To Prof. Stahl,

I am writing to offer my service in benefit for Genahe Victims to be given Feb. 9 at Auditorium Hotel. I have the Japanese costumes I used as a Steward in the Hotel in China, one is what I used in "A Pilgrimage to Jung." I will be willing to assist in any part assigned me. However kindly address Martha Beaufort 700 E 46th.
A Japanese Musicale-Lecture and a Bazaar will be given at the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, Monday February 9th, 1914, as a benefit for the Earthquake and Famine sufferers of Japan. Both will be under the auspices of the local Japanese Students and Merchants assisted by Professor Frederick Starr, of the University of Chicago.

The Bazaar will be held on the second floor of the hotel and will be open all day. Admission will be free. Useful and attractive Japanese goods will be sold at bargain prices. The booths will be attended by Japanese ladies in native costume.

The Musicale-Lecture will be made up of an excellent program of Japanese and American music and an illustrated talk on Japan by Professor Starr. It will take place in the South Parlor of the hotel at 8:30 P. M. Tickets will be 50 cents.

All of the people taking part in the Musicale-Lecture and Bazaar, both American and Japanese, will donate their services and the use of the Auditorium Hotel has been donated by Manager W. S. Shafer. The expenses will be next to nothing which will enable the committee in charge to turn over almost the entire gross receipts to the Japanese Consul, Mr. Kahachi Abe, who will immediately forward the money to the needy ones in Japan.

You will surely find these affairs well worth while and you are respectfully invited to attend.

THE COMMITTEE.

P. S. Mail orders for tickets will be filled at once. Make all checks payable to Professor Frederick Starr, Treasurer, 5541 Drexel Ave., Chicago.
