The University of Chicago

Members of The Womans Union.

It was with a keen appreciation of your confidence in me—a confidence much misplaced I am sure—that I read the letter of your secretary, telling me of my election as president. I realize full well that I am incompetent to fill the position, and feel that I must at this time hand in my resignation. I thank you for the honor you gave to me, and desire to express to Miss Talbot my gratitude to her for assuming the responsibility of the organization since its last meeting.

Union into the care of the University Commons. With this change the Lunch-Room Committee was found to be no longer necessary.

The magazines for the reading table have arrived with great regularity and have covered every inch of the table. To make room for the new magazines and to provide for the disposal of the old ones, Miss Genevieve Sullivan was, on November 11, 1904, elected chairman of the Committee of Books.

During the past year the members have always found the room of the Union a pleasant place for resting, reading, or studying, and have never been disappointed by the failure of the tea-urn to appear at the appointed hour. Wednesday afternoons have brought many opportunities for social enjoyment, which is bringing the members of the Union into closer friendship.

But, as will be seen from the reports of the chairman of the various committees, the Union has worked not only along social lines; it has engaged in religious and philanthropic activities as well. In a religious way, the Union has cooperated as far as possible with the Young Women's Christian Union, which is now included in the Christian Union, its president and chairmen, and the untiring energy of the chairman of the Membership Committee, is due the success of this organization.

REPORT OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

The report of the House Committee was presented by the chairman, Miss Gertrude Dudley:

At the time the Union was organized the constitution defined the House Committee as a committee consisting of the chairman of the various subcommittees, and the chairman of the House Committee was supposed to have general oversight of all the work. As the work has developed, the subchairmen have taken more and more interest in making out a satisfactory policy for their various committees. Their reports give the detail work. To these subcommittees, and the chairman of the House Committee, the word of the Finance Committee, the satisfaction of the students, at the same time having due consideration for the Finance Committee; but the Union was developing a plan which was satisfactory to both.

In November the University decided to have all the food problems under one management, and the Union Council was given the task of developing a plan which was to be adopted.

An important work for the Union in its early days was to provide a suitable and attractive place for students to take luncheon. For a time it was a problem to serve luncheon to the satisfaction of the students, at the same time having due consideration for the Finance Committee; but the Union was developing a plan which was satisfactory to both. without the committee procured the services of different girls to give several impromptu numbers at the weekly evening lecture at the O'Toole School. On one Wednesday in the Winter Quarter the Faculty ladies gave us a very enjoyable and interesting musical afternoon. The committee also provided music for singing and dancing at the different banquets and entertainments given by the Union. In the Spring Quarter the committee had about twenty copies of five or six college songs printed, and these have been used on several occasions. Also fifteen copies of the new Chicago songbook were purchased for the Union room.

THE COMMITTEE ON HOSPITALITY

The report of the Committee on Hospitality was presented by the chairman, Mrs. H. A. Bigelow.

The work of the Hospitality Committee in the past Quarter has been much the same as that of last year. The endeavor has been made to have, on Wednesday afternoons, the wife of a member of the Faculty preside at the tea-table, with two members to assist her. This has seemed to bring to students and to Faculty members alike that personal association which was lacking in the past and which was felt to be one of the "needs."

The plan of appointing a hostess for every afternoon has been much discussed, and two members have been ready to pour tea every Tuesday and Thursday. It has been somewhat difficult to arrange for Mondays and Fridays, the one seeming to be a day when members are too busy to drop in for a cup of tea; the other, a time when we all seem to wish to be free from every care, even so pleasant a one as drinking or pouring tea.

THE PHILANTHROPIC COMMITTEE

The work of the Philanthropic Committee was reported by Miss Henrietta K. Becker, as follows:

1. Settlement work.—The Settlement Association—a joint committee of those interested in settlement work from the Women's Union, the Christian League, the Young Men's Christian Association, and the men's and women's halls—was formed January 26, 1904; chairman, Louisa Warren; secretary, Lucy Watkins. Under the auspices of this association, workers were furnished for Settlement visiting, and instructors for library work, and for census-taking to assist in carrying out the compulsory school law.

2. Committee for visiting the sick.—Chairman, Miss Anne Martin. It is most desirable that all University women assist in this work by sending to the chairman the address of anyone ill or in distress. Through the efforts of this committee sympathy and aid are extended to all women who are in need of them, as far as they can be reached.

3. Art committee.—Its object is the stimulation of the aesthetic interests in the Union. About twenty-five members were enrolled, and visits to galleries and studios, and addresses by artists and art critics, were arranged. Mrs. Bigelow was made a delegate to the Municipal Art League of Chicago in place of Miss Becker, who resigned.

4. Committee on Consumers' League.—An exhibit of Consumers' League products was given in the Union room on October 26 to disseminate knowledge and stimulate interest concerning the aims of this organization for the protection of working women.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Union was held in the room of the Union, Lexington Hall, on January 18, 1905. The following were elected officers for the year 1905:

President — Miss Marion Talbot.

Vice-Presidents — First, Miss Anne E. Allen; Second, Miss Sophonisba P. Breckinridge; Third, Miss Shirley Farr.

Secretary — Miss Clara H. Taylor.

Treasurer — Miss Anne H. Martin.

Chairmen of committees — House, Miss Gertrude Dudley; Hospitality, Mrs. H. A. Bigelow; Membership, Miss Gladys E. Gaylord; Entertainment, Miss Vivian B. Small; Music, Miss Louise G. Larrabee; Philanthropy, Miss Henrietta K. Becker.

The secretary of the Union, Miss Clara H. Taylor, submitted the following report for the year 1904:

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

During the past year the Council of the Woman's Union has held ten meetings, two of which were general meetings, open to all members of the organization. The last annual meeting was held January 20, 1904, at which the following officers were elected:

President — Miss Marion Talbot.

Vice-Presidents — First, Miss Anne E. Allen; Second, Miss Lena D. Harris; Third, Miss Verna Moyer.

Secretary — Miss Ethel Jaynes.

Treasurer — Miss Anne H. Martin.

Chairmen of committees — House, Miss Gertrude Dudley; Hospitality, Miss Halle D. Woods; Membership, Miss Sophonisba P. Breckinridge; Entertainment, Miss Alice S. Thompson; Music, Miss Louise Larrabee; Philanthropy, Miss Henrietta K. Becker; Lunch-room, Miss Lulu Just.

At this meeting it was decided that the president of the Woman's Athletic Association and the general secretary of the Young Woman's Christian League be made ex officio members of the Council of the Union. These were, respectively, Miss Marie Ortmayer and Miss Ada B. Hillman. The constitution was amended also by making provision for three vice-presidents instead of one.

The following changes in officers have occurred during the year:

Miss Harris, second vice-president, resigned, and on June 8, 1904, Miss Gladys E. Gaylord was elected to fill the vacancy.

Miss Ethel Jaynes, the secretary, presented her resignation, and on June 8, 1904, Miss Anne Martin was elected temporary secretary for the Summer Quarter. Miss Clara H. Taylor was elected October 4, 1904. Miss Halle D. Woods resigned as chairman of the Committee on Hospitality, and on November 11, 1904, Mrs. H. A. Bigelow was elected to fill the office.

During the year the management of the lunchroom has passed from the hands of the Woman's...
Union into the care of the University Commons. With this change the Lunch-Room Committee was found to be no longer necessary. The magazines for the reading table have arrived with great regularity and have covered every inch of the table. To make room for the new magazines and to provide for the disposal of the old ones, Miss Genevieve Sullivan was, on November 11, 1904, elected chairman of the Committee of Books.

During the past year the members have always found the room of the Union a pleasant place for resting, reading, or studying, and have never been disappointed by the failure of the tea-urn to appear at the appointed hour. Wednesday afternoons have brought many opportunities for social enjoyment, which is bringing the members of the Union into closer friendship.

But, as will be seen from the reports of the chairmen of the various committees, the Union has worked not only along social lines; it has engaged in religious and philanthropic activities as well. In a religious way, the Union has cooperated as far as possible with the Young Women's Christian League, whose general secretary is an ex-officio member of the council of the Union. At the quadrangle fête, May 28, 1904, the Union conducted a booth under the management of Miss Epstein, Miss Lyon, and Miss Jaynes.

The Union had expressed a desire to cooperate with the Christian Union and is now included in the Christian Union, its president and secretary being ex-officio members of the board of the latter organization.

REPORT OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

The report of the House Committee was presented by the chairman, Miss Gertrude Dudley: At the time the Union was organized the constitution defined the House Committee as a committee consisting of the chairman of the various subcommittees, and the chairman of the House Committee was supposed to have general oversight of all the work. As the work has developed, the subchairmen have taken more and more interest in making out a satisfactory policy for their various committees. Their reports give the detail work. To these subchairmen, and the uniring energy of the president and chairmen of the Membership Committee, is due the success of this organization. Only the general work will be mentioned in this report.

By order of the Council last January the treasurer paid to the chairman of the House Committee one hundred dollars to be used for the room. Thirty-five dollars were immediately spent for annual subscriptions to magazines.

The Music Committee of the Woman's Union has spent $175.75 for annual subscriptions to magazines. The work of the Entertainment Committee has been almost entirely confined to providing brief programs for Wednesday afternoons, and this work and the programs have been as follows:

FEBRUARY: 1. Informal address by Mrs. Bingham—"Place of Art in Student Life."
of 1904 the committee procured the services of different girls to give several musical numbers at the weekly evening lecture at the O'Toole School. On one Wednesday in the Winter Quarter the Faculty ladies gave us a very enjoyable and interesting musical afternoon. The committee also provided music for singing and dancing at the different banquets and entertainments given by the Union. In the Spring Quarter the committee had about twenty copies of five or six college songs printed, and these have been used on several occasions. Also fifteen copies of the new Chicago songbook were purchased for the Union room.

THE COMMITTEE ON HOSPITALITY

The report of the Committee on Hospitality was presented by the chairman, Mrs. H. A. Bigelow.

The work of the Hospitality Committee in the past Quarter has been much the same as that of last year. The endeavor has been made to have, on Wednesday afternoons, the wife of a member of the Faculty preside at the teatable, with two members to assist her. This has seemed to bring to students and to Faculty members alike that personal association which was lacking in the past and which was felt to be one of the "needs."

The plan of appointing a hostess for every afternoon has been much discussed, and two members have been ready to pour tea every Tuesday and Thursday. It has been somewhat difficult to arrange for Mondays and Fridays, the one seeming to be a day when members are too busy to drop in for a cup of tea; the other, a time when we all seem to wish to be free from every care, even so pleasant a one as drinking or pouring tea.

THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The chairman of the Membership Committee, Miss S. P. Breckinridge, reported the membership as follows:

THE PHILANTHROPIC COMMITTEE

The work of the Philanthropic Committee was reported by Miss Henrietta K. Becker, as follows:

1. Settlement work.—The Settlement Association—a joint committee of those interested in settlement work from the Women's Union, the Christian League, the Young Men's Christian Association, and the men's and women's halls—was formed January 26, 1904; chairman, Louisa Warren; secretary, Lucy Watkins. Under the auspices of this association, workers were furnished for Settlement visiting, and instructors for library work, and for census-taking to assist in carrying out the compulsory school law.

2. Committee for visiting the sick.—Chairman, Miss Anne Martin. It is most desirable that all University women assist in this work by sending to the chairman the address of anyone ill or in distress. Through the efforts of this committee sympathy and aid are extended to all women who are in need of them, as far as they can be reached.

3. Art committee.—Its object is the stimulation of the aesthetic interests in the Union. About twenty-five members were enrolled, and visits to galleries and studios, and addresses by artists and art critics, were arranged. Mrs. Bigelow was made a delegate to the Municipal Art League of Chicago in place of Miss Becker, who resigned.

4. Committee on Consumers' League.—An exhibit of Consumers' League products was given in the Union room on October 26 to disseminate knowledge and stimulate interest concerning the aims of this organization for the protection of working women.
Council Meeting, March 1, 1905, Room 15, Lexington Hall.

At this meeting there were present the Misses Talbot, Breckinridge, Farr, Larrabee, Becker, Dudley, Mrs. Bigelow, and Miss Taylor.

The first question discussed was whether the reception to Mrs. Fanny Bloomfield Zeisler, to be given in the Spring should be open to all students of the University or to members of the Union only. After long deliberation it was decided that the reception be open to all women of the University and their friends.

Miss Larrabee then moved and her motion was seconded by Miss Dudley that the piano be tuned before the reception, so that the Girli Glee Club might use it in singing college songs for Mrs. Zeisler. The motion was unanimously carried.

An account of a misunderstanding, a new committee on the entertainment of Mrs. Zeisler had to be elected. As this committee were placed, Mrs. Bigelow, Miss Dudley, and Miss Larrabee.

Then it was unanimously agreed that notices of the reception be sent to the Maroon.

After this the Secretary of the Union was authorized to ask the Municipal Art League to renew the membership ticket of the Union and to pay the dues when they should fall due.

Clara H. Taylor,
Secretary.

SECRETARY

6034 Inglewood Avenue,
Tuesday

Dear Miss Talbot:

I am not free of your office house very often so I am writing this note. I am enclosing a short report of the Union Art Committee for 1908 and the membership ticket in the Municipal Art League. I remember that Miss Martin was always very particular about having it as a receipt. This will end the Union's real connection. with the League but I shall be very glad to keep up a formal one by continuing the dues. I think it would be nice for me to get together groups of the girls to go on some of the more interesting excursions the League will have in the spring.

And then I want to tell you about the Wellesley fellowship. Miss Talbot. I am sending my application this afternoon. I have wanted to very much to ask you to write a note for me to Miss Hazard— but I really didn't dare to bother you. It took all my courage I could screw up to ask Miss Brecknridge for I know how busy she always is. But if you would write me one I can't tell you how delighted I should be. In fact I should be absolutely satisfied then with my last 1 letters.

Most sincerely yours—

Lucy D. Driscoll
