Abstract The General Archival Files are a collection of general information and ephemeral materials related to the history of administrative units, organizations, and activities at the University of Chicago. The General Archival Files include a wide variety of items such as documents, brochures, pamphlets, clippings, programs, invitations, press releases, advertisements, and recollections of the history of academic departments by former faculty members. The arrangement of the files is alphabetical by the name of the administrative unit, organization, or activity.

Information on Use

Access

The collection is open for research, with the exception of Box 119 which contains restricted student information. Records in Box 119 are closed for 80 years from date of creation.
