Constitution of the Woman’s Union

Name
The name of this organization shall be The Woman’s Union of the University of Chicago.

Object
The object of this organization shall be to unite the women of the University for the promotion of their common interests.

Membership
The members shall be of two classes, regular and honorary.

The privileges of regular membership shall be open to the following classes:

1. Women students registered in any department of the University.
2. Women members of the faculty, women officers, and women in the employ of the University.
3. Women members of the families of trustees, faculty, and officers of the University.
4. Wives of registered students.
5. Alumnae of the University.

Honorary membership may be conferred by unanimous vote of the Union upon recommendation of the Membership Committee. Honorary members shall have all the privileges of regular membership, and shall be exempt from the payment of fees.

Officers
The business of the Union shall be conducted by a Council, consisting of a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, and a house committee of seven members. The Council shall be elected by the Union at its annual meeting, and shall fill any vacancies occurring in its membership. The president, treasurer, and chairman of the House Committee shall be considered the executive officers of the Union, with power to approve all bills, and to direct the affairs of the Union in the interim of the meetings of the Council. The members of the House Committee, other than the chairman, shall serve as chairmen of committees on membership, finance, entertainment, philanthropy, hospitality, and lunch room. These committees shall be chosen by the Council on nomination by their respective chairmen.

1. The duties of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the Union and of the Council.
2. In the absence of the president, the vice-president shall perform her duties.
3. The duties of the secretary shall be to keep the records of the meetings of the Union and of the Council, to send out notices, and to carry on such correspondence as shall be entrusted to her.
4. The duties of the treasurer shall be to receive and to disburse all moneys belonging to the Union, to collect the dues, to keep a record of the accounts, and to make a quarterly report to the Council and an annual report to the Union.

The membership fee shall be fifty cents a quarter, or one dollar a year.

The annual meeting of the Union shall be held during the third week of the winter quarter.

Special meetings of the Union may be called by the secretary at the request of the president, the chairman of the House Committee, or three members of the Union.

At any annual or special meeting of the Union twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum.

Amendments to this constitution may be adopted at any meeting of the Union, the proposed amendment having been included in the notice calling the meeting for its consideration.
The annual meeting of the Woman's Union was held on January 20, 1904. The constitution was amended by changing the number of vice-presidents from two to three, and by making the president of the Woman's Athletic Association and the secretary of the Women Students' Christian League members of the Council.

The following were elected officers for the year 1904:

- President - Miss Marion Talbot.
- Vice-Presidents - Miss A. E. Allen, Miss L. D. Harris, Miss Verna Moyer.
- Secretary - Miss Ethel Jaynes.
- Treasurer - Miss Anne H. Martin.
- Chairmen of committees - House, Miss Gertrude Dudley; Membership, Miss S. P. Breckinridge; Entertainment, Miss G. L. Chamberlin; Music, Mrs. R. G. Moulton; Philanthropy, Miss Frances Taussig; Hospitality, Miss Flora Weil; Lunch-Room, Mrs. Carl Kinsley; Finance, Miss Isabelle Webster.

Changes have been made in the officers during the year as follows:

- Miss Comstock resigned her office of vice-president, and in May Miss Ballou was elected to fill the vacancy.
- Miss Richardson resigned as Secretary November 2, and Miss Ethel Jaynes was elected to fill the vacancy.
- Mrs. Moulton resigned as chairman of the Music Committee; Miss Ashcraft was elected in February. Upon the resignation of the latter, Mrs. Gale was elected in March; and at Mrs. Gale's resignation, Mrs. Jameson was elected in November.
- Miss Taussig resigned as chairman of the Philanthropic Committee in November, and Miss Becker was elected to take her place.
- Miss Weil resigned as chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and Miss Woods was elected in November to fill the vacancy.
- Mrs. Kinsley resigned as chairman of the Lunch-Room Committee, Mrs. Jackman succeeding her in May; upon Mrs. Jackman's resignation, Miss Lulu Just was elected.

The following officers were elected temporarily for the Summer Quarter:

- Treasurer - Mrs. George C. Howland.
- Chairman of the House Committee - Miss Susan H. Ballou.
- Chairman of the Membership Committee - Miss Lucy Hammond.
- Chairman of the Hospitality Committee - Miss Lois Prentiss.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY.

The secretary of the Union, Miss Ethel Jaynes, submitted the following report for the year 1903:

The annual meeting of the Union comes to us as a New Year's day, on which to look back over the past, to stop a moment for a bit of introspection, that we may define our purposes, and see how far our activities have fulfilled these purposes, and gain suggestions for more helpful work in the future.

We started the last year in our quarters in the Disciples' Church, Lexington Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street, with the following officers:

- President - Miss Marion Talbot.
- Vice-President - Miss Clara Comstock.
- Secretary - Miss Mildred Richardson.
- Treasurer - Miss Ruth Hardy.
- Chairmen of committees - House, Miss Gertrude Dudley; Membership, Miss S. P. Breckinridge; Entertainment, Miss G. L. Chamberlin; Music, Mrs. R. G. Moulton; Philanthropy, Miss Frances Taussig; Hospitality, Miss Flora Weil; Lunch-Room, Mrs. Carl Kinsley; Finance, Miss Isabelle Webster.
There have been three general meetings of the Union, one each Quarter, the Summer excepted, to discuss plans, and to give a chance for the expression of the wishes of members. Starting from such general ideas, it has been the work of the members of the Council, the officers, and heads of committees to make definite plans for action. Such plans have been carried out through the several committees, and through sub-committees elected by the Council to take charge of special affairs. The Council itself has had ten meetings. The detailed work will be given in the reports of the committees.

The Union is now starting on its third year. We have moved from the cory, but somewhat cramped, quarters in the little church, to our rooms in Lexington Hall, where with the reception rooms, and the use of the lunch-room and library, we are able to attempt what before was impossible. When the lunch-room was opened to all women of the University, that feature was no longer a chief function, and the Union could therefore give its attention more fully to distinctly representative affairs. What were these affairs? First, let us turn to the very foundation of our organization to see why we existed; for, although the place of the Union in the varied activities of University life was gradually being defined, yet there was, and is, need for very careful adjustment.

Thus far there seem to have been three general needs: (1) It was necessary, with so large a membership, that there be opportunity given for members to come to know one another, and hence the affairs simply for members. (2) Situated as we are in a great city, we have moved from the cozy, but somewhat cramped, quarters in the little church, to our rooms in Lexington Hall. The lunch-room with its larger accommodations was thought to us by the Women Students' Christian League, and upon moving into Lexington they needed it for the furnishing of their own room. We started with an unfurnished room — that was all. Through the energy of our president and the chairman of the Membership Committee, the University and friends of the University became interested in the Union, and sufficient money was contributed to furnish the room in part. During the year the Council has at various times voted money for furnishings; the cast, table linen, chairs, and the fern were purchased with these funds. From the beginning the room has been supplied with the daily paper and the monthly magazines, and the desk furnished with stationery. The room has been open the whole of each college day, and tea always served at four o'clock.

Besides this, the room has been used evenings by many University organizations. In the fall the Conference of Women Deans held its after­noon session here. Shortly before Christmas there was a six­day exhibit of Consumers' League goods.

The lunch-room with its larger accommodations has been able to offer a greater variety of menus. With the opening of the lunch-room to all women of the University, more help was needed, and in the spring an assistant was engaged. The lunch-room also caters for many of the evening parties.

The Entertainment Committee.

The Entertainment Committee reported in brief through the chairman, Miss G. L. Chamberlain, as follows.

In addition to the regular weekly meetings of the committee the Music Committee held its afternoon meeting in the Union on October 9th, with Miss Clara W. King, in charge, as follows:

The report of the House Committee was presented by the chairman, Miss Gertrude Dudley.

The detailed work of the House Committee is given under the reports of the various sub­committees. Only the general outline of its work appears in the following report:

On February 7th the Union moved from its first home in the Disciples' Church to the rooms now occupied in Lexington Hall.

The furniture used in the church had been loaned to us by the Women Students' Christian League, and upon moving into Lexington they needed it for the furnishing of the room itself. The furniture was contributed to furnish the room in part.

The report of the Music Committee for the month of October was presented by Miss Alice Shaw Fruehling.

The Finance Committee:

tions. Mrs. Newman Miller kindly played one afternoon, and Miss Hadley and the chairman of the Music Committee gave violin and vocal solos another afternoon.

In the early part of November, with the aid of two students, a set of six college songs, or glees, was arranged to be sung by all the girls, and these songs were printed on slips of paper and distributed. On two occasions the girls were given some assistance in practicing these songs for the Thanksgiving party.

THE COMMITTEE ON HOSPITALITY.

The report of the Committee on Hospitality was presented by the chairman, Miss Halle D. Woods:

The work of this committee has consisted largely in appointing members to assist at the afternoon receptions by serving at the tea table and acting as a reception committee. Another phase of the work has been to appoint members to take charge of the rooms daily between the hours of twelve and two. The rooms are usually crowded at this time, and it was thought well to have someone present to give a general supervision to the rooms, and to answer any questions in regard to the Union and its work.

Since moving into Lexington Hall, tea has been served each afternoon between four and five o'clock. This is proving a very pleasant feature of the life of the Union, and one usually finds a little group present at this hour.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The chairman of the Finance Committee, Miss Isabelle Webster, reported that efforts had been made to increase the fund for furnishing the room.

THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE.

The chairman of the Membership Committee, Miss S. P. Breckenridge, reported the membership as follows:

THE PHILANTHROPIC COMMITTEE.

The work of the Philanthropic Committee was reported by Miss Henrietta K. Becker, as follows:

1. Settlement work.— Assistance rendered in giving instruction and entertainment at the Settlement. Membership in this subcommittee carries with it membership in the Settlement Conference.

2. Art committee.— Its object is the stimulation of the aesthetic interests in the Union. About twenty-five members were enrolled, and visits to galleries and studios, and addresses by artists and art critics, were arranged. Miss Becker was made a delegate to the Municipal Art League of Chicago.

3. Committee for visiting the sick.— Help has been given in cases of illness or distress among the women of the University.

4. Committee on Consumers' League.— An exhibit of Consumers' League products was given in the Union room, and addresses were made for the purpose of arousing interest in methods proposed for the protection of women and children engaged in factory and shop work.
Jan. 22, 1901,

My dear Miss Talbot,

At a special meeting of the Cabinet of the Young Women's Christian Association it was voted to allow the use of the Association furniture in the Women's Club of the University of Chicago for one year in return for the following privilege:

First. That the Association be allowed to hold its Cabinet, Committee, and Business meetings in the Club rooms, and that the General Secretary of the Association be allowed to hold office hours there daily if she so desires.

Second. That the Association be allowed to entertain its own...
Number socially as often as once a month.

Third. That the Association be allowed to entertain other women of the University besides its own Members as often as once a month.

The list of Association furniture is as follows:

- One Sofa & Prairie screen
- One Single Chair
- One Rocker
- One Arm Chair
- Three Morris chairs of stained oak with green corduroy cushions
- One Wicker-rock 2 @ Golden oak
- One Table 2 Golden oak 3' x 4'ft
- One Table 2 Golden oak 3' x 5'ft
- One Rocker 2 Golden oak
- One Cane-Seated Rocker
- One day couch with two cushions
- Two extenders

Also several well worn pieces

- One Upholstered Couch
- One Upholstered Chair
One Wicker Chair
One Cane Seated Rocker
One Upholstered Seat Rocker
Tarr Rugs (One)

Most social occasions would probably be in the afternoons so that there would not be an extra expense for lighting.

Yours most sincerely,

M. Ethel Freeman
Dec. 17, 1901.

My dear Miss Breckenridge:

The Church is now at the service of the Club for any meetings, I think. I will see that it is ready Thursday.

Mr. H. A. Petersen, 395—57th St., is the janitor and he will open the Church at any time for you.

I think it can be arranged for the Club to have Wednesdays. If there is any difficulty, it will be in the janitor’s cooks, and perhaps you can speak to him Thursday about that.

Very truly yours,

Edward S. Ames.

The Second Meeting of the Commission to Organize December 6, 1901.

The Commission to Organize the Woman's Club of the University of Chicago met at 300 N. Dearborn Street on December 6, 1901, at four o'clock. Mrs. Talbot presiding. There were present: Mrs. Chace, Mrs. Nutfrie, Mrs. C. H. Flora, Mrs. Kellett, Mrs. Peabody, Mrs. C. M. Colman, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Ashton, Miss Daisy, Miss Freeman and Mrs. Dreyfus, Mrs. Alice Freeman, Palmer, and Cambridge. The minutes of the previous meeting were first read and approved. A report was then made by Miss Dudzinski from the Committee on Membership. It was voted to adopt and to print a new article on Membership and Constitution. As the last clause of the Constitution stating the object of the Club, on the motion of Mrs. Peabody, power to draft a new clause was left to a committee to be appointed by the Chair.

The Commission then proceeded to the consideration of the draft of a Constitution presented by the Committee on Constitution. Taking up Article by Article, it was adopted in the following form:

Article I. Name. The name of the Organization shall be the Woman's Club of the City of Chicago.
Membership. The members shall be of two classes, regular and honorary.

The privileges of regular membership shall be open to the following persons:

Duties of Officers:

1. The duties of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the club and of the council.

2. In the absence of the president, the vice president shall perform the duties.

3. The duties of the secretary shall be to keep the records of the meetings of the club and of the council, to keep out notices and to carry on such correspondence as may be entrusted to her.

4. The duties of the treasurer shall be to receive and to disburse all money belonging to the club, to collect the dues, to keep a record of the accounts, and to make a quarterly report to the council and an annual report to the club.
The membership fee shall be fifteen cents a quarter or a dollar a year.

Meetings. The annual meeting of the Club shall be held during the first week of the winter quarter.

Special meetings may be called by the Secretary at the request of the President, the Chairman of the House Committee or any three members of the Club.

Above annual meeting, a special meeting of the Club, called for by three members, shall constitute a quorum.

A motion from the Young Women's Christian Association, with reference to a new dining room furniture for Christian principles was then read, and after some discussion referred to the Committee on Constitution.

Mrs. Palmer then spoke most warmly and gave an account of the work done by the women at the University of Chicago. The Club was organized at first. It was a new venture, and carried that the article on name be reconsidered and the name Union abandoned for Club. After which the Committee adjourned.

The Woman's Union
The University of Chicago

You are cordially invited to be present at the opening of the rooms of the Union, corner of Fifty-seventh street and Lexington avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, January eighth, 1902, from three to five o'clock. The hostesses will be Mrs. W. R. Harper, Mrs. H. P. Judson, Mrs. J. H. Tufts, and Miss Marion Talbot.

The accompanying copy of the constitution gives a general idea of the purpose of the Union. It is hoped that the women of the University will find in the new organization a means of uniting them in a large and generous fellowship and of meeting some of the social needs which many members of the University have felt in the past.

The rooms of the Union will be open daily from 8:15 A. M. to 6:15 P. M., for the use of members only. The special features will be a reading room, a rest room, and a lunch room, where soup and cocoa may be obtained at a low price. A woman custodian will be in constant attendance.

A series of informal "at homes" will be held on succeeding Wednesday afternoons from three to five o'clock. The following ladies will be present on January 15: Mrs. C. M. Child, Mrs. S. W. Cutting, Mrs. John Dewey, Mrs. H. H. Donaldson, Mrs. G. E. Hale, Mrs. G. L. Hendrickson.

January 29: Mrs. F. J. Miller, Mrs. Newman Miller, Mrs. C. F. Millspaugh, Mrs. H. E. Slaught, Mrs. A. W. Small, Mrs. C. P. Small.

February 5: Mrs. J. R. Angell, Mrs. A. A. Stagg, Mrs. E. E. Sparks, Mrs. G. E. Vincent, Mrs. Charles Zueblin.

My dear Miss Breckinridge,

The Cabinet of the Young Women's Christian Association at a meeting held December seventeenth voted to accept the terms offered by the Commission to Organize the Women's Union, as stated in your letter of December thirteenth, in exchange for the use of the furniture belonging to the Association.

The Cabinet also would like to add this request, that as it has been their custom at the beginning of the Autumn Quarter to use their furniture in preparing a reception room for the welcoming of new students, the Association be allowed... either to use the furniture during the first two days of the Autumn Quarter of 1902 for this purpose, or be allowed to use the rooms of the Union during those two days for the reception of the new student.

Yours most sincerely,

M. Cettel Freeman.

Gen. Sec.
Meeting of the Council of the Woman's Union
January 15th, 1903.

The Council of the Woman's Union met January 15th at half past two o'clock at the Union Rooms, where the president presided.

It was moved and seconded that the rooms of the Union should be open for the use of any other University club, one week in each week, provided at least three members of said club are also members of the Union. Requests for the use of the Union rooms must be sent in writing to the chairman of the House Committee at least one week before the date desired. Clubs using the Union rooms in the evening must engage the services of the Union's janitor. This was voted upon and carried.

The subject of hospitality in the Union rooms was brought up for discussion. A motion was made, seconded and carried that Miss Freeman, chairman of the Hospitality Committee, be given authority to increase the size of the Hospitality Committee to any extent which she might think advisable; this to be done to secure as far as possible the welcome of new members into the club.

It was moved, seconded and carried that Mrs. D. E. Mummiess and Miss S. G. be made additional members of the council.

the reading of these reports. Miss Dedley mentioned the possible purchase of a piano by the University, the monthly rent paid by the Union might be applied toward the final buying.

Upon the mention of the fact that pages had been torn from magazines it was suggested that members who abused the privileges of membership could be forced to withdraw from the Union. A motion was made to this effect and such an amendment to the constitution was left to the council who were to report on it at the next business meeting of the Union.

The meeting was adjourned after an informal talk of the future work of the Union.

Meeting of the Council of the Woman's Union
April 30th, 1902.

The Council of the Woman's Union of the University of Chicago, met at the Union, April 30th, 1902.

The reading of the minutes of the former meeting was omitted owing to lack of time. The council proceeded immediately to the business on hand.

Miss Laura Colman was nominated and elected chairman of the Philanthropic Committee. Miss Baker resigned the chairmanship of the membership committee and her resignation was accepted; Miss Oreckinridge was nominated and elected to succeed her.

Miss Talbot then reported on the renting of the piano and suggested the election of a music committee. It was voted that Mrs. Moulton be chairman of this committee.

Miss Will's request for a dollar to assist the union in the expenses incurred for their entertainment was granted.

The meeting adjourned.

Mildred Richardson, Sec.
I have just attended another meeting with various officials of the union and labor leaders, and to discuss the current situation and strategies for improvement. We are all agreed that the situation requires immediate action and a coordinated approach.

I have sent a proposal to the union leadership outlining the steps we should take moving forward.

Meeting at the Concourse at the Union Union, May 6, 1913.
According to the committee, the goal was to establish a science program in the Department of Finance. However, the committee found that the University did not have the resources to support such a program. The next step is to explore the possibility of establishing a research institute in collaboration with the University of California, Berkeley. The institute would be based on the campus and would focus on the study of finance.
Affairs.

To Mr. Smith, you are requested to be kind enough to forward the enclosed and to cause the same to be turned over to the proper authority. The matter has been carefully considered and it was decided that it should be returned to the proper place for future reference. The action taken is not one that can be considered final. It is understood that the proper authorities have been notified of the action taken and that a recommendation for further action will be made.

Sincerely yours,

General Meeting of the Members of the Woman's Union of the University of Chicago, June 20, 1902.

The members of the Woman's Union met at the Union, Friday, June 20th, at 4:30 P.M. The minutes of the previous general meeting were read and approved. After which Miss Hardy the treasurer gave her report. It was accepted and immediately following this, the subject of amending the constitution was discussed. Miss Breckinridge, to whom careful consideration of this matter had been referred at the previous general assembly, stated the amendments as she would present them to be voted upon, etc. 1)

As to the plans, investigation proved that there would be no gain by the University advancing money for the purchase.
A BUSINESS MEETING will be held at the rooms of the Union, Fifty-seventh street and Lexington avenue, on Thursday, June 19, at 4:30 P.M., for the consideration of plans for the summer and of the following proposed amendments to the constitution:

1. In the article entitled "Officers," line 3, strike out the word "seven" and insert the word "eight;" and in line 13, after the words "lunch room" add the words "and music."

2. Add the following article: "Penalties. A member may be suspended by action of the President, Chairman of the House Committee, and Treasurer, for a period not exceeding four weeks, when in the judgment of these officers she has been guilty of conduct deserving such penalty. A member may be expelled by a three-fourths vote of the Council on its own initiative when she has given her certificate of membership to another person; for other offenses such expulsion must be recommended by two of the three executive officers or by three members of the Union not members of the Council."

A social meeting in honor of new students will be held on Tuesday evening, June 24, from 8 to 10 P.M.

Council meeting of the Womanic Union, Monday
October 6th 1902.

The council of the Womanic Union held a meeting Monday, October 6th at 4:30 o'clock.
Those present were Miss Talbot, Miss Hardy
Miss Dudley, Miss Drexelridge, Miss Comstock
Miss Charleson and Miss Wel.

Plans were discussed for interesting members and at the same twice eligible persons who as yet were not members. Arrangements for the Wednesday afternoon meeting were discussed and it was decided to leave such matters in the hands of the committee of entertainment assisted by Miss Wel, Miss Dudley, Miss Drexelridge and Miss Comstock. It was also reported that Miss James had plans for a children's party, the time for which was to be decided by the committee.

Miss Dudley then gave a report as chairman of the House Committee. The question was raised as to whether the Union rooms should be open on Saturday morning and after discussion the matter was put to a vote and passed. The closing of the rooms Saturday. The need of the telephone was strongly advocated and the matter was given to the care of committee (Mrs. Bicknridge and Mrs. Kinley). The next question brought up was that of the custodian's pay. It was argued that better results would be attained should Mrs. Conley (the custodian) be given greater responsibilities and at the same time greater renumeration. Finally this matter was left to a committee consisting of the executive committee and the chairmen of the lunch room committee. Mrs. Hardy the treasurer gave the following report which was accepted.
Council meeting of the Woman's Union.
Tuesday, October 26th, 1904.

The Council of the Woman's Union met Tuesday, October 26th at five o'clock. Those present were Miss Talbot, Miss Dudley, Miss Beechridge, Miss Hardy, Miss Weil, Miss Coutts and Miss Chamberlin.

The first report was that of Miss Dudley which concerned the custodians. It was decided by the committee that for this purpose that Miss Dudley's salary be raised from $10 to $15 dollars per week.

The new system of cards for lunch purposes was discussed. The necessity of a cashier in this system is unavoidable. The present cashier receives one dollar and a half a week for her services which is considerably less than University service pays. It was voted that the Chairman of the Local committee be authorized to procure a cashier for a sum weekly not exceeding two dollars.

Miss Hardy's report on the finances was accepted.
The chairman of the entertainment committee gave a report. The committee at present consists of the members. An advisory committee has also been established which consists of the heads of the halls: Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Angell, and Mrs. McDonald, at present. Plans for the various Wednesday afternoons were discussed. It was proposed to entertain different departments of the university; to provide a new afternoon for Ohio Hall and, if possible, one for Mrs. Crisp's. The present University preacher. The advisability of providing different kinds of women's studies for the fall, etc., was discussed. It was noted on

Miss Chamberlain's proposal that thereafter invitations be issued to carders and the envelope.

Miss Dudley then reported the pressing need of more delicate tea cups to be used for afternoon teas, etc. It was noted that the $110 dollars be appropriated for this.

Miss Talbot reported the fact that she had ordered a plate for invitations sent by the union. It was voted that the union pay this bill. A report was then given concerning the musical cheer. The judges met this afternoon and awarded the prize of five dollars to me.
Elizabeth Hope.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Council of the Woman's Union met Nov. at 4 o'clock at the Union.

The Council of the Woman's Union met Nov. at 4 o'clock at the Union. owing to the absence of the secretary Miss L. Weil was appointed secretary pro temp. The first report was that of Miss Hardie chairman of the linen room committee. The report was as follows:

$23.07 profite for the month of Oct.
$5.40 deposit the 1st of Oct.
$55.00 deposited for the month of Nov. The report was approved. Miss Hardie treasurer then gave her report.

Miss Coleman discussed the work of her committee (Philanthropy) and suggested that in order to find out who were ill the various deans of the University be consulted. It was also decided to have printed postcards to send out to all members requesting their help in the work of this committee.
Miss Talbot then brought up for discussion the following questions.

It was suggested that the sum appropriate for the purchase of a tea service be increased to twenty-five ($25) dollars, also that napkins be purchased for the Wednesday day afternoon tea. The former suggestion was approved and at the same time the chairman of the house committee was authorized to buy a steamer rug for the couch. The chairman of the house committee was also authorized to negotiate with the Christian Reformed regarding the use of the furniture for the coming year.

Miss Chamberlain reported that arrangements were being made for the Thanksgiving dinner. The members of her committee promised to collect among friends and already many contributions for food were promised. Plans for future entertainments were discussed. Miss Talbot suggested Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Sheldon as possible guests.

It was then discussed and decided... that the custom of having open meetings at the beginning of each quarter be kept up. The meeting then adjourned.

Approved Jan. 7th, 1913.
The Council of the Woman’s Union met Jan. 7th 1903 at four o’clock at the Union.

The meeting opened with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved. Following this, the treasurer’s report was given and approved.

The topic for the general meeting of the members of the union was then discussed and three o’clock was decided upon. Miss Talbott then announced what reports were to be given at this meeting and what matters should be touched upon in those reports. The matter of a nominating committee of whom it should consist etc., was then taken up. It was decided that it should consist of three members chosen from members at large. Miss Gertrude Caswell was nominated and elected as chairman of this committee and Miss Weisman and Miss Breckenridge and the other two members.

The next thing brought before the council was concerning the furniture of the Christian Reade. Miss Dudley reported that they would need some of the furniture loaned to the Union. Further consideration of this matter was to be taken up at the next general meeting.

Miss Coleman, Chairman of the Committee on Philanthropy brought up the question of how to make the strange people feel more at home, especially the members from the school of education. Many suggestions were offered and everyone thought that these valuable members be added to the Committee on Propaganda.
The meeting then adjourned.

General meeting of the members of the Woman's Union, Chicago, January 1910.

The members of the Woman's Union met at the Union at three o'clock. The minutes of the previous general meeting were read and approved. Following this reports of the sub-committees were read. Miss Chamberlain, chairman of the entertainments committee, handed before the members plans for both winter and spring quarters. Receptions to undergraduates and graduate students were mentioned as well as dances and forms of higher entertainments. Miss Dudley, chairman of the house committee, reported on her work during the past year. Both these reports were accepted. The Secretary's report was then read and also accepted. After the reading and acceptance of Miss Hardy's treasurer's report Miss Coadbott brought up the question of an auditing committee or of an auditor's scrutiny reports. A motion was made seconded and passed that the present report be accepted and in the future an auditing committee be appointed to scrutinize the books of the treasurer.

The report on membership was read and Miss Drakkebridge gave Miss Coleman's (Chairman of the Explanatory Committee) report as well. Both these reports were accepted and thanks given to Miss Breckinridge for her work for the Union. The report on the work of the Ladies' room was read and accepted as was also Miss Weil's report.

The report was then given of the nominating committee. Miss Caddell pointed out the problems and difficulties which would come to the Union by moving. She argued that although history has proved that rules that have used energy may wear salvation yet in this case the Union is more involved of experience. Therefore the nominating committee advocated the reelection of the old council with few changes. The list of the reports was as follows: Miss Talbot President, Miss Cresset Vice President, Paul Hardy Treasurer, Maud Richardson Secretary, Miss Dudley Chairman girls' lunch committee, Miss Irwin Chairman of lunch room, Miss Weil of the hospitality committee. Miss Guardian of the moved committee. Miss Breckinridge of the membership committee. Miss Webster Chairman of the finance committee. Miss Kassel of the philanthropy committee and Miss Chamberlain of the entertainment committee.
The report was accepted. Other nominations were called for but none being received, the ballot was closed by the chairman and the list as presented by the committee was elected. The meeting then adjourned.

Mildred Richardson.
Council Meeting of the Woman's Union held January 28th, 1908 at 6 P.M. at the Union.

The council of the Woman's Union met Jan. 28th at 6 P.M. at the Union. Lying in the absence of the secretary, Miss Haining was appointed to take the minutes of the meeting. The most important matter of hand was the arrangements made by the various chairmen concerning the members to be on their committees. The report of the chairman of the finance committee was accepted as also the report of the management of the room. The members to be in the lunch room during the week are as follows:

- Monday, 1 to 3 o'clock - Miss Wyman.
- Tues. 12 " 2 - Miss Haining.
- Wed. 12 " 2 Miss Ingraham.
- Thurs. 12 " 2 - Miss Casswell.
- Fri. 12 " 2 - Miss Carrin.

Miss Chamberlain gave her committee the consists of Miss Just, Miss Pederson, Miss Jacques and Miss Steele. This was approved. The committee on membership was given as follows: Miss McHugh, Miss Bristol, Miss Goldstein, Miss Hersch, and Miss Saltar.
The subject of the annual report was then taken up, and it was decided to have 500 copies reprinted from the Record, the cost of which would be $500. It was then reported that the piano the Union now had was not a high-grade instrument and after the reading of a letter from Cyrus H. Huntly, the council raised the account appropriated for a piano to $50 dollars.

A discussion as to whether or not the Union should have membership in the Municipal Art League then took place. Definite settlement of this matter however was put off until a future meeting. After approving the finding five dollars to be turned to Mrs. Peterson for his many kindnesses, the council adjourned.
General meeting of the Woman's Union.
Wednesday 17th at the Union.

The council met at the Union but adjourned to Keating Hall to discuss the morning question and also the question of the lunch room. This latter point was first taken up. It was decided to give the executive officers the full power to negotiate with the University concerning the charge of the lunch room as well as the kind of menu.

The method by which the Union's room in the building was to be furnished was next discussed. Money how much and how to be raised was the question and it was decided that the finance committee should attempt to raise $200 the sum needed to furnish the room. The finance committee was also authorized to attend to the decorating of the walls etc.

Mrs. Mohlton's resignation as chairman of the music committee was accepted and Miss Robertson was elected to take her place. The meeting then adjourned.

Meeting of the Council of the Women's Union on March 25th, 1909 at Green Hall.

The members of the council present at this meeting were: Mrs. Earl, Beth Dudley, Dudley, Chaucerkin, Hardy. Mrs. Earl, Dudley resigned her office of chairman of the lunch room committee and Thos. Facknaw was nominated as her successor. Miss Rich. S. Johnson was nominated as assistant to Mrs. Facknaw. Miss Johnson is to take charge of the daily receipts from the lunch room. Mrs. Earl was nominated as chairman of the music committee to succeed Miss Rich. S. Johnson who resigned.

A total of $150.00 is due to this date. Two fees received as contributions for furnishing the room of the union. A motion was made and passed to the effect that each contributor who was not already a member of the union should be given a yearly membership card (beginning with the quarter of 1909).

A motion was made by Miss Chaucerkin, seconded by Miss Chaucerkin and passed to the effect that the first meeting of the spring quarter be devoted to the discussion of plans for the quarter. Miss Chaucerkin and Mrs. J. C. Wheeler are to head the discussion.
The object of this talk is to start more activity in the Union. Mrs. Ravens reported that Mrs. Kelley, corresponding secretary of the Consumer's League, suggested that the Chicago county factories be investigated by a committee for five years. The report of this committee proved to be published. Miss Chamberlin suggested that Miss & Vincent be elected as a permanent member of the committee.

The program for the Spring Quarter was discussed. It was thought that no definite program to conduct because during Spring time the members would prefer to be out of doors. It was decided, however, that tea to served at the Union every afternoon at four o'clock. Miss Dudley was authorized to ask the freshman Girls Basketball Club to select a speaker for the first meeting to be held April 1st.

Ruth Hardy.
General meeting of the members of the Women's Union held April 1st, 1926.

The minutes of the previous assembly were read and approved. Miss Talbot then stated the reason for the calling of the present meeting to decide what membership in the Union really is need to plan out a course of action for the Union. Mention was made by Miss Wheeler's kindness in devoting her attention to the decoration of the room and also of the generous response to our demand for money. Miss Talbot went on to mention the fact that the spirit of the Union must necessarily change slow formerly the lunch room was a great part of the spirit but now we keep the lunch room for all the women of the University not for members of the Union only. The course for the Union is to cooperate with the big movements of the day. No other women have such advantage as we to come into close contact with the broadest people and newest ideas of the day.

Miss Tauvin, Chairman of the Philadelfia committee briefly sketched the plan and work of that branch of the Union. Mention was made of settlement work and also a purpose to investigate the
In accordance with Mrs. Kelley's suggestion, Miss Harris mentioned her committee's purpose to cooperate with the Settlement League and 2nd to cooperate with the Consumer's League.

Plans were discussed for entertaining the settlement children and a motion was passed to the effect that the Philanthropy Committee hold themselves in readiness to confer with the League.

Mrs. Wheeler, Chairman of the Exhibition committee of the Municipal Art League, gave an interesting paper upon the work of the city and mentioned a way by which the Union might work with the Municipal Art League. A motion was made and passed to delegate the next to the Exhibition Committees, such a delegate to be a student appointed by the council.

The YWCA Club elected the members as Union officers, after which it was suggested that something might be done in behalf of the Chicago Orchestra. A committee of Miss McElvain, Miss Jaynes, and Miss Clowes was appointed to present the case to the members of the Union.

Miss Kamberlin, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, then stated her place... for the ensuing quarter. No social engagements were made. Ice tea was to be served daily at four o'clock in the Union.

Matters concerning the use of the Union rooms were then discussed. It was definitely decided that in cases of strange clubs seeking the use of the rooms the decision should rest with the House committee. Miss Bectonridge, chairman of the committee on membership, urged the necessity of increasing the membership of the Union.

The meeting adjourned.

Council Meeting of the Woman's Union held May 3rd at 4:30 P.M. at the Union.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Miss Momot's resignation was accepted with regret. Miss Ballow was nominated and elected as Vice-President in her stead while Mrs. Jackman was elected chairman of the lunch-room committee.

Financial matters were then discussed and though no regular report was given Miss Hardy asked for some about $70 in the treasurer. The question as to what proportion the lunch-room should pay the custodian and what proportion the union should pay was discussed and it was decided that the union pays $1.50.

Mrs. Jackman reported a balance of $100 in the treasury of the lunch-room. Out of this it was decided to repay Mrs. Talbot $15.70 which she had advanced to the union. A motion was then made to appropriate $100.00 to furnishing the room. The motion was seconded and passed.

The matter of the children's party was discussed and it was decided to appropriate 50c for this purpose while the chair was authorized to appoint an acting committee.
Miss Tauring reported concerning the candy factories and sales of the postal cards sent out by the philanthropic committee. She was authorized to prepare more cards for the summer quarter.

Miss Webber, as chairman of the committee, acknowledged the pledge of five dollars given by the Union for the orchestra fund.

Miss Chadwell then asked for suggestions of some special entertainment and many were given. It was decided to give an invitation to the Alumnae Association to hold their annual banquet at the Union. The meeting then adjourned.

Council meeting of the Woman's Union
June 1903

Plans were discussed for the coming quarter. It was moved & seconded & passed that the following persons be elected:

Mike Ballard, Chairman of the House Com.

Mrs. Howard, Treasurer
Mrs. Lucy Hammond, Chairman of the committee on membership.

These officers are to act during the summer quarter only.

An open reception was planned for June 25th, notices of which are to be placed at chapel and to be placed on the bulletin. The Union room is to be open to all members from 4 to 6 o'clock every afternoon.

Mrs. Doss C. Prentice was elected acting chairman of the hospitality committee and the meeting adjourns.

General meeting of the Union held Oct. 3rd, 1903, at the Union.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Miss Chamberlain then gave a sketch of what happened during the summer quarter—its entertainments, etc., with the Y.W.C.A. It was very successful during the first term, but the attendances were so poor at the beginning of the second term that the meetings were suspended.

Miss Jackson's report of the state of the lunch room was very favorable; a balance of $141.85 was in the Treasury. A motion was therefore made and passed to the effect that $35 be transferred to the Treasury of the Union. It was also moved, seconded and passed that $35.50 be appropriated for the purchase of stationery which Miss Talbot had provided and for which she had herself advanced the money.

Miss Hardy, the Treasurer, reported a balance of $890 in the Treasury. The purchase of lunches costing $10.40 was approved. It was suggested to Miss Talbot that the Union appropriate $20 toward the payment of the secretary of the Christian Endeavor. The motion was carried.

A general discussion followed this and the question of fruit bowls came up. China bowls, glass bowls and other bowls were landed in turn but the final decision was left to a committee consisting of Miss cellphone, Miss Weekes and Mrs. Powerful. The matter of "spreads" was then taken up. They caused unnecessary trouble for Miss Colley and at the same time caused some disturbance in the lunch room. It was decided to post a statement concerning the use of the lunch room and an additional lunch room committee was to be appointed by Miss Joynes who was chosen chairman.

Concerning the coming social events, Miss Chamberlin had no definite arrangements. It was decided, at this time, to make the children's party an annual function. The music Miss Treeword suggested a very pleasing place for entertaining. To decide the faceted ladies into groups according to the departments of their husbands was invited. The professors, their wives and the teachers interested in the special departments to predict an annual day. "Digs" and their merits were discussed and it was considered advisable to encourage these functions. Miss Graham and Miss Fair were selected as a committee to organize the rings. The meeting then adjourned.

Council meeting of the Woman's Union was held November 2nd, 1908. Those present were Miss Talbot, Miss Dudley, Miss Breckenridge and Miss Richardson. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Miss Lambe's and Miss Wiley resignation was accepted with much regret. Their services and assistance were deeply appreciated.

Miss Hale Woods done elected as chairman of the Hospitality committee while Miss Becker was elected chairman of the Philanthropic committee. Mrs. Price was elected chairman of the committee on music.

The matter of entertaining the Benton came up and was briefly discussed. It was decided that Miss Buckley and Miss Breckenridge make arrangements for the entertainment.

The resignation of Miss Richardson was accepted and Miss Ethel Parvin was elected secretary in her place. The meeting then adjourned.

Meeting of the Council of the Woman's Union
November 1903.

The Council of the Woman's Union met November 1903, in the Union Room, 15 Lexington Hall, with the following members in attendance: Misses Talbot, Breckinridge, Dudley, Woode, Becker, Jaymes.

The minutes of the last meeting not being at hand, the council proceeded to business.

Plans for the address to be given by Miss Julia Morlowe were discussed.

Moved by Miss Breckinridge, seconded by Miss Woode that each member be allowed two guests; amendment made to restrict such guests to persons not eligible to membership in the Union. Motion as amended carried. Moved by Miss Dudley, seconded by Miss Jaymes that inviting of special guests be left to a committee to be appointed by the chair. Motion carried. Moved by Miss Breckinridge, seconded by Miss Becker that the membership committee have charge of tickets, the hospitality committee of the reception, and the house committee of the Hall etc. Motion carried.

The Thanksgiving spread was next considered. It was voted to put it arrangements in the hands of a general chairman. Miss Marie Astrenger was elected, the position to be filled in case of vacancy, by Misses Dudley and Jaynes.

Plans for further social affairs led to a motion by Miss Dudley, seconded by Miss Buckminster, that there be a Christmas party and dance for members, in Heptonstall Hall, Friday evening, December Eighteen. Motion carried. The appointment of a chairman to manage such a party, was left to a committee of Misses Dudley, Woods, and Jaynes. Meeting was adjourned.

Ethel Jaynes, Secretary.

Council Meeting

Monday, Dec. 7, 1903

The council of the Woman's Union met at 4 P.M. with the following members present: Misses Talbot, Breckinridge, Dudley, Woods, Chamberlin, Becker. Mrs. Wood acted as temporary chairman secretary until Miss Jaynes came.

The minutes of the last meeting not being at hand, the council proceeded to business. Miss Dulan was elected to chairmanship of lunch room committee to take Mrs. Jackie's place.

Miss Chamberlin reported that Professor Clark would give, if the union so desired, under its auspices, a series of readings of Silas Marner. The general discussion which followed seemed to show that the plan was impracticable, in that the only hour available was 4 P.M., and the readings would necessarily be given on the five successive afternoons of a school week, so that it would be impossible for the students to attend regularly. The council decided to send word to Mr. Clark, through Miss Chamberlin, the appreciation of the Union of the privilege offered and their regret at not being able to make satisfactory arrangements.
Miss Robertson reported plans for the Christmas party. The Council voted an appropriation of twenty-five (25) dollars for expenses.

The date of the annual meeting was fixed for January twenty, 1904. The nominating committee was elected, consisting of Misses Newton, chairman, Helen Smith, and Coneloch.

The suggestion for an amendment to the constitution so as to increase the Council by the addition of the president of the Women's Athletic Association and the general secretary of the Women Student's Christian League was favored.

General discussion of the needs of the Union followed, but no definite action was taken, and the meeting adjourned.

Estel Jaynes,
Secretary.

Council Meeting Wednesday, Jan. 13, 1904

The council of the Woman's Union met at 5:15 P.M. in the Union Room, 15-Dexter Hall, with the following members present: Misses Talbot, Checkimridge, Hardy, Becker, Chamberlin, Dudley, Woods, Jaworski, Just, and Mrs. Jameson.

The minutes of previous meetings omitted for lack of time.

Suggestions to change the constitution, making the number of vice-presidents three instead of one, to give wider representation to student body, and striking out the committee on finance, were approved.

The secretary was instructed to authorize Miss Johnson to turn over to the treasurer, Miss Hardy, one hundred and fifty dollars ($150), from the lunch room funds. It was voted to appropriate one hundred dollars ($100) for use of house committee in furnishing and obtaining of periodicals.

The treasurer's report and that of the lunch room were ordered made up to January twenty, 1904.

Suggestions for change of time of election of officers, so that they may serve through the school year, were made, but action was postponed.
Motion to pay our fee to the Municipal Arts league was carried. Mrs. Belker was re-elected as representative to the league. The meeting adjourned.

General Meeting  January 20, 1904

The Woman's Union held its annual meeting, January 20, 1904, at 4 P.M. in the union room, 15 Lexington Hall.

The yearly reports were first called for. The secretary's report was read and accepted. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $126.94. One-hundred-and-twenty-six dollars and ninety-four cents.

The report of the finance committee not being at hand, a committee consisting of the executive officers was authorized to add to the treasurer's report that of the finance committee.

The reports of the several committees were read and accepted. They are given in detail in the appended reprints from the University Record.

Amendments to the constitution were next brought up, to the effect that the number of vice-presidents be changed from one to three, that the secretary of the Woman's Student Christian League, and the president of the Woman's Athletic Association be "ex officio" members of the council, and finally that the finance committee be discontinued.

A suggestion was made by Miss Beekman that the name of the Philanthropy Committee be changed, and that art work and music be put under a separate committee.
Under careful consideration, this division did not seem to meet the difficulty, the name "philanthropy" itself being thought inappropriate. Miss Breckinridge withdrew her suggestion to be presented at another time.
There was some discussion as to the probable need of the finance committee should the lunch-rooms be given up, but as the need could be met when felt, the amendments as stated were passed.
It was voted to leave the question of general amendment to the Council.

The nominating committee then gave their report. They said that it seemed necessary, in order that most efficient work might be done, that the officers be persons who are in residence and would not be likely to change. They had carefully considered this need in making the nomination
as follows:
Miss Talbot ............... President,
Miss Anne E. Allen ....... first vice-president,
Miss Lena D. Harris ...... second
Miss Verna Moyer ...... third
Miss Estel Jaynes .......... secretary.
Miss Anne Martin ......... treasurer.
Chairman of Committees:
Miss Gertrude Dudley ........ House Committee.
Miss Halle D. Woods ........ Hospitality.
Miss S. Breckinridge ........ Membership.
Miss Alice Selon Thompson .... Entertainment.
Miss Louise Larrabee ........ Music.
Miss Henrietta K. Becker ...... Philanthropy.
Miss Lula Just ............... Lunch room.

Miss Breckinridge desired to withdraw her name, not feeling that she was working efficiently enough in keeping the Union before non-members. Miss Dudley suggested that that work might be done by the member of the committee and Miss Breckinridge still be a member of the council where she is needed. The secretary was instructed to cast the ballot as given.

In order that more students might be in close touch with the work of the Union, it was suggested that a committee of students be appointed, independent of the council, to make recommendations to the council.

It was also thought advisable to have the organizations interested in Settlement work cooperate under the direction of Miss Warren so as to have a break in its work at the Settlement.

At the suggestion of the music committee, the new committee was authorized to subscribe for a musical journal, and to obtain music for the room. An appropriation of five dollars ($5) was made for this purpose.

A motion was next made to appropriate not less than twelve dollars ($12) for the purchase of pictures for the room. It was moved to refer the question to theLOWER COMMITTEE.

Miss M. Friend then moved to appropriate from four to eight dollars for the purchase of short pieces and vases for the room. Suggestions were made that books might be solicited from and lent by members, faculty, and others interested. It was moved to make such an appropriation, if be determined, and committed to theouncil.

It was voted to give the songs the union had had printed for use at the women's dinners at Hutchinson Hall.

The meeting was adjourned.

Ethel Jaynes,
Secretary.

Council meeting. January 27, 1904

The council of the Woman's Union met in the Union room, 15 Davenport Hall, at 4 P.M., Wednesday, January 27, 1904. The following members were present: Misses Salbot, Allen, Moyer, Martin, Jaynes, Breckinridge, Currabell, Becker, Thompson, Just, and Woods.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The chairmen of the several committees then presented the lists of the persons they had chosen for their respective committees. The lists, as approved, were as follows:

Members of Hospitality Committee:
- Miss Elizabeth Robertson
- Miss Nellie Fuller
- Miss Louada Newton
- Miss Jeannette Bates
- Miss Margaret Young
- Miss Lucinda Ripley

   Miss Jeannette Barter
   Miss Rosemary Jones
   S. L. Chamberlin

Member of Music Committee:
   Miss E. Robertson Miss Olivia Hanna
   " C. Fulton " Hilda Smith

Mr. J. F. Jameson.
The question of supplying books for the union room was then discussed. It was thought advisable to obtain as many books as possible as gifts, to be solicited from whomever the committee should see fit, and to supplement such books by purchases not to exceed five dollars ($5.00). A committee of five was elected for this purpose, with instructions, also, to submit a plan of caring for the books. The committee was elected as follows: Miss Helen Friend, chairman, Miss Ashleman, Miss Shouse, Miss Grace Reddy, and Mrs. Bechtel.

A motion was next made and carried to extend the use of the union room to the new committee on women’s buildings, to members of Beecher Hall, and to the settlement league for the third Tuesday in March. The question of using the room for a place of entertaining classes or departments was brought up. The council, feeling this to be a helpful activity, voted to give the room for such purposes providing three (instead of five) at most applying for the privilege be members of the union.

It was brought to the notice of the council that the room was being used by persons who were not members. The secretary and chairman of the membership committee were instructed to post rules on the use of the room, and also a list of members. There was some feeling, too, that there had been a tendency, lately, toward kinds of attitude and behavior in the Union room that were not arguing for the highest ideals that the Union should stand for. The council decided that the remedy for such difficulties had to come from a general disapproval of such actions, and constituted itself a sort of committee to help maintain a high standard.

The discussion was then turned to consideration of possibilities of a broader field of work for the Union. It was felt that inasmuch as the Union is intended to represent, in the broadest way possible, the life of the women at the university, it should be vitally connected with other women's organizations. The Union wants to include in its membership all women in the university in order that most efficient work may be done. Some who are members of other organizations, have fees to pay, are kept from becoming members because of the added fee. Why cannot the Union give such persons some consideration?
why, then, not make a general amendment to our constitution so as to take into account open organizations, i.e. those whose constitution object of violence, and basis of membership is public. The question then arose as to how the several "Houses" should be regarded. It was voted to relegate the whole question to a committee consisting of Miss Yalbot, the President of the Union, as Chairman, the Treasurer, and Chairman of the House Committee. The committee was to confer with the president and secretaries of each open organization, and the report of the committee presented to and considered by the council before the matter be laid before the Union as large.

The Chairman of the Membership Committee was authorized to secure reprints from the University Record of the Union reports for the year, and to send a circular and such reports to non-members.

Plans for entertainment for February and March were taken up. The accompanying printed program shows plans as perfected.

The meeting adjourned.

Estel Jaynes,
Secretary.

Council Meeting.

February 11, 1904.

The Council of the Woman's Union met in the Union room, 15 Lexington Hall, February 11, 1904, at 4 P.M. with the following members present: Misses Talbot, Moyer, Harris, Jaynes, Martin, Dudley, Breckinridge, Woods, Hillman, Thompson, Narrabee, and Ottnayr.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

It was decided to have the persons who use the room at tea-time register, the house committee to have charge of the registration. This measure was taken to guard against the use of the room by non-members, and to serve as a record for reference.

The committee on books reported that some money had been used to obtain racks for the safe keeping of the book. The Council did not feel justified in authorizing the use of money appropriated for books for the purchase of furnishings. The matter was referred to the house committee.

It was proposed that the Union offer to cooperate with the Christian Union to further religious movements in whatever way the Christian Union might desire. It was moved that the secretary communicate with the Christian Union offering to cooperate.
and that Miss Lucretia Ripley be named to receive any communications the Union might see fit to make, with power to associate with herself any she may wish.

The conference elected to consider the advisability of uniting the women's organizations reported unfavorably. The purpose of the movement was perhaps misunderstood, so that it did not seem expedient to extend the representation of the other organizations on the council to other than the Young Women's Christian League and the Women's Athletic Association.

The secretary was authorized to send to members a statement of the work of the several committees, enclosing a return postal on which each member might state under which committee she would prefer to serve.

It was voted to make the meeting of the week following, an open meeting.

The meeting adjourned.

General Meeting.

March 16, 1904

A general meeting of the Woman's Union was held March 16, 1904 in the Union room, 15 Lexington Hall, at 4 P.M. to consider plans for the future.

The secretary's report of the last general meeting was read and accepted.

The reports of the committees were then given. The music committee stated its intention of purchasing a book of college songs when an appropriate one should be found, the rest of the money appropriated for its use being spent in getting some songs lately written. The "songs," the committee felt, were not as well attended as they should be.

The book committee reported that request made of professor for books were very pleasantly replied to and that a number of books had been obtained.

The settlement work was reported as progressing very satisfactorily. Settlement Children's Day was considered, and it was decided to ask the settlement league to cooperate with the union to entertain the children at the university. The feeling was expressed that we should be in closer touch with the settlement.
In this connection it was voted that the Union assist Miss Breckinridge in the entertainment of the Settlement Women's Club.

The entertainment of the high school girls was then discussed and names of members of the Union who had come from the various schools, taken. Miss Elizabeth Paulkne was elected chairman of arrangements. The meeting stood adjourned.

Council Meeting

April 6, 1904

The Council of the Woman's Union met April 6, 1904, in the Union room, 15 Lexington Hall, at 3:15 P.M. with the following members present: Misses Talbot, Allen, Moyer, Harris, Jaynes, Martin, Breckinridge, Buckley, Thompson, Becker, Woods, and Stillman. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Miss Breckinridge asked the council's approval of her action in arranging for the reception at the Union of the members of the Baptist Union who held a session at the University. Accounts were given of the success of the reception—the crowded rooms and the joy of many an elderly lady at the sight of a chair and a cup of tea. The Council heartily approved the action.

Various reports were then given. The treasurer reported a balance of $90.05 and from the lunch-room $94.71.

The chairman of the entertainment committee gave an interesting program for the quarter, and it was voted to send printed programs to members.

The art committee had arranged for days to visit the Art Institute, when informal talks would be given by artists. Miss Becker resigned as representative to the Municipal Art League, and it was left with her to appoint one of three to take the place—Miss Duncan, Miss Ripley, or Miss Witwer. The Philanthropy Committee asked a small appropriation to meet incidental expenses in connection with settlement work. Five dollars was voted for that purpose.

A note from President Warner & Miss Talbot was then read, in which he requested the Union to take up the matter of the Lexington Hall library, to see what could be done to care for it. On discussing the matter, the council seemed to feel that that library should be handled as all other public libraries of the university, that the Union could not assume control, could not pay an attendant. Suggestions were made that to save expenses some student of Miss Warren's might be given the task of cataloguing as a part of their work, and that the books be locked up. Miss Talbot was instructed to give such suggestions in her reply but to state that the Union felt that it be outside its present work.

It was voted to give the use of the lumber belonging to the kitchen to the peddling class. The matter of appointing such use caused some discussion for great care has to be taken as to the nature of the entertainments given in Lexington Hall, and to the use to be made of the kitchen.

It was reported that the symphony fund, given in behalf of the Thomas concerts, had not been raised. The council voted to pay from the Union treasury the five dollars ($5) pledged. The meeting was adjourned.

Council Meeting. May 2, 1904.

The Council of the Woman's Union met May 2, 1904 in the Union room, 15 Defington Hall, at 4:30 P.M. with the following members present: Misses Talbot, Allen, Jaydes, Dudley, Woods, Becker, and Hillman.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

The report of the book committee was read and accepted and the thanks of the Union extended for the work done. It was voted to give the books which would be of little use in the room to be disposed of by Miss Breckinridge. The care of the books was given into the hands of the Home committee, which was to be furnished with a list by Miss Friend.

The proposition made by Miss Bidwell that the Union help toward the support of the girls' school in Spain was referred to a special committee to consist of the chairman of the Philanthropy Committee, the treasurer, and secretary of the Union. This committee is to consider the use to be made of a possible balance in the treasury in the fall. It was suggested that this committee consider carefully the question of doing for others outside the University to conquer the selfish spirit that is apt to prevail.
Plans were discussed for settlement of Children's Day. Miss Watkins was chosen chairman of the day. Also the entertainment of the high school girls also received consideration. Miss Faulkner was unable to accept the chairmanship and Miss Lucy Hammond was elected.

The Union was invited to manage a booth at the Quadrangle Fete to be given by the Young Women's Christian League on May twenty-eighth. The Council accepted the invitation and elected a committee to take charge: Miss Epstein, chairman, Miss Ethel Lyon, Miss Jaynes. An appropriation of two dollars ($2) was made for expenses.

The Chairman of the House committee reported on the use made of the previous appropriation of one-hundred dollars ($100), and suggested that stationary be kept in the room under the care of the secretary. The suggestion was approved.

The matter of the loss of things from the room was discussed, and a committee consisting of the president, chairman of the house-committee and the secretary appointed to investigate.

The meeting adjourned.

Council Meeting.

June 8, 1904.

The Council of the Woman's Union met June 8, 1904, in the Union room, 15 Lexington Hall, at 4 P. M. with the following members present: the Misses Talbot, Allen, Harris, Jaynes, Martin, Dudley, Becker, Woods.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The lunch room committee reported, a balance including all outstanding bills; not yet received, but payable, $162.25.

Miss Talbot reported that there was immediate need for the support of the Union in behalf of the girls' school in Spain, and that if the Union would appropriate half of the twenty-five dollars ($25) requisite to obtain a college membership, the other half would be met. The Council, accordingly, appropriated twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50).

Miss Jaynes gave the report from the quadraugle field, the Union having cleared twelve dollars and fifty-three cents ($12.53)

Miss Viall was elected to represent the Union at Lake Geneva, Miss Cogan alternate.

A vote of thanks was extended to the committee for their efficient work.

The question of the advisability of retaining
The lunch room in Lexington Hall was then brought up. In that Hutchinson Hall is to be open to the women during the summer, and luncheon is served at the School of Education, there was doubt expressed by President Harper as to the expediency of another lunching hall. The feeling of the council was very nearly unanimous for the retention of such a lunch room whether under university or woman's union control. Miss Talbot was authorized to make the following statement of the opinion of the council: The lunch room in Lexington Hall should be maintained as it is at present (i.e. it is to serve a light luncheon so that there will be no competition with Hutchinson Hall) because (1) it fills a place in the social life of the women that neither Hutchinson Hall nor the School of Education can, (2) there is call from time to time for light catering for affairs in Lexington Hall, and (3) it is expedient that a woman custodian be in charge of the hall.

Upon the resignation of Miss Jayne as secretary, Miss Anne Martin was elected temporary secretary for the summer, Miss Allison for next year.
and Miss Ripley alternate in case Miss Allison could not accept.
Miss Gladys Gaylord was elected second vice-president to take Miss Harris' place.
It was left to the President to appoint the chairman of the lunch-room committee for the summer.
Miss Ballou was elected chairman of the house-committee during Miss Dudley's absence.
Mrs. F. W. Becker will act as president for the summer.
It was voted to give a general reception to summer students on Wednesday, June twenty-second, from 7 to 8:30 P.M.
Miss Woods and Miss Harris were elected to take charge.
The membership committee was authorized to send circulars and return envelopes to incoming senior students. The accompanying letter from the Christian Union was read.
It was moved to serve light refreshments on Convocation Day.
The meeting stood adjourned.

In reply to the Letter addressed to the Board of the Christian Union by the Womans Union of the University.

The Board of the Christian Union received the letter addressed to it by the Womans Union with much satisfaction and have given it careful consideration. While the Board does not see at present any way whereby the Union can, in its organized capacity, cooperate in the strictly religious activities of the University as now organized, it wishes at the same time to acknowledge gratefully the letter of the Womans Union. Further, the Board of the Christian Union wishes to bespeak the continued and direct cooperation of the members of the Womans Union with the various forms of religious activity as at present organized. This Board will be very glad to feel at liberty to invite additional cooperation in religious work as occasion may demand, and to receive at any time from the Womans Union suggestions touching the religious life of the University.

The Council met in the Union Room, 15 South Halsted Street, Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1904. The following members were present: the Misses Talbot, Breckinridge, Hillman, Martin, Larrabee, Thompson, and Taylor.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Miss Martin and approved.

On the motion of Miss Talbot, which was seconded and approved, Miss Martin, the treasurer of the Union, was authorized to ask Miss Ruth E. Johnson to transfer the funds of the lunch room to the account of the treasurer of the Woman's Union.

On the motion of Miss Breckinridge, seconded by Miss Taylor, Mrs. Bigelow was elected chairwoman of the Committee on Hospitality.

Miss Martin's motion, that the Union Room be opened Sunday mornings under competent caretakers, as a creche was seconded and carried.

Mrs. Merriam, nominated by Miss Breckinridge and seconded by Miss Larrabee, was elected the head of the Sunday morning creche.
Next the report of Miss Thompson, chairman of the committee on entertainment was heard. Entertainers for the Wednesday afternoon's of the quarter had been provided. She suggested that her committee be enlarged.

Miss Sarrabee, chairman of the committee on Music gave a report. The attempts at noon hour singing were not successful. Miss Sarrabee suggested that certain afternoons be given up to the singing of college songs.

Miss Sullivan was elected the chairman of the Committee on Books with authority to appoint her own committee.

The appropriation of five thousand dollars for the expenses of the Children's party was approved.

After this, Miss Shirley Farr was nominated and elected as the chairman on the committee for the Thanksgiving party, with authority to appoint her own committee.

The meeting then adjourned.

Meeting of the Council of the Woman's Union
Wednesday, November 23, 1904

The Council met in the room of the Union, 15 Defington Hall with the following members present: Miss Salbot, Miss Breckinridge, Miss Dudley, Miss Martin, Miss Galyford and Miss Taylor.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Miss Breckinridge reported that on the previous Sunday no children were brought to the creche. In spite of this fact that it was best to have some one in charge Sunday mornings. During the summer the creche was kept busy.

Miss Salbot gave the report of the treasurer which showed $171.00 for dues and about $330.00 for expenses. However dues of the coming year were soon expected and there was printing on hand. In connection with this report it was announced that there were sixty two members less this year than last.

Miss Dudley then, was authorized to send for the catalogues for magazines and to renew the subscriptions.

It was moved by Miss Breckinridge and seconded by Miss Dudley that fifteen copies of Miss Culton's new song book be purchased for the Union

Miss Dudley, chairman of the house committee, reported that plates, cups, bowls, teapots, and some silver had been kept from the luncheon room for the Union in order to save the renting of such dishes. For the remaining kettles, etc., ten dollars had been received. The report was approved and accepted.

The secretary was authorized to thank Miss Maud Adams for the gift of a dozen American Beauty roses to the Union.

Next, the motion of Miss Dudley, seconded by Miss Talbot, that the use of the Union room be given to the ladies of

A.M. from nine thirty to six A.M. was approved.

A letter from Dr. Parker, the secretary of the Christian Union, was read announcing that the Union was included in the Christian Union and that its president and secretary were considered ex officio members of the Board of the Christian Union. It stated as well that seats would be reserved at the Sunday morning services for those members of the Union who desired it.
The question of renting the piano for practice was brought up next. Miss Ouskinridge was authorized to make arrangements with Miss Tanda, who wished to rent the use of it. It was also thought best that the rent which the Union has paid pay for its piano should from the present $90 toward payment for its price.

Miss Dudley was authorized to send the fern away to the florists for repotting.

The question of entertainment was then taken up. It was suggested that some one of the following persons be asked to address the Union: Mrs. Geisler, Mrs. Dwyne, Mrs. Skinner, Mr. Gillet. Miss Talbot was authorized to speak to Mrs. Meade asking her to speak under the auspices of the Union in behalf of the Peace Conference. The secretary was authorized to ask the girls of the freshman Debating Club to debate before the Union Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1905.

The meeting then adjourned.

Approved.
CHICAGO     November 30, 1904.

My dear Miss Talbot:—

The Board of the Christian Union decided at its meeting Friday, November 26, that the Woman's Union is properly a religious society and as such entitled to be represented by its President and Secretary upon the Board of the Christian Union. Will you kindly send me the names of these officers that they may be put upon the roll as members, ex officio, of the Board of the Christian Union?

Yours truly,

Recorder.
Meeting of the Council of the Woman's Union Thursday, December 8, 1904.

The Council of the Woman's Union met in Room 15, Lexington Hall, Thursday, December 8, 1904. At this meeting there were present Misses Talbot, Martin, Dudley, Farr, Taylor and Mrs. Bigelow.

Miss Talbot recommended that the Union invite the Alumnae Association of Chicago to hold such quarterly meetings as they might wish, in the room of the Union. The motion was put, seconded and unanimously carried.

Mrs. Bigelow presented her resignation from all committees. Her resignation from all committees except from that on the Municipal Art League was reluctantly accepted. Mrs. Bigelow suggested as her successor Miss Helen A. Stock, who was unanimously elected by the council to serve for the rest of Mrs. Bigelow's term.

The question of closing Lexington Hall was considered but when Miss Dudley decided that such closing would be a hardship for the gymdown girls, the matter was dropped.

The plans of the Union for the following year were lightly touched upon—The Athletic Fete, the entertainment of the High School girls of Chicago. and the entertainment of the children of the settlement. As the work of the Union seemed to run along co-operative lines, it was thought best for the Union to cooperate with the Athletic Association in its Festival. Miss Emily Johnston was made the Union's representative to the Athletic Association.

Next on consideration came the Quadrangle Fête in the Spring in which the Union was to represent Scotland. Miss Viol was made chairman on the committee for this fête with power to choose her committee.

Then Miss Buecker was chosen chairman of the committee on entertainment of the children of the settlement. To this committee were elected: Mary Bassett, June Summer, Elizaborth Markley, Bertha Fof, Helda Smith, Genevieve Sillivan and Mrs. Lunn.

Miss Florence Elliott was elected chairman on the committee on entertainment of High-school girls with power to appoint her own committee.

The announcement then was made that Miss Ransom would address the Union at one of its meetings on Egyptian Furniture.

Constitution of the Woman’s Union

Name  The name of this organization shall be The Woman’s Union of the University of Chicago.

Object  The object of this organization shall be to unite the women of the University for the promotion of their common interests.

Membership  The members shall be of two classes, regular and honorary.

The privileges of regular membership shall be open to the following classes:

1. Women students registered in any department of the University.
2. Women members of the faculty, women officers, and women in the employ of the University.
3. Women members of the families of trustees, faculty, and officers of the University.
4. Wives of registered students.
5. Alumnae of the University.

Honorary membership may be conferred by unanimous vote of the Union upon recommendation of the Membership Committee. Honorary members shall have all the privileges of regular membership, and shall be exempt from the payment of fees.

Officers  The business of the Union shall be conducted by a Council, consisting of a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, and a house committee of seven members. The Council shall be elected by the Union at its annual meeting, and shall fill any vacancies occurring in its membership. The president, treasurer, and chairman of the House Committee shall be considered the executive officers of the Union, with power to approve all bills, and to direct the affairs of the Union in the interim of the meetings of the Council. The members of the House Committee, other than the chairman, shall serve as chairmen of committees on membership, finance, entertainment, philanthropy, hospitality, and lunch room. These committees shall be chosen by the Council on nomination by their respective chairmen.

1. The duties of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the Union and of the Council.
2. In the absence of the president, the vice-president shall perform her duties.
3. The duties of the secretary shall be to keep the records of the meetings of the Union and of the Council, to send out notices, and to carry on such correspondence as shall be entrusted to her.
4. The duties of the treasurer shall be to receive and to disburse all moneys belonging to the Union, to collect the dues, to keep a record of the accounts, and to make a quarterly report to the Council and an annual report to the Union.

The membership fee shall be fifty cents a quarter, or one dollar a year.

The annual meeting of the Union shall be held during the third week of the winter quarter.

Special meetings of the Union may be called by the secretary at the request of the president, the chairman of the House Committee, or three members of the Union.

At any annual or special meeting of the Union twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum.

Amendments to this constitution may be adopted at any meeting of the Union, the proposed amendment having been included in the notice calling the meeting for its consideration.
