

WHITMAN, WALT[ER] (1819-1892)

American Poet

Autograph Manuscript, fragment no place or date indicated

Octavo (8vo.), one (1) page

I knew ~~th~~ well that I wealth & genius saw the true greatness / of America concentrated in the camps. It was not in the populous & wealthy cities with all the wealth of their banks & storehouses nor in the countless ships coming & going - nor in the colleges or libraries either. But in those well-worn boys, strong & fresh & at

for Men

I knew ~~it~~ well that I saw the ^{health & genius} true greatness of America concentrated in
the camps. It was not
in the populous & wealthy
cities, with all the wealth in their banks & storehouses, nor in the countless ships, coin & gold - nor
in the colleges or libraries either. But in ^{but} these
well-worn boys, strong & brave & sturdy.