Biographical Note

Amy Bonner (1891-1955) was a New York journalist who reviewed books of verse for the World-Telegram; she was also on the staff of the New York Evening Post. She wrote poetry which appeared in Poetry: A Magazine of Verse several times, first in 1921. From 1937-1947 she served as Poetry's eastern business representative.

Scope Note

The bulk of the Papers represent the correspondence Bonner received as Poetry's business representative. Also included is a small amount of earlier correspondence, particularly with Harriet Monroe. The material is arranged alphabetically. A small collection of Christmas cards sent by poets to Bonner follows the correspondence.
