Cork, 10th September 1783

Sir,

I have on the List 35 men, Names as Redemtioners, and several more that would not put their names down till the ship is ready to take them on board there is 12 Spanish Passengers names down on the List and there are several that would give part of the money here if you would agree with them to serve a shorter time. I would thank you to let me know whether you would take them on such terms.

Sir, I remain yours,

Bishop
