To the Passengers on this Train.

This will introduce you to

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Wilson, who have just been united in the Holy bonds of matrimony, and who are starting on life’s journey this 2nd day of November, 1899.

They will be pleased to make your acquaintance and any advice you may give will be thoroughly appreciated.

P. S.—You will recognize them as the smiling pair, with rice in their hair.

Respectfully submitted,

“Committee on Arrangements.”
