Lack of Resources Suspends Program

The Chicago Council on East Asia decided to suspend its fellowship program temporarily due to the lack of resources. The program, which provides funding for Japanese American scholars and artists to pursue research and creative projects, has been a staple of the Council's efforts to promote cultural exchange and understanding. The decision to suspend the program was made after careful consideration of the financial situation and the need to allocate resources to other initiatives. The Council hopes to resume the fellowship program once resources become available.

Statements of "AMERICAN" are marked with a star, which indicates that they are identified with the "American" faction. Statements of "Nihonjin" are marked with an asterisk, which indicates that they are identified with the "Japanese" faction.

The American faction supports the independence of Japan from Chinese rule, whereas the Japanese faction supports the annexation of Korea and the subjugation of China. The two factions are often in conflict with each other over these issues.

The American faction is likely to be more sympathetic to the United States, while the Japanese faction is likely to be more sympathetic to Japan.

The article highlights the importance of understanding the different factions within Japanese society and the role they play in shaping the political landscape of the time.

The article also notes that the Chinese government has been actively promoting the independence of Korea from Japanese rule, which has put the two factions in direct conflict.

The article concludes by emphasizing the importance of understanding the political landscape of Japan and the role of different factions in shaping the country's future.

BY HARRIS WATANABE

AS EVERYONE HAS PROBABLY discovered by now, the Polio epidemic is just as bad as it was a month ago. There are still some people who don't believe it existed. The situation has not improved in the least. There are reports that the disease has spread to other cities. People are being warned to stay away from crowded places and to wash their hands frequently. The government has implemented strict quarantine measures to try to control the outbreak. It is estimated that over 1000 people have died from the disease so far. The government has promised to do everything possible to bring the epidemic under control. People are urged to continue to follow the guidelines provided by the health authorities.

Another License Casualty Reported

The State of Illinois recently issued a new license to the Chicago Athletic Association. This is the second license issued in the last year. The first license was issued to the Catholic University in Washington, D.C. The state has been criticized for issuing too many licenses. The new license will be used for events at the association's new facility, the Midwest Fieldhouse, which is scheduled to open next year. The association has been working hard to meet the state's requirements for obtaining a license. The facility will include a large gymnasium, a swimming pool, and a track. The association hopes to use the facility to promote physical fitness and health among its members.

An Important Message To Communists Abroad

Somewhere in a far-off land, an urgent call for aid is being heard. It is not the voice of war, but rather the voice of a people whose future depends on our support. They are facing a battle not of weapons, but of ideas. Their struggle is for freedom, but their工具 is education. We must answer this call, for the fate of a nation rests in our hands. The Chicago Shimpo will continue to spread this message, as we endeavor to make a difference.

'She, too, was Jewish'—Christians are Reminded

If all the deadly anti-Semitism nowadays existed and was brought to light, we would see that the majority of the organized religions have joined forces to prevent the best interests of the Jews. A recent article in the Jewish Daily Forward, a weekly newspaper published in New York City, set the record of anti-Semitism in all its forms upon the paper. The article was written by the well-known journalist, Louis Brandeis, who has been a constant fighter for the Jews' rights. He has written that in the past, the Jews were the only ones who were willing to accept the responsibility of being the bearers of the cross. The article also states that the Jews have been persecuted ever since the days of the Roman emperors, and that in order to protect themselves, they were forced to erect walls around their houses. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Jews have always been regarded as a different race, and that they have been the butt of all sorts of slanders and calumnies. The article concludes with the statement that the Jews have never been able to find a place in the councils of the nations. The Jews are regarded as outsiders, and their positions are never secure. The article also states that the Jews have always been a target for the anti-Semites, who have sought to destroy them at every turn. The article concludes with the statement that the Jews have always been willing to fight for their rights, and that they have always been the only ones who have stood up for the principles of justice and humanity. The article is a fitting reminder of the plight of the Jews, and of the need for us to stand up for their rights and for the principles of justice and humanity.
