Biographical Note

Clifford Geertz was born in San Francisco on August 23, 1926. Following service in the US Navy during World War II, he earned an AB in Philosophy from Antioch College in 1950. In 1956, he received a PhD from Harvard's Department of Social Relations.

Known, first and foremost, as the father of "Symbolic Anthropology," Geertz began his career as a writer of fiction. His connection to humanist studies, including philosophy and literary criticism, remained important throughout his career as a social scientist. Breaking away from the positivist and scientific approach to anthropology that had reigned throughout the 1950s, Geertz promoted a literary style within the discipline. He conducted extensive ethnographic research in Indonesia during the 1950s and in Morocco during the 1960s. In 1960, Geertz came to the University of Chicago as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Anthropology. He became Associate Professor in 1962 and Professor in 1964.

Geertz remained at the University of Chicago until 1970, when he accepted an inaugural position as a Professor of Social Science at the newly-formed Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, New Jersey. He served at the IAS as the Harold F. Linder Professor of Social Science until 1970, when he became Professor Emeritus. During this period he also held joint appointments with Oxford University (1978-1979) and at Princeton University.

Clifford Geertz published numerous essays, books, and articles. Among the most significant are Islam Observed: Religious Development in Morocco and Indonesia (1968,) a collection of essays entitled The Interpretation of Cultures (1970,) and After the Fact: Two Countries, Four Decades, One Anthropologist (1995). He also published numerous reviews and articles for publications including The New Republic and The New York Review of Books.

Geertz was married first to fellow anthropologist Hildred Storey, with whom he had two children. He married Karen Blu, also an anthropologist, 1987. Geertz died in Philadelphia on October 30, 2006.

Scope Note

This collection has been divided into eight series: I: Fieldnotes; II: Hildred Geertz; III: Correspondence; IV: Institute for Advanced Study; V: Research and Writing; VI: Restricted; VII: Photographs, Objects, and Maps; and VIII: Audio and Video Recordings

Among the collection's many strengths is the hundreds of pages of original fieldnotes from fieldwork conducted by Clifford Geertz and Hildred Geertz in Morocco and by Clifford Geertz with student Lawrence Stone in Indonesia. The researchers kept detailed and meticulous notes and compiled a great deal of primary historic information, including hand-drawn maps, kinship charts, and land ownership tables. Much of this information is represented both in written and pictorial form. Series I is divided into three subseries: Indonesia, Morocco, and Other Locations. Series II contains fieldnotes and writings attributed to Hildred Geertz.

Also invaluable to researchers is the prolific correspondence Geertz maintained throughout his academic career. Series III: Correspondence series has been divided into five subseries: General Correspondence; Invitations, Regrets and Refusals; Professional Associations; Outgoing Correspondence (a chronological file of copies of letters sent by Geertz); and Institutions and Organizations, which primarily documents Geertz's correspondence with universities, government agencies and cultural organizations.

Series IV: Institute for Advanced Study includes calendars, syllabi, seminar papers, agendas, member lists, and clippings. Files relating to IAS personnel or administrative affairs are in Series VI: Restricted Material.

Series V, Research and Writing includes notes, drafts and offprints of lectures, articles, reviews and other scholarly writings by Geertz, as well as manuscripts and offprints sent to him by colleagues.

Series VI contains files to which access is restricted. The Restricted series is divided into three subseries: References and Recommendations; Grant Applications; and IAS Personnel.

Series VII includes photographs, maps, kinship charts, posters, certificates and other awards given to Geertz, academic regalia, t-shirts collected by Geertz, and objects and artifacts he acquired as gifts or while traveling.

Series VIII includes audio and video recordings created or collected by Geertz.
