Your Sir

from what I find to day about business to come on soon - it will be prudent least We afford any retaliation to omit Names - & in that letter I sent you yesterday. to put instead of Great Lords Name at length the Words - his noble Friend. pray make this alteration & don't let of Letter go in my hand. for it may be known - but get it copied, if y^r. letter be gone send for it back & return it with the above alteration

You ^{have} seen a most shameful letter about 9 officers in of British Chronicle of 12th Sept. to which I send you this answer & beg you'll get it fairly copied over and inserted in that Paper - The Daily Gazetteer & London Evening Post & Ledger or London Chronicle I shall trouble you soon with ~~some~~ ^{rather} something further.

I wish you could spare time to come down here for two or three Days or a week. & bring a Horse or two with you & y^r Gun if you don't love hunting y^r faithful & obed

Sir

I am much obliged to you for of Trouble you have taken to get what I sent well copied & inserted. I must now trouble you with another in Defense of our Norfolk Instructions which have been much attack'd.

I beg you will get this well copied & sent to J. Ledger, Daily Gazetteer Chronicle & London Evening & particularly of Whitehall Evening Post.

Mark that what those Lines with black lines under them should be in Italics.

I'm sorry you could not find time to come down, I hope all goes on well ~~Lady~~ in Town. Lady James has been indisposed but thank God, not much, We have intolerable bad wether, as uncertain & Stormy as the times themselves. ~~is flying from both,~~ & he that flies from either does equally become more tender and incapable of supporting them
