Date	1899-1904(inclusive)
Size	2 linear ft. (4 boxes)
Repository	1100 East 57th Street Chicago, Illinois 60637

Abstract The Hedwig L. Loeb papers consist of class notes and themes for courses in English, History, Political Science, and Sociology. Loeb's professors included James Weber Linn and George F. Reynolds in English; James Westfall Thompson, Edwin E. Sparks, Oliver J. Thatcher, Ferdinand W. Schwill, Benjamin Terry, Edward Gaylord Bourne, and Francis W. Shepardson in History; Harry Pratt Judson and Charles E. Merriam in Political Science; and George E. Vincent in Sociology. The notes are unusually full and legible, offering potentially valuable information about classroom teaching at the beginning of the twentieth century. The English themes are accompanied by detailed faculty comments and criticisms.
