PHILADELPHIA
FEBRUARY, 1924
Dear Classmates:

As we set forth each along a separate path to some field of service, let us ever keep before us the ideals that we have learned to love and cherish in our Student Government. Because of these ideals let us strive for a broader sympathy and truer service to those around us.

Pauline D. Wyman,
President of the Students' Association.
PAULINE DOROTHEA WYMAN

1627 Wallace Street

Academic Course

President, Vice-President, Students' Association, "H" Senator, Representative, Monitor, Volunteer, President, Vice-President, Secretary of Students' Aid Club, Athletic Club, Senior Dramatic Club, Camera Club, Red Cross Club.

"The worthy seek not popular applause."

Our president is a fine classmate. Pauline is the possessor of rare judgment and common sense. She is a born leader. May your future be as prosperous as you have helped our school to be.

JEANETTE YOUNG

1011 W. Columbia Avenue

Commercial Course

Students' Association, Athletic Club.

The girls did oft remark
About her eyes so dark,
Which could not hide their spark
When Nettie was on a lark.

Jeanette always worried about passing her subjects, but when report time came around all her fears were put to rest. She shows sincerity and earnestness in all her undertakings. We hope the future will bring her someone dark, tall, and handsome—also with curly hair. Are we giving away any personal secrets, Nettie? Well, he won't object.

ELSIE ZAAGER

414 Spruce Street

Commercial Course

Students' Association, Athletic Club.

"Elsie is fat!"
You shouldn't say that,
She's just deliciously plump.

Elsie, you certainly were a blessing to your friends. What would they have done if you hadn't told them this or done that? With you around worries were forgotten and smiles and jokes took their place. Keep on helping others and bringing them happiness, for in so doing you are also profiting.
