Scope Note

This collection contains one or several issues of 374 different prose and poetry publications. Many of the publications were discontinued after only a few issues. Most are dated between 1915 and 1945. Most of the publications originated in the United States, but several were produced in Europe or Latin America and are printed in French, German or Italian.

Topics addressed by the publications include the process of writing, the bohemian lifestyle, book reviews, national culture and politics as well as that originating in local communities, social commentary, and movements in art and creative expression. Each folder contains the complete holdings of a single publication, and most folders contain a single volume only. Most of the periodicals are soft-bound and contain fewer than 50 pages.

This collection originated as part of the Modern Poetry manuscripts.
