard wid the whoopin'-cough,
He sneezed his head and his tail right off.
I watched the ashes as it came,
Fast drawing toward the end;
I watched it as a friend would watch,
Beside a dying friend;
But still the flames crept slowly on;
It vanished into air;
I threw it from me—save the tale—
It was my last cigar.

I've seen the land of all I love,
Fade in the distance dim;
I've watched above the blighted heart,
Where once proud hope hath been;
But I've never known a sorrow,
That could with that compare,
When off the blue Canaries,
I smoked my last cigar.

'TWAS OFF THE BLUE CANARIES.

'Twas off the blue Canary Isles,
A glorious summer day,
I sat upon the quarter deck,
And whisped my cares away;
And as the volumed smoke arose,
Like incense in the air,
I breath'd a sigh to think, in sooth,
It was my last cigar.

Chorus—
It was my last cigar, it was my last cigar,
I breath'd a sigh to think, in sooth, it was my last cigar.

I leaned upon the quarter rail,
And looked down in the sea,
E'en then the purple wreath of smoke
Was curling gracefully;
Oh what had I at such a time,
To do with wasting care,
Alas! the trembling tear proclaimed,
It was my last cigar.
THERE IS A TAVERN IN THE TOWN.

There is a tavern in the town, in the town,
And there my dear love sits him down, sits him down,
And drinks his wine mid laughter free,
And never, never thinks of me.

CHORUS—
Fare thee well, for I must leave thee,
Do not let the parting grieve thee,
And remember that the best of friends must part, must
Adieu, adieu, kind friends, adieu, adieu [part
I can no longer stay with you, stay with you,
I'll hang my harp on a weeping willow tree,
And may the world go well with thee.

He left me for a damsel dark, damsel dark,
Each Friday night they used to spark, used to spark,
And now my love once true to me,
Takes that dark damsel on his knee.

Oh! dig my grave both wide and deep, wide and deep,
Put tomb stones at my head and feet, head and feet,
And on my breast carve a turtle dove,
To signify I died of love.

GOOD-NIGHT.

Good-night, ladies! Good-night, ladies!
Good-night ladies! we're going to leave you now.

CHORUS—
Merrily we roll along, roll along, roll along,
Merrily we roll along o'er the dark blue sea.

Farewell, ladies; farewell, ladies;
Farewell, ladies; we're going to leave you now.

Sweet dreams, ladies; sweet dreams, ladies;
Sweet dreams, ladies; we're going to leave you now.

DEAR SIR:

At a dinner given to the Alumni of the University of Chicago, by Chancellor Burroughs, an account of which you have probably seen, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The Chancellor of the University of Chicago has addressed to this body a communication setting forth the pressing needs of that institution, and calling upon us to assist in placing it upon a more stable financial basis; and

WHEREAS, The accession to the Presidency of so able a man as Dr. Moss, and to the financial department of Chancellor Burroughs, is emphasized by the board as an occasion for advancement and expansion in every department; and

WHEREAS, We recognize in the general and wide-spread interest in the celebration of the National Centennial not only a grand occasion for appeal to the popular heart, but also an obligation upon us to take some high and worthy part in the same; and

WHEREAS, As a body of men we have individually received a degree of education and culture at the hands of our "Alma Mater" which places us under life-long obligations to serve her interests and promote her honor; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, 1. That as an initiatory step in this behalf, we, as an association, do now undertake to establish an "endowment fund" of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) by July 4, 1876.

2. This fund shall be known as the "Alumni Endowment Fund," the income of which shall be ultimately applied to the maintenance of a professor's chair in said institution, the selection of which and option of nomination therefore being reserved to this association.

3. That the income from said fund be applied toward payment of the salary of such chair as the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, may select, until such time as the Alumni Association shall elect to fill a chair as above contemplated.

4. That the subscription to the above fund be payable at the end of five years from July 1, 1875, with option of prepayment, with interest payable semi-annually, at the rate of io per cent. per annum from January 1, 1875; that each member of the association execute his promissory note for the amount of his subscription as above specified, payable to the order of the trustee or custodian of said fund, to be selected by the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, from their number.

5. That an Executive Committee of eleven, five of whom shall constitute a quorum, representing as far as practicable the several classes, shall be appointed at this meeting, to serve until, and account to, the annual meeting of the association in 1876, who shall solicit subscriptions to carry out the proposed object, and have supervision and control of the fund.

HENRY C. MAHIE,
WM. L. PIERCE,
JOSEPH F. BONESFIELD,
FRED. W. PECK,
T. W. GOODSPEED,
Committee.
The Executive Committee were appointed as follows: Messrs. Runnion, Bonfield, Peck, Pierce, Shepherd, Clarke, Egbert, Henderson, Wheeler and Goodspeed. The President, Mr. Mabie, was made Chairman of the committee. Mr. J. F. Bonfield was appointed Treasurer of the fund.

Immediately upon the passage of these resolutions some $10,000 were subscribed, in accordance with the above provisions. Will you not at once express your interest in this grand undertaking by subscribing according to your ability? A moral obligation, strengthened by every consideration of loyalty to our Alma Mater and the cause of higher education, rests upon each one of us to respond heartily and generously at this critical juncture and while the Centennial Educational movement, so promising in its results, is on foot.

Will you not therefore open your heart to this appeal and, imitating the example of the Alumni who have already subscribed in sums ranging from two thousand to one hundred dollars, fill out and sign the enclosed note for as large an amount as you possibly can, and return at once to Joseph F. Bonfield, Esq., 162 Washington St. or to any member of the Executive Committee, as we wish to secure as many notes as possible of even date from January 1st., 1875.

If we come to the rescue now with alacrity and enthusiasm, our example will doubtless stimulate many who can give of their abundance, and thus, in coming years, we may see our Alma Mater elevated to a commanding position—the realization of the the noble ideal sketched by President Moss in his inaugural address.

Respectfully Yours,

Executive Committee.
The Executive Committee were apprised as follows:

Messrs. R. M. P. B., H. R. R., C. W. S., T. H. W., and H. S. H. were added to the committee of the Executive Committee.

The Hon. W. R. M. was appointed Treasurer of the fund.

Immediately after the passage of these resolutions some $8,000 were subscribed, in accordance with these resolutions, as a part of the $25,000 to be raised.

Will you not at once express your interest in this grand movement by subscribing so generously as to contribute to your ability? A hearty application is made by every constituent of the Alumni who will recall your past and express your desire to see the Alumni again. Have kindly subscribed to some savings from the numerous coffers. If you are loyal, and sign this pledge, this is absolutely necessary to secure the success of the movement.

Mr. W. P. R., or to any member of the Executive Committee, as we wish to secure as many notes as possible of every one from the society, is 1875.

If we come to the rescue, you will have our sympathy and un

unconditioned support, and we will do our best in order to secure the maximum number of subscribers, and thus in coming to the rescue of the society, you will do your best to carry out the objects of this great movement.

Sincerely yours,

Roe, Elijah Gove, Henry G. Weston, Simon G. Miner, Noyes W. Miner, and their associates and successors in office, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The University of Chicago," the object of this incorporation being the promotion of general and professional education, the application of science to agriculture and manufactures, and the cultivation of the fine arts. The said corporation shall have perpetual succession, with power to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with; to make and use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure; to buy and sell, and to take and hold real and personal property.

SEC. 2. The persons herebefore named are hereby appointed trustees of the said corporation. The said trustees, upon the call of any three of their number, issued in writing to each of the others, shall meet for the purpose of organization and the transaction of business; and, within one year from the passage of this act, they, or a quorum of them, in a regular meeting, shall choose, by ballot, fifteen other persons, to constitute, with themselves and the President of the University (who shall always be a trustee by virtue of his office), the full board of trustees of thirty-six members. Eleven members present at any regular meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. When the full number of trustees is chosen, the board shall be distributed by lot into five classes, numbered first, second, third, fourth and fifth; and the term of office of the first class shall expire at the second annual meeting thereafter, and that of each of the other classes annually thereafter, in the order of their numbers; when, in each case, the vacancy thus created shall be filled by a new election, by ballot. Vacancies occurring by death, resignation or removal from office, shall be filled, by ballot, at the next meeting of the board; and the members thus elected shall belong to the class in which the vacancy occurred. If any member shall fail to attend the annual meeting of the board for two years in succession, his place shall be declared vacant, and be filled by a new election. The board shall meet annually, at or in the vicinity of the University, on a day which it shall previously designate; and special meetings shall be called by the President, on the request of nine members, setting forth, in writing, the objects of such special meetings.
SEC. 3. The board shall have power to choose its own officers and prescribe their duties; to establish such ordinances and by-laws for the government of its own proceedings, as it may deem necessary; provided, that the same shall not be contrary to the constitution of the United States, nor of the State of Illinois. The board is charged with the superintendence and government of the University, with power to create different departments in addition to the usual collegiate department—viz. a department of law, of medicine, of agriculture, and such others as it may deem necessary; and to prescribe courses of study, and maintain discipline and government in each; to elect a President, and, at its discretion, a Vice-President, of the University, and all necessary professors, tutors, and instructors, and to prescribe the duties and fix the salaries of each; to fix the rate of tuition, and the terms of admission to the University; provided, that, other than the majority of the Trustees and the President of the University shall forever be of the same religious denomination as the majority of the corporation; no religious test or particular religious profession shall ever be held as a requisite for admission to any department of the University, or for election to any professorship, or other place of honor or emolument in it, but the same shall be open alike to persons of any religious faith or profession. The board may acquire—by gift, grant or devise or purchase—any real or personal property; and may use, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, any and all property belonging to the University, in such manner as they may deem most conduite to its interest; provided, that real estate shall not be sold without the consent of a majority of all the trustees. The board may appoint of its own number, an executive committee of not less than five members, to be charged with the interests of the University in the intervals of the sessions of the board, and may prescribe the duties of such executive committee, and delegate to it all or any portion of the powers of the board.

SEC. 4. To enable the trustees to fulfill the trusts hereby committed to them, and to secure the ends of this corporation, it is hereby declared unlawful for any person to entice any student of said University into the practice of gaming, or to furnish to any student any device or instrument for gaming, or any intoxicating liquors. And any billiard room, bowling alley, race course, or other device or instrument for gaming, or any brothel house or house of ill fame, or place where intoxicating liquors are sold or furnished (except for medicinal or mechanical purposes), within one mile of the site of said University, is hereby declared a nuisance, and subject to abatement as such.

SEC. 5. In addition to the board of trustees, there shall be a board of re-gents of the University, to consist of the Governor of the State of Illinois, the Lieutenant Governor, the Secretary of State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Judges of the United States Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of Illinois, and of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas, and Mayor of the City of

Ecruom: In the thirteenth line, between the words "than" and "the," insert the word "that."
Sec. 10. The tract of land, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, on which the University is erected, belonging to the said University, is hereby declared exempt from taxation or assessment, for all and any purpose whatever.

Sec. 11. This act shall be a public act, and shall take effect immediately. Approved January 30, 1857.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the board of trustees of the University of Chicago shall, at the next annual meeting of the said board, be increased by the addition of seven new trustees, making the full board of trustees, including the President of the University, number forty-three. Said board of trustees shall be divided into six classes, numbered respectively, first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth, and that at the next annual meeting of said board of trustees, said board shall elect seven trustees to succeed the class whose term of office then expires, to hold their office for the term of five years, and shall also elect seven other persons to complete the number of trustees above named, who shall hold their office for the term of six years, and at all subsequent annual elections of trustees of said University, the persons who shall be elected to succeed the trustees, whose terms of office then expire, shall hold their office for the term of six years; provided, that this act shall in no way affect the term of office of the President of said University.

This act shall be a public act, and shall be in force from and after its passage. Approved March 30, 1869.

To the Alumni of the University of Chicago:

It is made my duty, as it is also a pleasure, to communicate to you the following action of the Board of Trustees of the new University, which was taken on the 2nd of February, 1891.

"Res., That the Secretary be directed to communicate this action to the Alumni."

These resolutions were moved by Pres. Harper, and seconded by Mr. Peck, and were adopted by a unanimous vote.

Trusting that these advances will be received by the Alumni as cordially as they are made by the University, I remain,

Very sincerely,

T. W. GOODSPEED,

Alumni Notes

The list of alumni commenced in this issue, will, no doubt, interest the students as well as the Alumni, who read the Weekly. We hope in time to give the address and occupation of all the Alumni, but limited space will necessitate the publishing of them in installments.

The Weekly solicits personal items of interest to the Alumni, and will gladly correct any mistakes in names, occupation or address that are brought to its notice.

The Weekly desires to interest the alumni and to that end offers its columns for our use. Let the Alumni, in turn, help the Weekly by giving it a fair share of the patronage that a well edited College paper merits.

The addresses of the following named Alumni are not known to the secretary. Can any one supply them?

'67. Christopher Carruthers.
'67. Oscar G. May.
'70. Hosmer C. Hastings.
'70. Mahlon O. Jones.
'70. C. C. Merriam.
'73. James B. Johnston.
'78. Sames Sommers.
'79. William H. Miles.
'82. J. Vincent Combs.

THE OLD UNIVERSITY.
Alumni Notes.

'63. Dr. Temple S. Hoyne is a leading member of the Faculty of Halneman Medical College, and a practicing physician, well known in medical circles. He is a son of the late Thomas Hoyne, who was a pioneer of Chicago, one of the founders of the University, and its staunch supporter to the day of his death. The doctor was one of the first students in the University and his reminiscences of early days are very interesting.

'65. Joshua Pike is principal of the public schools in Jerseyville, Ill., and one of the best known educators of Southern Illinois.

'65. William L. Pierce is the senior member of the real estate firm of William L. Pierce & Co. They make a specialty of city business property.

'66. Alfred E. Bosworth is cashier of the First National Bank in Elgin, Ill. He was the first of three brothers to graduate from the University. The others being W. Eugene Bosworth, of '69, now a merchant in Elgin, and Henry I. Bosworth of '76, now a banker in the same city.

'66. Alonzo Abernethy is president of the Ladies Seminary at Osage, Iowa. He was for a time acting president of the University.

'67. Edwin S. Bastin, now a member of the Northwestern University in its school of pharmacy, was for a number of years Professor of Natural Science and Registrar of the old University. As a botanist he ranks with the best, and is the author of one or more text-books on the subject.

Alumni of the University of Chicago.

Following is a partial list of the names of the graduates of the University and is revised as far as the Secretary has been able to obtain the addresses of those named. The list is published at the request of a number of the Alumni, and it is desired that all errors, either in occupation or address, or any changes during the coming year, may be reported to E. A. Buzzell, 510 Chicago Opera House, who will see that such corrections and changes are made:

Alumni Notes.

Charles W. Henson, at one time a member of the class of '86, and afterwards of Hoboken Polytechnic School, was married recently to Miss Mary Hegar. The bride has been for some years a teacher in the public schools of this city, and is a very amiable young lady. Charlie is to be congratulated on his choice.

The organization of societies and college clubs, and incidentally the friendly rivalry among aspirants for office at the University, reminds us of our college days, and particularly of the winter of '84-'5, when "Dr." Lingle of the College of Science, then familiarly known as "Dave," and "Steward" Hammond, then called "Ted," aspired to the presidency of the Students Association, a position coveted only for the honor of presiding at "Washington Supper." It was the last fight we had in college politics, and the shrewd Hammond, flanked by Atheneum, Dekes and Psi Upsilon fell "outside the breastworks," while victory crowned the brow of the modest "Dr." who headed the forces of Tri Happa, Phi Psi and Zeta Psi.

The Old University of Chicago. 7/15/93.

The old University of Chicago had its inception in 1853, when a number of Chicago men called upon Stephen A. Douglas and proposed the idea of an institution of higher learning in Chicago. As a result of this conference Mr. Douglas the following year gave a ten-acre tract of land for a campus, and in 1857 the charter was granted under which the University of Chicago came into existence. It opened for instruction in the fall of that year, with the late Rev. John C. Burroughs, D. D., at that time pastor of the First Baptist Church, as its first President.

The erection of the building, a cut of which is shown below, was begun in 1857, the laying of the corner-stone on the Fourth of July in that year marking an epoch in the progress of the city.

The building stood in the center of the campus, fronting towards Cottage Grove avenue. The campus occupied the block bounded by College Place on the north and University Place on the south, and extending back from Cottage Grove avenue to Rhodes avenue. It was a part of the grounds belonging to the Douglas homestead, which still stands on Thirty-fifth street opposite the heart of Lake avenue, and is occupied by the Sculptor Volk. The building was a massive structure, built of granite, the wood-work throughout being solid oak.

In the basement of the main building was the gymnasium and the chemical and physical laboratories. On the first floor were the parlor, chapel, ladies’ room and class-rooms. On the second floor were various class-rooms and the library; while the third and fourth floors were given up to dormitories, excepting a fraternity hall and the old chapel or auditorium (long unused) on the fourth floor.

The south wing of the University, known as Jones Hall, was the gift of William Jones. In the basement was located the students’ dining hall. On the first floor were the living rooms of some of the professors, while the floors above were wholly used as dormitories.

The building was heated (?) entirely by stoves, excepting the halls, which were never warm. The dormitories were lighted in the good old-fashioned way, with kerosene lamps. The halls and parlor only were lighted by gas, which was turned off regularly at ten o’clock.

At the rear of the main building (just showing in the cut at the rear of the two small towers) was the Dearborn Observatory, built through the efforts of the late J. Young Scammon in 1861, and mounting what was at that time the largest refracting telescope in the world, the glasses for which were made by Alvin Clark & Sons, who are now preparing the glasses for the Yerkes telescope. After the last class graduated on the sixteenth of June, 1886, the University, by foreclosure proceedings, passed into the hands of an insurance company, and was occupied by tenants of all classes and all degrees, from ministers of the gospel to highway robbers, including the “anarchist” and a nest of owls.

In January, 1889, the building was taken down, and the stone sold to various parties, some of it going into the residence of a south-side saloon-keeper, and a large part of it being used in the construction of the Calvary Baptist Church at Thirty-eighth street and Wabash avenue, the entrance of which is a reproduction of the main entrance of the old building.

The Observatory was dismantled, and the big telescope removed to Evanston, and is now identified with the Northwestern University, though still controlled by the Dearborn Observatory Association. The old campus has been subdivided, and cut in twain by an extension of Thirty-fourth street, and still remains desolate and deserted; and recognized only by the old willow that stood on the ball ground and still stands mute witness to the strange transformation wrought by the relentless hand of adversity.

Such, in brief, is the story of the buildings of the old University.
