Historical Note

Established in Chicago in 1974, NAES College (Native American Educational Service) aimed to improve the leadership of Native communities and to ensure that tribal knowledge, traditions and values play a major role in the higher education of Native students. Before closing its doors in 2007, NAES College offered a single degree, a Bachelor's of Arts in General Studies with an emphasis in Public Policy, and tribal knowledge, community service, community development and leadership.

Armin Beck was born in St. Louis, Missouri in 1924. He served as a professor at NAES College in Chicago. He researched and published on issues dealing with race and inequality. Dr. Armin Beck died August 2, 1991 in Evanston.

Scope Note

The collection contains administrative records related to NAES as well as Beck's research materials and many of his article reprints and manuscripts on the subjects of race, urbanity, and inequality.

Series I: Correspondence contains correspondence to and from Armin Beck regarding NAES College.

Series II: Speeches and Writings by Armin Beck includes hand written and typescript manuscripts and reprints of speeches and articles by Armin Beck. This section has been organized into Subseries I: Beck's Speeches, and Subseries II: Writings. The writings are in alphabetical order by title.

Series III: Writings by Other Scholars contains reprints by other scholars on subjects of race and urbanity. The writings by other scholars are organized alphabetically by the author's last name.

Series IV: Course Preparation Material contains Beck's research materials for his courses in addition to course proposals and syllabus for courses.

Series V: Administrative Materials contains administrative materials related to NAES such as registration and requests for information.

Series VI: Conference and Workshop Materials contain preparation materials for conference and workshop meetings as well as materials handed out at the conferences.

Series VII: Materials related to Grants include budgets, grant applications in addition to letters of congratulations and rejection.

Series VIII: Visual Materials includes materials such as political cartoons and photographs.

Series IX: Restricted Student Materials includes files for which access is restricted. Grades, letters of recommendation and other student records have been restricted in compliance with University of Chicago policies.
