WOODIN FARMS

EXHIBITION OF PONIES

Courtesy of

Mr. Guy G. Woodin

Owner of Woodin Farms
WE have advertised "THE DAWN OF A PURE FOOD NAME" and for the building of a "BIGGER, BETTER AND WROADER ORGANIZATION," But as guests today, I hope we may build for a "BIGGER, BETTER AND WROADER ACQUAINTANCE"—one which will bring us all closer together and in so doing we will have attained a sure and permanent foundation, not only on which to build our own success but also the success of the Company. You are more than welcome. There are no bosses here today. Let us all get acquainted and have a good time.

THOS. E. WILSON
FELLOW EMPLOYEES

The name originated "The Dawn of a New Era"

We are privileged to be a part of the planning of a broader and better organization. With our early efforts, I hope that we may build upon a broader and better organization...our hearts will unite in all efforts together and to do things that we will pursue...

without a sense of permanence to our purpose...the success of the Company. You are more than welcome. There are no passes here today. Let us all present ourselves and have a good time.

SING

1 Should auld acquaintance be forgotten and never brought to mind?
   Should auld acquaintance be forgot in days of Auld Lang Syne?
   For Auld Lang Syne; my dear,
   for Auld Lang Syne,
   Will take a cup of kindness yet,
   for Auld Lang Syne.

2 Max Welton’s braes are bonnie,
   where early falls the dew,
   And t’was there that Annie Laurie
   gave me her promise true,
   Gave me her promise true,
   which ne’er forgot will be,
   For bonnie Annie Laurie
   I’d lay me down and die.

3 On the old farm house veranda,
   There sat Silas and Miranda, Thinking of the days gone by,
   Said he; Dearie don’t be weary,
   You were always bright and cheery,
   But a tear, dear, dims your eye,
   Said she; they’re tears of gladness Silas, They’re not tears of sadness,
   It is fifty years today since we were wed,
   Then the old man’s dim eyes brightened,
   And his stern old heart it lightened,
   As he turned to her said:
   CHORUS:
   Put on your old gray bonnet,
   With the blue ribbon on it,
   While I hitch old dobbin to the shay,
   And through the fields of clover,
   We’ll drive up to dover,
   On our golden wedding day.
