Biographical Note

Phil Caldwell Neal, former dean of The University of Chicago Law School and partner at Chicago law firm Neal Gerber Eisenberg, was born to William B. Neal and Carrie Caldwell Neal in Chicago, Illinois, on July 30, 1919. He graduated from Oak Park and River Forest High School in 1936, received his A.B. from Harvard University in 1940, and his L.L.B. from Harvard Law School in 1943. During his time at Harvard, Neal was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and was elected president of the Student Council and of the Harvard Law Review.

He married Mary Cassidy on June 19, 1944. Together, they had four sons: Richard, Stephen, Timothy, and Andrew. The marriage ended in divorce.

Following Harvard, Neal clerked for Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson from 1943 to 1945. In April 1945, Neal served as an assistant to Alger Hiss, Secretary General of the United Nations organizing conference.

This trend of government service continued throughout Neal's early career. He was appointed Chairman of the Pacific Regional Enforcement Commission of the Wage Stabilization Board (1950-1952); as a member of the Permanent Committee for the Oliver Wendell Holmes Devise History of the United States Supreme Court (circa 1955); as Executive Secretary of the Coordinating Committee for Multiple Litigation, U.S. District Courts (1962-1968); and as Chairman of the White House Task Force on Antitrust Laws (1968).

After a few years in private practice as an associate at Pillsbury, Madison & Sutro in San Francisco, California, Phil C. Neal's academic career began when he joined the faculty at Stanford Law School in 1948. He became a full professor in 1954. While at Stanford, Neal taught two future U.S. Supreme Court justices: Sandra Day O'Connor and William Rehnquist. He left Stanford in 1961 for an appointment as Professor of Law at The University of Chicago Law School, where he would serve as Dean from 1963 to 1975. Neal taught a variety of subjects at Stanford and at The University of Chicago, specializing in Constitutional Law and Antitrust Law. Following his deanship at the University of Chicago, he taught part-time at the University, while also practicing law with the Chicago firm of Friedman & Koven.

Phil C. Neal entered a new phase in his life in the 1980s. He married Linda Thoren Neal in 1985, and in 1986 he left academia to help found the law firm Neal Gerber Eisenberg in Chicago. He chaired the firm's litigation practice in its early years; served in the firm's Antitrust and Trade Regulation, Litigation, and Corporate Governance practice groups; and served as a member of the Executive Committee for many years.

Neal was an active member in many professional organizations, including the American Law Institute, the American Bar Association, the American Bar Foundation, the Chicago Bar Association, and the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

Phil C. Neal died on September 27, 2016.

Scope Note

The Phil C. Neal Papers are organized into 12 series:

Series I: Personal

Series II: Correspondence

Series III: Subject Files

Series IV: Course Materials

Series V: University of Chicago

Series VI: United States Government Appointments

Series VII: Neal Gerber Eisenberg

Series VIII: Writings

Series IX: Writings by Others

Series X: Audiovisual

Series XI: Oversize

Series XII: Restricted

The collection includes personal ephemera; correspondence; a series of subject files maintained by Neal; teaching materials from the University of Chicago Law School and the Stanford University School of Law; administrative materials from Neal's time as Dean of the University of Chicago Law School; records pertaining to various government appointments throughout Neal's career; files from Neal's office at Neal Gerber Eisenberg; drafts and correspondence pertaining to speeches and articles written by Neal; writings by others given to or collected by Neal; a VHS videotape; an oversize certificate; and restricted administrative, student, and legal records. Materials date between 1912 and 2011, with the bulk of the material dating between 1930 and 2007. The papers primarily document Neal's academic and legal career.

The original order of Neal's papers has been retained wherever possible, especially in Series II-IV and VIII. Due to Neal's various arrangements of this material, researchers may need to consult multiple series. There are overlaps in subject matter across Series III and IV, and within Series II.

Series I, Personal, contains material from Neal's education at Oak Park River Forest High School and Harvard University, and a small amount of personal ephemera from the 1980s. Materials are arranged chronologically.

Series II, Correspondence, contains outgoing and incoming mail arranged in two groupings maintained by Neal. The series begins with an alphabetical grouping of Neal's correspondence, primarily from the 1960s and 1970s. This is followed by correspondence organized chronologically from the 1940s to the 1980s.

Series III, Subject Files, contains material arranged alphabetically by topic. Much of this material pertains to Neal's involvement in professional organizations, committees, and events, including the American Bar Association, the American Bar Foundation, the Chicago Bar Association, the Federal Judicial Center, the Harvard alumni association, the National Conference of Bar Examiners, and more.

Series IV, Course Materials, contains files for courses taught by Neal at the Stanford University School of Law (1948-1961), and at the University of Chicago Law School (1961-1986). Neal kept this material arranged alphabetically by topic or course title, and intermingled material produced for each university. The original order has been maintained.

Series V, University of Chicago, contains administrative material from Neal's work at The University of Chicago Law School. The majority of the material relates to Neal's service on various committees. Files are arranged alphabetically by subject.

Series VI, United States Government Appointments, contains records of Neal's service to several governmental organizations. This includes his work as Chairman of the Pacific Regional Enforcement Commission of the Wage Stabilization Board; as a member of the Permanent Committee for the Oliver Wendell Holmes Devise; as Executive Secretary of the Coordinating Committee for Multiple Litigation, U.S. District Courts; and as Chairman of the White House Task Force on Antitrust Laws. Records of Neal's time as a law clerk to U.S. Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson, or as assistant to Secretary General of the United Nations organizing conference Alger Hiss, are not present. Files are roughly in chronological order by government appointment.

Series VII, Neal Gerber Eisenberg, contains files kept by Neal at his office at Neal Gerber Eisenberg. The series is subdivided into two subseries: 1) General, and 2) Cases. Each subseries is arranged chronologically. Subseries 2 consists mainly of published briefs.

Series VIII, Writings, contains drafts, correspondence, clippings, and reprints of articles and speeches written by Neal. The files are arranged alphabetically by title or topic as maintained by Neal.

Series IX, Writings by Others, contains drafts, photocopied articles, reprints, and books by others. Materials are arranged alphabetically by author. When an author is unidentified, works are alphabetized by title.

Series X, Audiovisual, contains one VHS videotape of a 2001 alumni reunion at The Tavern Club in Chicago. An access copy for the tape has not yet been made. Researchers will need to consult with staff before requesting this item.

Series XI, Oversize, contains one certificate admitting Neal to the United States Supreme Court in 1976.

Series XII, Restricted, contains material not currently open to research. Box 77 contains budgetary and personnel records and is restricted for 50 years from date of record creation. Boxes 78-79 contain graded student work and letters of recommendation, and are restricted for 80 years from date of record creation. Box 80 contains material protected under work product privilege and is restricted indefinitely.
