Descriptive Summary

Identifier	ICU.SPCL.ICAES
Title	International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences. Records
Date	1970-1984
Size	73.5 linear feet (142 boxes)
Repository	Special Collections Research Center University of Chicago Library 1100 East 57th Street Chicago, Illinois 60637 U.S.A.
Abstract	The ICAES Records consist of the preparation materials and scholastic work for the conference held in Chicago in 1973. The correspondence consists of letters between Sol Tax and his secretaries to the conference participants and between the editors and writers of the papers that were presented and published. The materials also included the mock up materials and the final packet for the conference participants, as well as press releases and final drafts of the presentation papers. Conference participants included well known intellectuals such as Margaret Mead, Prince Peter of Greece and Denmark, L. Lomnitz, James Fernandez, Marshall Sahlins, McKim Marriott, June Nash, and Alan Lomax.

Information on Use

Access

Series XI contains personnel and financial material to which access is restricted until 2025. The remainder of the collection is open for research.

Citation

When quoting material from this collection, the preferred citation is: International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences. Records, [Box #, Folder #], Special Collections Research Center, University of Chicago Library

Historical Note

The International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences has met regularly around the world since the second World War. The Ninth Congress, held under the leadership of Professor Sol Tax in Chicago in 1973, hosted 4,000 scholars from more than 100 countries. In addition to the scholarly panels, the University of Chicago hosted the Youth for Mankind conference for high school students and cultural programs such as an ethnographic opera by Gian Carlo Menotti and the American Folk Concert organized by Alan Lomax.

Scope Note

Series I: Administrative Records, include membership and registration lists in addition to information on permanent council meetings, panel topics, grants, travel and hotel arrangements, translators, and preparations for future conferences.

Series II: Correspondence, includes abstracts for papers, papers, orders for papers, registrations and general correspondence.

Series III: Materials for conference packets, includes drafts, letters, and mock ups for brochures, posters and publicity. The completed conference packet is also included.

Series IV contains research materials and information on other anthropological conferences.

Series V: Cultural Programs includes materials about the opera, Tamu Tamu by Gian Carlo Menotti, and the American Folk Concert arranged by Alan Lomax specifically for the conference.

Series VI: Youth for Mankind, contains correspondence, organizational and publicity materials for the conference for high school students in the summer of 1973.

Series VII: contains photographs of the conference participants and press releases.

Series VIII contains materials regarding publication of conference materials and proceedings, including correspondence from publishers, editors and authors, abstracts, conference papers, original drafts and the Proceeding for World Anthropology Publications.

Series IX contains posters, press materials and charts.

Series X contains reel to reel tapes, cassette tapes and cds of recorded conference panels.

Series XI contains personnel and financial material to which access is restricted for fifty years.
