Scope Note

This is an account book from England that spans the years 1832 to 1835. Many of the accounts are for various railroad companies, docks, and other transportation-related companies. Individuals are also represented. The account book was transferred from the Carry Collection. A piece of paper at the front of the book notes that it was “probably the gift of Mrs. E.F. Carry 6/30/1931,” and it is plated with Edward Francis Carry’s plate.
