WE'RE GOING OVER

The major wrote the chorus but he fell down on the verse,
The colonel tried to write it but he only made it worse;
They called in Captain Cuttle but he missed it by a mile,
So they left it to the Sergeant of the file.
Said he, "We need no verse at all to this here little thing."
So they went and taught the Sammies how to sing:—

CHORUS.

We're going over, we're going over,
They want to settle up the fuss,
And they put it up to us.
So what do we care, so what do we care
We'll go sailing 'cross the foam;
And we'll show them what the Yankee Doodle
boys can do,
Then we'll all come marching home.

The boys all sang the chorus to the leader of the band,
He taught his men to play it and it sounded mighty grand;
Said he, "I'll write a part in for the fellow with the drum
So the boys in France can hear us when we come."
The orders came next morning and they yelled, "We're on our way"
And they sang as they went sailing down the bay:—Cho.

SONGS OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

Issued by the Commissions on Training Camp Activities of the Army and Navy Departments.

1. THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.

(B flat.)

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro’ the clouds of the fight,
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro’ the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freedmen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war’s desolation;
Blest with vict’ry and peace, may the heav’n-rescued land
Praise the Pow’r that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: “In God is our trust!”
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
2. AMERICA.

(My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrims' pride!
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templ'd hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break—
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

3. BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC.

(Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaming lamps;
His day is marching on.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

He hath sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sitting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat.
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be vigilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.
4. THE RED, WHITE, AND BLUE.

(A flat.)

O Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee.
Thy mandates make heroes assemble,
When Liberty's form stands in view;
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white, and blue!
When borne by the red, white, and blue!
When borne by the red, white, and blue!
The star-spangled banner bring hither,
O'er Columbia's true sons let it wave,
May the wreaths they have won never wither,
Nor its stars cease to shine on the brave;
May thy service, united ne'er sever,
But hold to their colors so true;
The army and navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue!
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue!
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue!
The army and navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue!

5. BATTLE CRY OF FREEDOM.

(A flat.)

Yes, we'll rally round the flag, boys, we'll rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!
We will rally from the hillside, we'll rally from the plain,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!
The Union forever, hurrah, boys, hurrah!
Down with the traitor and up with the stars!
While we rally round the flag, boys, rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

We are springing to the call of our brothers gone before,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!
And we'll fill the vacant ranks with a million freemen more,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!
The Union forever, hurrah, boys, hurrah! etc.
6. LA MARSEILLAISE.

(A flat.)
Arise, ye children of the nation,
The day of glory now is here!
See the hosts of dark oppression
Their blood-stained banners rear,
Their blood-stained banners rear!
Do ye not heed? roaring the tyrants go,
Scattering homes and peace;
Our sons, our comrades face the foe,
The wounds of war increase.
To arms! Ye warriors all!
Your bold battalions call!
March on, ye free!
Death shall be ours,
Or glorious liberty!

REFRAIN.
Aux armes, citoyens!
Formes vos bataillons!
Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur
Abreuve nos sillons!

(Copyright, 1917, by G. Schirmer.)

7. THE HYMN OF FREE RUSSIA.

Young Russia, hail, victorious!
All praise we chant to thee!
Amid the nations, glorious,
Thou standest, proud and free!
No tyrant shall enslave thee,
Thy sun arises bright;
All hail to those who gave thee
New Freedom's sacred light.

Young Russia, hail, victorious!
All praise we chant to thee!
Amid the nations, glorious,
Thou standest, proud and free;
A song of countless voices
Resounds from shore to shore,
The Russian folk rejoices
With Freedom evermore.

Young Russia, hail, victorious!
All praise we chant to thee!
Amid the nations, glorious,
Thou standest, proud and free!

(Copyright, 1917, by G. Schirmer.)
8. THESE THINGS SHALL BE.

(A flat.)

These things shall be! A loftier race
Than e'er the world hath known shall rise,
With flame of freedom in their souls,
And light of knowledge in their eyes,
Nation with nation, land with land,
Unarmed shall live as comrades free,
In ev'ry heart and brain shall throb
The pulse of one fraternity.

New arts shall bloom, of loftier mold,
And mightier music thrill the skies;
And ev'ry life shall be a song,
When all the earth is paradise.
There shall be no more sin nor shame,
Tho' pain and passion may not die,
For man shall be at one with God
In bonds of firm necessity.

(Copyright, 1917, by G. Schirmer.)
10. MARCH!

March, march, march, march!
March, comrades, march along,
March, march, march, march!
March, a hundred million strong!

On through dark and battle’s roar,
On where none has dared before,
On to pay the ages’ score:
March, march, march!
Forward, comrades,
March, march, forever,

Up with the break of day,
Out on the trackless way,
Ours the will that must and can,
Ours to crown creation’s plan,
Ours to win the world for man:
March, comrades, march!

March, march, march, march!
March, comrades, march along.
March, march, march, march,
March, a hundred million strong!

Prince of Peace, uphold our trust,
Though we face the battle thrust;
Fight we shall while fight we must:
March, march, march!
Forward, comrades,
March, march, forever,
Up with the break of day,
Out on the trackless way,
Love to hate shall never yield
While the sword of God we wield;
On to Armageddon’s field:
March, comrades, march!
13. THE HOME ROAD.

(E flat.)

Sing a hymn of Freedom;
Fling the banner high;
Sing the Songs of Liberty—
Songs that shall not die.
For “the long, long road to Tipperary”
Is the road that leads me home—
O'er hills and plains,
By lakes and lanes,
My Woodlands! My Cornfields!
My Country! My Home!

In the quiet hours
Of the starry night,
Dream the dreams of Far-away—
Home fires burning bright.
For “the long, long road to Tipperary”
Is the road that leads me home—
O'er hills and plains,
By lakes and lanes,
My Woodlands! My Cornfields!
My Country! My Home!

SONGS OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

We're going to take a little chance,
We're going to France!
We're going to try a little run,
To get our duty done,
To have a little fun.
We mean to clear it up, and cheer it up, and then come home.

On our way across the ocean, if we chance on submarines,
We'll take the opportunity to fill 'em up with beans.
Or if we see a flyer, we will catch it on the fly
By putting salt upon its tail, as it goes flying by.
So we must go away,
We're off for France to-day.
We're off for France to take a chance for the U. S. A.
We're going to take a little chance,
We're going to France!
We're going to try a little run,
To get our duty done,
To have a little fun.
We mean to clear it up, an' cheer it up, and then come home.

12. JOAN OF ARC.

Joan of Arc, Joan of Arc,
Do your eyes, from the skies, see the foe?
Don't you see the drooping Fleur-de-lis?
Can't you hear the tears of Normandy?

Joan of Arc, Joan of Arc,
Let your spirit guide us through,
Come lead your France to victory,
Joan of Arc, they are calling you.

14. THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL.

(A flat.)

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'n ing for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Through my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams
Just to call you back to me.

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And the white moon beams:
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

(Used by permission of M. Witmark & Sons, publishers and owners of the copyright.)

All night long I hear you calling, calling sweet and low;
Seem to hear your footsteps falling, Every where I go.
Tho' the road between us stretches many a weary mile,
I forget that you're not with me yet, When I think I see you smile.

15. KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.

(G.)

They were summoned from the hillside,
They were called in from the glen,
And the Country found them ready
At the stirring call for men.
Let no tears add to their hardship,
As the soldiers pass along,
And although your heart is breaking,
Make it sing this cheery song:
Keep the Home fires burning,
While your hearts are yearning.
Though your lads are far away,
They dream of Home;
There's a silver lining
Through the dark cloud shining
Turn the dark cloud inside out,
Till the boys come Home.

16. PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES IN YOUR OLD KIT-BAG.

(G.)

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys—that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while, so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile!

(Copyright, 1915, in all countries by Francis, Day & Hunter, and published by special arrangement with T. B. Harms, Francis, Day & Hunter, and Chappell & Co., Ltd., 41 East Thirty-fourth Street, New York City.)
15. KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.

II

Over seas there came a pleading,
"Help a Nation in distress."
And we gave our gallant laddies,
Honour lasting doth succes.
From a gallant son of Freedom
To a traitor'sope you should send
And a noble heart must answer
To the sacred call of "friend."

All night long I hear your voice
Seem to hear your foot
Tho' the road between us be a weary one
I forget that you're not with me yet, When I think I see you smile.
17. WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING.

(B flat.)

Tho' I am far across the ocean blue,
Each lonely hour my heart remembers you;
Each tender look, each word I used to know,
Comes back to, back to me,
From out the long ago.

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended
And I see the day at last,
I shall come down the road of sunshine,
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

(Used by permission of J. B. Cramer & Co., Ltd., and published by special arrangement with Chappell & Co., Ltd., New York City.)

18. OVER THERE.

(B flat.)

Over there, over there,
Send the word, send the word over there,
That the Yanks are coming, the Yanks are coming,
The drums rum tumming everywhere.
So prepare, say a prayer,
Send the word, send the word to beware,
We'll be over, we're coming over,
And we won't come back till it's over, over there.

(Used by permission of William Jerome Publishing Corporation.)

19. I MAY BE GONE FOR A LONG, LONG TIME.

I may be gone for a long, long time,
Long, long time; long, long time;
But when I go
You will know
That I'll always pine
For the day when you'll be mine.
Be true to me for a long, long time,
Rain or shine, sweetheart mine,
And I'll be just as true to you
As to the Red, White, and Blue,
Though I'm gone for a long, long time.

(Used by permission of William Jerome Publishing Corporation.)

20. SEND ME A CURL.

There's a corner in my heart
That I'm keeping all apart
For the little girl I left behind.
I can see her waiting there
With the flowers in her hair
And the roses in her cheeks entwined;
So when you're thinking of me over yonder,
When you wonder what I want to wear,
Send a pretty little curl
From the sweetest little girl in my home town.

(Used by permission of Huntsinger & Dilworth, publishers.)

21. THE STAMMERING SONG.

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-moon shines over the c-c-cow shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-kitchen door.

(Used by permission of William Jerome Publishing Corporation.)
22. GOING BACK H-O-M-E.

Going back, going back,
Going back h-o-m-e.
Going back, going back,
From the lands across the sea.
Going back, going back,
When we've made the whole world free;
We'll clear the track till we get back,
Going back h-o-m-e.

(Copyrighted by The John Church Co., 1917.)

23. I'LL WED THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND.

I can picture to-night by the dim candle light
The girl I left behind.
I can see her once more by the old cabin door,
Watching with love divine.
Oh, I gave her the ring and I promised to bring,
Bring the parson back and make her mine,
So I'm going right back, hang my hat on the rack,
And wed the girl I left behind.

(Used by permission of M. Witmark & Sons, publishers and owners of the copyright.)

24. I DON'T CARE WHERE THEY SEND ME.

Oh, I don't care where they send me,
Or what it is I have to do;
And I don't care what may happen
Or where I am when I get thru;
But I do care for you, Dearie,
With your dreaming eyes of blue;
So while I'm fighting over here,
My heart is home with you.

(Used by permission of T. B. Harms & Francis, Day & Hunter.)

25. INDIANA.

(G.)

I have always been a wanderer,
Over land and sea,
Yet a moon-beam on the water
Casts a spell o'er me,
A vision fair I see,
Again I seem to be:
Back home again in Indiana,
And it seems that I can see
The gleaming candle light still shining bright
Through the sycamores for me.
The new-mown hay sends all its fragrance
From the fields I used to roam;
When I dream about the moonlight on the Wabash,
Then I long for my Indiana home.

(Used by permission of Shapiro, Bernstein & Co.)

26. WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME.

(G minor.)

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies, they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.
27. Li'l Liza Jane.

I'se got a gal and you got none, Li'l Liza Jane,
I'se got a gal and you got none, Li'l Liza Jane.
Oke, Li'l Liza Jane
Oke, Liza, Li'l Liza Jane.

Come my love and marry me, Li'l Liza Jane,
I will take good care of thee, Li'l Liza Jane.

Li'l Liza Jane done come to me, Li'l Liza Jane,
Both as happy as can be, Li'l Liza Jane.

House and lot in Baltimo', Li'l Liza Jane,
Lots of chilluns roun' de do', Li'l Liza Jane.
(Used by permission of Sherman, Clay & Co.)

28. Lookout Mountain.

(B flat.)

There's a girl I love who waits on Lookout Mountain,
with a mountain of love for me;
On the winding path where first we found each other, that is where I long to be;
She is sweeter than the songs the birds are singing, back home in Tennessee,
There's a girl I love who waits on Lookout Mountain,
with a mountain of love for me.
(Used by permission of Shapiro, Bernstein & Co.)

29. Mother Machree.

There's a spot in my heart which no colleen may own;
There's a depth in my soul never sounded or known.
There's a place in my mem'ry, my life, that you fill,
No other can take it, no one ever will.

Sure, I love the dear silver that shines in your hair,
And the brow that's all furrowed and wrinkled with care.
I kiss the dear fingers so toll-worn for me,
Oh! God bless you and keep you, Mother Machree.
(Used by permission of M. Witmark & Sons, publishers and owners of the copyright.)

30. A Perfect Day.

(A flat.)

When you come to the end of a perfect day,
And you sit alone with your thought,
While the chimes ring out with a carol gay,
For the joy that the day has brought.
Do you think what the end of a perfect day
Can mean to a tired heart,
When the sun goes down with a flaming ray
And the dear friends have to part?

Well, this is the end of a perfect day,
Near the end of a journey, too:
But it leaves a thought that is big and strong
With a wish that is kind and true.
For mem'ry has painted this perfect day
With colors that never fade,
And we find at the end of a perfect day
The soul of a friend we've made.
(Used by permission of Carrie Jacobs Bond & Sons, publishers.)
31. THE SUNSHINE OF YOUR SMILE.

(E flat.)

Dear face, that holds so sweet a smile for me,
Were you not mine, how dark the world would be!
I know no light above that could replace
Love's radiant sunshine in your dear, dear face.

Give me your smile, the lovelight in your eyes,
Life could not hold a fairer paradise.
Give me the right to love you all the while
My world forever, the sunshine of your smile.

(Used by permission of T. B. Harms & Francis, Day & Hunter.)

32. MY HERO.

Come! Come! I love you only,
My heart is true,
Come! Come! my life is lonely,
I long for you,
Come! Come! Naught can efface you,
My arms are aching now to embrace you,
Thou art divine!
Come! Come! I love you only,
Come, hero mine.

(Used by permission of Jerome H. Remick & Co.)

33. “YAAKA HULA.”

(A flat.)

I'm coming back to you, my Hula Lu,
Beside the sea at Waikiki I'll wait for you;
And once again you'll sway my heart away
With your Yaa Ka Hula, Hickey Dula tune.

(Used by permission of Waterson, Berlin & Snyder.)

34. “ALOHA OE.”

(A flat.)

Aloha Oe, farwell to thee,
Thou charming one who dwells among the bowers;
One fond embrace before I now depart
Until we meet again.

(Used by permission of The John Franklin Music Co., New York.)

NOTE.—These two songs are to be sung simultaneously as a vocal combat.

35. TULIP AND ROSE.

(B flat.)

When you wore a tulip, a sweet yellow tulip,
And I wore a big red rose;
When you caressed me, it was then Heaven blessed me—
What a blessing, no one knows.
You made life cheery when you called me "dearie";
'Twas down where the blue grass grows;
Your lips were sweeter than julep when you wore a tulip
And I wore a big red rose.

(Used by permission of Leo Feist, owners of copyright.)
30 SONGS OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

36. THEY MADE IT TWICE AS NICE AS PARADISE AND THEY CALLED IT DIXIELAND.

(A PARODY.)

We're mighty proud that we are southern,
And mighty glad we are to know
That our fathers always did their part
In the days of long ago;
And now when world-wide war clouds gather
O'er the land of the brave and the free,
Keep your "eagle" eye on Dixie,
And I'll tell you what you're bound to see:
When the bugle sounds the call to arms,
They will hear from Dixieland,
From all the offices and stores and farms,
They will come from Dixieland.
You can take this tip from me,
That the soul of "Sixty-three,
Will never be forgotten in the land of cotton,
By the sons of the men of Lee;
And you will see us rebels marching forth,
Arm in arm and breast to breast;
With all the gallant sons of the Yankee North,
And those from the East and West;
For we are hard to stop, and we're quick to start,
When glory joins with duty in the Southern heart.
Let anyone get gay with the U. S. A.,
And the South will do her part.

37. GOOD MORNING, MR. ZIP-ZIP-ZIP.

Fort Niagara song.

Good morning, Mr. Zip-Zip-Zip,
With your hair cut just as short as mine,
Good morning, Mr. Zip-Zip-Zip,
You're surely looking fine.
Ashes to ashes and dust to dust,
If the Camels don't get you, the Fatimas must;
Good morning, Mr. Zip-Zip-Zip,
With your hair cut just as short as,
Your hair cut just as short as,
Hair cut just as short as mine.

38. WORDS TO THE ARMY TRUMPET CALLS.

(A flat.)

REVEILLE.

I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up,
I can't get 'em up in the morning;
I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up at all.
Corps' rals worse than the privates;
Sergeants worse than the corporals;
Lieutenants worse than the sergeants,
An' the capt'ns worst of all.

Chorus: I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, etc.

MESS CALL.

Soup-y, soup-y, without a single bean;
Fork-y, pork-y, pork, without a streak of lean;
Coffee, coffee, coffee, without any cream, (or, the weakest ever seen.)
SICK CALL.

Come and get your quinine, come and get your pills,
Oh! come and get your quinine, come and get your pills.

STABLE CALL.

Come all who are able and go to the stable,
And water your horses and give 'em some corn;
For if you don't do it, the Col'net will know it,
And then you will rue it, sure as you're born.

TAPS.

Fading light
Dims the sight,
And a star gems the sky,
Gleaming bright,
From afar drawing nigh,
Falls the night.

Dear one, rest!
In the west
Sable night
Lullis the day on her breast,
Sweet, goodnight!
Now away
To thy rest.

Love, sweet dreams!
Lo, the beams
Of the light
Fairy moon kiss the streams,
Love, good night!
Ah, so soon!
Peaceful dreams!

SONGS OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

39. NANCY LEE.

(E flat.)

Of all the wives as e'er you know,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho; yeo-ho! yeo-ho!
There's none like Nancy Lee, I trow,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
See there she stands and waves her hands upon the quay,
An' ev'ry day when I'm away she'll watch for me.
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
The sailor's wife the sailor's star shall be,
Yeo-ho! we go across the sea;
The sailor's wife the sailor's star shall be,
The sailor's wife his star shall be.
The harbor's past, the breezes blow,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho; yeo-ho! yeo-ho!
'Tis long ere we come back, I know,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
But true and bright, from morn till night, my home will be,
An' all so neat an' snug an' sweet for Jack at sea,
An' Nancy's face to bless the place an' welcome me;
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
The bos'n pipes the watch below,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho! yeo-ho!
Then here's a health before we go,
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
A long, long life to my sweet wife and mates at sea;
An' keep our bones from Davy Jones where'er we be;
An' may you meet a mate as sweet as Nancy Lee;
Yeo-ho! lads, ho! yeo-ho!
40. OUT ON THE DEEP.

(A flat.)

Out on the deep, when the sun is low,
And the sea with splendor burns,
With his scaly spoil, from his evening toil,
The fisher homeward turns;
And his oars flash bright in the ocean light,
And he knows that eyes on shore
Look out on the deep for his bright oar sweep,
And he sings as he swings his oar:
"A long sweep, lads, and a strong sweep, boys,
And a song as along we go,
For the hearts that yearn for our home return,
When the evening sun is low,
When the evening sun is low."

Out on the deep, when the sun is dead,
And the first sweet star doth gleam,
Of a day that is dead, and a love that is fled,
The fisher oft will dream;
And he thinks, the fur, like that first bright star,
She is still beside as of yore.
And his oars gleam bright in its sweet pale light,
And he sighs as he plies his oar:
"A slow sweep, lads, and a low sweep, boys,
And a song as along we go,
For the hearts of Love that is bright above,
And its gleam in the wave below,
And its gleam in the wave below."

41. A LIFE ON THE OCEAN WAVE.

(G.)

A life on the ocean wave!
A home on the rolling deep!
Where the scatter'd waters rave,
And the winds their revels keep.
Like an eagle caged I pine
On this dull, unchanging shore,
Oh, give me the flashing brine,
The spray and the tempest's roar!

A life on the ocean wave!
A home on the rolling deep!
Where the scatter'd waters rave,
And the winds their revels keep
The winds, the winds, the winds their revels keep!

The winds, the winds, the winds their revel keep!
42. SAILING.

(C.)

The sailor's life is bold and free,
His home is on the rolling sea;
And never heart more true or brave
Than he who launches on the wave;
Afar he speeds in distant climes to roam,
With jocund song he rides the sparkling foam.

Then here's to the sailor and here's to the hearts so true
Who will think of him upon the waters blue!
Sailing, sailing over the bounding main
For many a stormy wind shall blow ere Jack comes home again.
Sailing, sailing over the bounding main

43. THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME.

(E.)

I'm lonesome since I crossed the hills,
And o'er the moor and valley,
Such heaviness my bosom fills,
Since parting with my Sally.
I seek for one as fair and true,
But find none to remind me,
How blest the hours passed away,
With the girl I left behind me.

The hour I do remember well,
When first she owned she loved me;
A pain within my breast doth tell
How constant I have proved me;
But now I'm on the breast blue,
Kind Heaven, then, pray guide me;
And send me home safe back again,
To the girl I left behind me.

My mind her image must retain,
Asleep or sadly waking,
I long to see my love again,
For her my heart is breaking;
Whene'er my steps return that way,
Still faithful she shall find me,
And never more again I'll stray
From the girl I left behind me.
44. PULL AWAY.

(G.)

Pull away, pull away, brave boys,
Pull away, pull away, the vict'ry's ours;
Pull away, pull away to the distant mark,
To the prize, our bonny bark.

Pull away, pull away, 'mid the waters foaming,
Sparkling, dashing all around;
Pull away, pull away, 'mid the wild confusion onward to the wished-for bound.

Pull away, pull away, brave boys,
Pull away, pull away, the vict'ry's ours;
Pull away, pull away to the distant mark,
To the prize, our bonny bark.

45. THREE FISHERS WENT SAILING.

(C.)

Three fishers went sailing out into the west,
Out into the west, as the sun went down.
Each thought of the woman who loved him the best,
And the children stood watching them out of the town:

For men must work, and women must weep,
And there's a little to earn, and many to keep,
Tho' the harbor bar be moaning.

Three wives, they sat up in the lighthouse tow'r,
And trimmed their lamps as the sun went down.
They looked at the squall, and they looked at the show'r,

And the night rack came rolling up rugged and brown!

But men must work, and women must weep,
Tho' storms be sudden and waters be deep,
And the harbor bar be moaning.

Three corpses lay out on the shining sands,
In the morning gleam as the tide went down,
And the women are weeping and wringing their hands
For those who will never come back to the town;

For men must work, and women must weep,
And the sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep,
And good-by to the bar and its moaning.

46. THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.
(\textit{E} flat.)

How dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view!
The orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wildwood,
And every loved spot which my infancy knew.

The wide spreading pond and the mill that stood by it,
The bridge and the rock where the cataract fell;
The cot of my father, the dairy house nigh it,
And e'en the rude bucket that hung in the well,
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket that hung in the well,

47. OLD FOLKS AT HOME.
(\textit{B} flat.)

Way down upon the Swannee River, far, far away,
There's where my heart is turning ever,
There's where the old folk's stay.
All up and down the whole creation, sadly I roam,
Still longing for the old plantation
And for the old folks at home.
All the world am sad and dreary, everywhere I roam
Oh, darkies, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

All around the little farm I wandered, when I was young;
Then many days I squandered, many the songs I sung.
When I was playing with my brother, happy was I.
Oh! take me to my kind old mother, there let me live and die.

48. OLD BLACK JOE.
(\textit{E} flat.)

Gone are the days when my heart was young and gay;
Gone are my friends from the cotton fields away;
Gone from the earth to a better land I know,
I hear their gentle voices calling, "Old Black Joe."
I'm coming, I'm coming, for my head is bending low.
I hear those gentle voices calling, "Old Black Joe."

Why do I weep when my heart should feel no pain? Why do I sigh that my friends come not again? Grieving for forms now departed long ago, I hear their gentle voices calling, "Old Black Joe."

49. OLD KENTUCKY HOME.
(F.)

The sun shines bright in my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
The corn's ripe and the meadows in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy and bright;
Bye and bye "Hard Times" comes a-knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.
Weep no more, my lady, oh, weep no more to-day.
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
For the old Kentucky home, far away.
50. DIXIE.

(C)

I wish I was in de land ob cotton,
Old times dar am not forgotten.
Look away! Look away! Look away, Dixie Land!
In Dixie Land whar I was born in,
Early on one frosty mornin',
Look away! Look away! Look away, Dixie Land,
Den I wish I was in Dixie, hooray! Hooray!
In Dixie Land I'll take my stand
To lib and die in Dixie;
Away, away, away down South in Dixie,
Away, away, away down South in Dixie.

51. ANNIE LAURIE.

(C)

Maxwelton's braes are bonnie,
Where early fa's the dew,
And it's there that Annie Laurie,
Gave me her promise true.
Gave me her promise true,
Which ne'er forgot will be,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me doon and dee.

Her brow is like the snow-drift,
Her throat is like the swan,
Her face it is the fairest
That e'r the sun shown on.
That e'r the sun shown on,
And dark blue is her e'e,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie,
I'd lay me doon and dee.

52. AULD LANG SYNE.

(F)

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll tak' a cup of kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

We twa ha'e sported i' the burn,
Fae mornin' sun till dine,
But seas between us braid ha'e roared,
Sin' auld lang syne.

And here's a hand, my trusty frien',
And gie's a hand o' thine;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

53. LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG.

(F)

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall,
When on the worlds the mists began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng,
Low to our hearts love sang an old, sweet song.
And in the dusk, where fell the twilight's gleam,
Softly it wove itself into our dream.

Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low,
And the flick'r'ing shadows softly come and go.
Tho' the heart be weary, sad the day and long,
Still to us at twilight comes love's old sweet song,
Comes love's old sweet song.
54. CARRY ME BACK TO OLD VIRGINNY.

(A flat.)

Carry me back to old Virginny,
There's where the cotton and the corn and tatoes grow,
There's where the birds warble sweet in the springtime,
There's where the old darkey's heart has long'd to go.
There's where I labored so hard for old Massa
Day after day in the fields of yellow corn.
No place on earth do I love more sincerely
Than old Virginny, the State where I was born.
Carry me back to old Virginny,
There's where the cotton and the corn and tatoes grow.
There's where the birds warble sweet in the springtime,
There's where the old darkey's heart has long'd to go.

55. SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD.

(B flat.)

Darling, I am growing old;
Silver threads among the gold
Shine upon my brow to-day,
Life is fading fast away;
But my darling you will be, will be,
Always young and fair to me;
Yes, my darling, you will be
Always young and fair to me,
Darling, I am growing, growing old,
Silver threads among the gold.
Shine upon my brow to-day,
Life is fading fast away.

56. HOW CAN I LEAVE THEE.

(B flat.)

How can I leave thee,
How can I from thee part?
Thou only hast my heart,
Dear one, believe.
Thou hast this soul of mine
So closely bound to thine,
No other can I love,
Save thee alone.

57. SWEET GENEVIEVE.

(F.)

O, Genevieve, I'd give the world
To live again the lovely past!
The rose of youth was dew im-pearled;
But now it withers in the blast.
I see thy face in every dream
My waking thoughts are full of thee;
Thy glance is in the starry beam
That falls along the summer sea.
O Genevieve, sweet Genevieve,
The days may come, the days may go,
But still the hands of mem'ry weave
The blissful dreams of long ago.
Fair Genevieve, my early love,
The years but make thee dearer far!
My heart shall never, never rove;
Thou art my only guiding star.
For me the past has no regret,
Whate'er the years may bring to me;
I bless the hour when first we met,
The hour that gave me love and thee!

(Used by permission of William A. Pond & Co.)
58. SOLDIER'S FAREWELL.

(B flat.)

How can I hear to leave thee?
One parting kiss I give thee;
And then, what'eed befalls me,
I go where honor calls me,
Farewell, farewell, my own true love,
Farewell, farewell, my own true love.

59. NEARER, MY GOD, TO THEE.

(A flat.)

Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee;
E'en tho' it be a cross that raiseth me.
Still all my song shall be, nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

Tho' like a wanderer, the sun gone down,
Darkness be over me, my rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

60. ABIDE WITH ME.

(E flat.)

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
His have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

61. ONWARD, CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS.

(F flat.)

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before.
Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle, see his banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before.

Like a mighty army moves the church of God,
Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod.
We are not divided, all one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, one in charity.

62. THE SON OF GOD GOES FORTH TO WAR.

(E flat.)

The Son of God goes forth to war, a kingly crown
To gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar; who follows in his train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe, and triumph over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below—he follows in
His train.

A glorious band the chosen few, on whom the spirit came:
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew, and mocked the cross and flame.
They climbed the dizzy steep to heav'n, thro' peril,
toil and pain;
O God! to us may grace be giv'n to follow in their train.
63. COME, THOU ALMIGHTY KING.

(F.)

Come, Thou Almighty King, help us Thy name to sing;
Help us to praise, Father all glorious, o'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us, Ancient of Days.

Come, Thou Incarnate Word, gird on Thy mighty sword;
Come and Thy people bless, and give Thy word success,
Spirit of holiness, on us descend.

64. NOW THE DAY IS OVER.

(E flat.)

Now the day is over, night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening steal across the sky.

Thro' the long night-watches may Thy Angels spread Their white wings above us, watching 'round each bed.

65. HOLY, HOLY, HOLY.

(E flat.)

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty,
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee,
Holy, Holy, Holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty,
All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, Holy, Holy, merciful and mighty;
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

66. RISE, CROWNED WITH LIGHT.

(E flat.)

Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise;
Exalt thy tow'ring head and lift thine eyes;
See heav'n its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day.

See a long race thy spacious courts adorn;
See future sons, and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on ev'ry side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend;
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While ev'ry land its joyous tribute brings.

The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed His word, His saving pow'r remains;
Thy realms shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.
67. O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Still may we dwell secure!
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our Guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home!

68. HOW FIRM A FOUNDATION.

(A flat.)

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in His excellent Word!
What more can He say than to you He hath said—
To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

"Fear not, I am with thee, oh, be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand.
Upheld by My gracious, omnipotent hand."

FOR YOUR BOY AND MY BOY

Hear the bugle call!
The call to arms for Liberty.
See them one and all!
They go to fight for you and me.
Heroes you will find them,
Every mother's son,
We must get behind them
Till their work is done.

CHORUS

For your boy and my boy and all of the boys out there,
Let's lend our money to the U. S. A.
And do our share.
Every bond that we are buying
Will help to hold the fighting line;
Buy Bonds! Buy Bonds!
For Your Boy And Mine.

Hear the bugle call!
The call to those who stay at home.
You are soldiers all!
Tho' you may never cross the foam.
Keep Old Glory waving
Proudly up above,
Praying, working, saving,
For the ones you love.

CHORUS

For your boy and my boy and all of the boys out there,
Let's get together till they come back home
And do our share.
Every bond that we are buying
Will help the boys to cross the Rhine;
Buy Bonds! Buy Bonds!
For Your Boy And Mine.

WE'LL BRING OUR HEROES HOME

Our boys have fought for you and me,
They've bled and died for us,
And now it's up to us to see
What we can do and must.
We'll bring those heroes homeward
Who've fought for Victory.
They've won the fray and now we'll pay
For glorious Liberty!

CHORUS

We'll back this loan of Victory,
We will help to clear the debt away
Our boys have died to keep us free,
It's now our chance to pay.
They said the Yankees couldn't do it
Now they know we have the pep, pep, pep,
We'll get behind this Victory Loan,
We will fall in line and help to pay.

The time has come for us to act
Our Country needs us now.
We're back of Sammy with a pact
And we must show him how,
Now that the War is over,
Don't let our efforts slack,
We've sent our boys over,
We'll bring our heroes back.
The Last Long Mile
Oh, they put me in the army
And they handed me a pack,
They took away my nice new clothes
And dressed me up in sack:
They marched me twenty miles a day
To fight for the war,
I didn't mind the first punchin'
But the last one made me sore.

Chorus:
Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back
Nor the Springfield on your shoulder,
Nor the six-inch crust
Of Clinton County dust—that makes you feel your limbs are growing older,
And it's not the tick
On the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile;—
Nor the socks of sister's
That make the bloomin' thistles
It's the last—long—mile!

Some day they'll send us over
And they'll put us in a trench
Behind hot shots at the Grizis
With the Tommies and the French.
The Last Long Mile

And they put me in the army
And they handed me a pack.

They took away my margin
Of this,
And dressed me in a basic back.

They marched me twenty miles
Today,
To see me for the war,
I didn't mind the first march
But the last one made me sore.

(Corner)

And some day we'll remember
The old town across the Rhine.

And then, you bet,
We'll all forget these
Mournful words of mine.

(Corner)
Someplace in France
Is the Lily

Words by PHILANDER JOHNSON
1st VERSE Music by JOSEPH E. HOWARD

One day as morning shed its glow Across the eastern sky,
A boy and girl in accents low, In a garden said
“Good bye!”
She said, “Remember as you stray, When each must do his share.
The flowers blooming here to-day Are emblems over there!”

CHORUS

Somewhere in France is the Lily, Close by the Eng’lish Rose
A Thistle so keen and a Shamrock green, and each loyal flow’r that grows.
Somewhere in France is a sweetheart, facing the battle’s chance,
For the flow’r of our youth fights for freedom and truth.
Somewhere in France.

2nd VERSE

Each morning in that garden fair, Where sweetest perfumes dwell,
The lassie whispers Lord, pray For the flow’r’s she loves so well,
And over there as night draws near, Amid the shot and flame,
Unto the flag he holds so dear, A Soldier breathes her name.
