

Sir
You still continues to say he has got the foul Disease, as I can get no one to examine him I think you had ^{better} take him home and have him examined and cured if he has it. and Make you safe of him: I am very willing to do the service he has Done me (and be glad to give him up: If I am oblig'd to keep him you cannot except I will suffer him to be with ^{my} Negroes whilst he has that Disorder: and I plainly see I shall get little or no work by him without inflicting such punishment on him as will be very disagreeable to me and perhaps to you also

I am Sir yours &c
