Descriptive Summary

Identifier	ICU.SPCL.MARTINEZM
Title	Martinez, Maria Elena. Papers
Date	1986-2015
Size	33.5 linear feet (64 boxes)
Repository	Special Collections Research Center University of Chicago Library 1100 East 57th Street Chicago, Illinois 60637 U.S.A.

Abstract María-Elena Martínez (December 2, 1966 - November 16, 2014) was an associate professor of history and American studies and ethnicity at the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. Martinez's first book, Genealogical Fictions: Limpieza de Sangre, Religion, and Gender in Colonial Mexico received numerous accolades following its publication. At the time of her death, she was working on her second book project, provisionally titled "The Enlightened Creole Science of Race and Sex: Naturalizing the Body in the Eighteenth-Century Spanish Atlantic World." This collection contains essays and notes from Martinez's undergraduate and graduate years; personal and professional correspondence; photocopied archival sources; article drafts and published articles written by Martinez; articles written by other academics and annotated by Martinez for her research; syllabi; teaching notes; materials from academic conferences; CD-ROMs; VHS tapes; cassette tapes; microfilm; and maps.

Biographical Note

María-Elena Martínez (December 2, 1966 - November 16, 2014) was an associate professor of history and American studies and ethnicity at the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. Martinez was born in Pascuales, Durango, Mexico and moved to Chicago with her family as a young child in the 1970s. Trained as a historian of colonial Latin America, she received her BA in Latin American Studies from Northwestern University in 1988 and her PhD in History from the University of Chicago in 2002.

In 2001, she accepted a position at USC-Dornsife, where she taught courses on Latin American history and race, gender, and sexuality in Latin America. Martinez served as co-director of Chicano and Latino American studies from 2006-2008 and as director from 2009-2011. Martinez mentored many students during her time at USC and was awarded a USC Mellon Mentoring Award for her work with graduate students in 2013.

Martinez's first book, Genealogical Fictions: Limpieza de Sangre, Religion, and Gender in Colonial Mexico (Stanford University Press, 2008) received numerous accolades following its publication. It was awarded the American Historical Association's 2009 James A. Rawley Prize in Atlantic History and the American Historical Association's Conference on Latin American History's prize for the best book on Mexican history. At the time of her death, she was working on her second book project, provisionally titled "The Enlightened Creole Science of Race and Sex: Naturalizing the Body in the Eighteenth-Century Spanish Atlantic World."

Martinez passed away in 2014 from a rare form of adrenal cancer at the age of 48. She was survived by her partner of many years, Sarah Gualtieri, her mother; and her brothers Manuel de Jesús, Arturo, Nicolás, and Enrique.
