Scope Note

The notebook is in octavo format and contains 114 leaves, mostly foliated, with some pages left blank. The leaves are paper in a contemporary leather binding with gold border decorations on front and back covers. Text is in English with some writing in Greek (e.g. on page 169) and Hebrew (e.g. 205). Notes are in the author's hand, except few comments in a very shaky script (e.g. on 30, 84). The notes for each sermon begin with a biblical quotation, followed by musings on its meaning in the original context and a paragraph headed "Application," which aims to demonstrate the continued relevance of the biblical teachings.
